COLUMBIANA

Miss Kathrine Redmond, from Montavilla, is visiting with her friend Miss Atkinson at Springdale.

Miss Alice Davies' mother is visiting with her at Thomas Lucas' of Springdale.

George Atkinson, who has been teaching school in eastern Oregon, has returned home for vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Poulsen, of Springdale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Magnuson at Gresham Sunday.

The program given by the Hurlburt Vocal society last Saturday night at the grange hall was excellent throughout. Those who were in the play were familiar with their parts and showed the result of excellent training. The musical program was also well given. In fact this is one of the best amateur programs that has been given in this community. Much credit is due to these enterprising young people and particularly to Mrs. Emma Jackson, to whose untiring efforts the success of the play was due to a great extent.

Mrs. Pauly, of Portland, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Luhn, last week.

Columbiana High School.

The mass meeting was considered quite successful by the patrons of this school. Quite an interested crowd heard both the morning and afternoon programs. The grade exhibits were exceptionally good. It seems wonderful how teachers in our grade schools can hear so many recitations each day and yet get so many artistic and practical things accomplished outside of their routine work. They deserve a great deal of praise.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

Bread—1st, Clara Lasley, high school; 2d, Clara Kerslake, high school.

Layer cake—1st, Agatha Harding, Pleasant View; 2d, Fernie Davis, Hurlburt.

Fancy work—1st, Luella Poulsen, high school; 2d, Myra Ross, high school.

Plain sewing—1st, Clara Lasley, high school.

Manual training—1st, Fred Woodward, high school; 2d, Fay Davis, Hurlburt.

Cream cake—1st, Alice Rasmussen; 2d, Mrs. George Mershon.

The prize for best grade school exhibit went to Hurlburt, the teacher of that school being Miss Minerva Powell.

An event of unusual interest in the day's program, was the track meet held by the boys, under the supervision of Mr. Tollefson. The following are the records made:

Pole vault, 8 ft. 1 in.; running jump, 15 ft. 6 in.; high jump, 5 ft. 1 in.; standing jump, 9 ft. 6 in.

The boys have been practicing barely two weeks, and when this is taken into consideration, the records made seem exceptionally good.

The high school pupils wish to thank at this time the judges of the school exhibits, Mrs. Tollefson and Miss Davies, the judges of the baking Mrs. H. L. Stephenson, Miss Rasmussen of the fancy work, Wazni Evans, George Chamberlain of manual training.

Among the visitors at mass meeting were S. B. Hall, county agriculturist, of Gresham, Lee Arnett, president of Montavilla Savings bank.

MELROSE

The church was well filled last Sunday night at the meeting of the Epworth League, when a fine Mothers' Day program was given under the leadership of Miss Lena Cooley. The leader had spared no pains to make the meeting a success and all agreed that it was a most helpful and interesting meeting.

Mrs. Helen Drake, of Portland, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Drake on the Luelling place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles had as guests one day last week Rev. A. C. Brackenburg and wife of Gresham and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons.

Mr. Wiles claims to have the champion duck of Oregon. If she continues the record made recently for any length of time, the claims are surely well founded. The duck is said to have laid two eggs each day for three successive days. As she is the only duck on the place, Mr. Wiles is sure of the count.

Rev. E. Zimmerman took dinner with A. B. Conrad and family last Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac Wood has as guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hayden and her sister, Mrs. Ada Smith of Springwater. Mrs. Wood and her guests went to Bridal Veil today to visit with Geo. Hayden and family.

The Searchers' class of the Sunday school met last Friday evening at the Conrad home, where a very pleasant evening was spent. Officers were elected as follows: president, Miss Caroline Tallman; vice president, Miss Lena Cooley; secretary, Lester Conrad; assistant secretary, Miss Mabel Giger; treasurer, Percy Conrad. The vice president was made chairman of the lookout committee and Mrs. Mamie Cuddeford of the social committee.

FAIRVIEW

On Sunday, May 21, at 11 a. m. in Fairview M. E. church, Rev. Joseph Hoberg of McMinnville will preach. "Grandpa" Hoberg, who is nearly 90 years old, was one of the pioneers of Methodism, being pastor of Fairview circuit in 1873-74. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all, especially to those who knew him in the past, as well as to those who know him now.

Homestead in Old Hands.

Foreclosure proceedings by Archie Cornutt against E. Schwedler has restored the old homestead to Mr. Cornutt. The case was settled last Monday. Litigation was carried on for several months before a settlement was arrived at.

Whooping Cough.

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClinton, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes, "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." PLEASANT HOME

The mothers' meeting at the Baptist church last Friday, which was held under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, was a well attended and much enjoyed by all present. Thirty-six women besides a number of children were there, among them, Mrs. E. L. Westell, Mrs. J. N. Claahan and Mrs. Ella Aton of Gresham.
