Gresham grange voted at the last meeting to participate in the contest for the prize at the county fair in September. The following heads of committees were appointed: Grains and grasses, H. E. Davis; potatoes, E. E. Welling; other vegetables, Theodore Brugger. Committees were also appointed to act for Gresham grange in the arrangements for field day. The general committee consists of N. O. Fuller, E. E. Welling and George Leslie. Mrs. H. E. Davis is on the music committee. S. Benson, Miss Pearl Durst and Miss Eva Anderson were given the third and fourth degrees of the grange.

The mother of Fred L. Everson, a former Gresham resident and former city attorney, was buried in Portland on Friday.

Gresham Union High school lost in a baseball game with Franklin high yesterday, the score being 5 to 4. The game was played on Franklin grounds. Gresham high played Hill Military on the Gresham grounds last Saturday and won 30 to 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson visited in Portland on Monday.

K. A. Miller, cashier of the Bank of Gresham, attended the annual meeting of Group one of the Oregon State Bankers association, which met at Oregon City on Saturday, May 13. E. E. Chipman and wife, accompanied by Assistant Postmistress Cressy attended a gathering of rural carriers at Beaverton on Sunday last. David Cathey has gone to Seattle to attend a meeting of the board of Pacific college, of which he is a member.

A citizens' get-together meeting will be held at the library Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and another in the evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the political candidates before the people for nomination. This will be a non-political and no-partisan meeting. No candidates will be invited or welcomed, but all interested in choosing the best men for office are asked to be present.

Mrs. J. W. Shattuck visited in Gresham on Saturday and attended the grange. Mrs. Shattuck spent the winter in California in company with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Short. She is at home now with her son Lewis Shattuck at Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Grace Walbeck left this morning for her home in Ponca, Nebraska, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her mother. Miss Walbeck has spent the past few months here with her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Myers. She will be missed by the many friends whom she has won during her sojourn here. Miss Walbeck has been a valued assistant at the Outlook office for the past few weeks.

Archie Cornutt, of Riddle, has returned home after a week's visit with relatives here.

WILSON CLUB FORMED, REPUBLICANS WELCOME

A Wilson club was organized in Metzger's hall on Saturday evening with twenty-five charter members and a full complement of officers. G. Y. Harry, state organizer and democratic booster for President Wilson, was there, accompanied by A. F. Flegel and several others. Several patriotic speeches were made and the ranks of the club were opened to all republicans who may wish to join—provided they are Wilson republicans.

It was reported that several democrats who are really for Wilson have registered as republicans. Some of them helped in the organization.

The following officers were elected: President, D. M. Roberts; vice president, Mrs. Myrtle Meyers; secretary, Miss Eva Anderson; treasurer, J. N. Faris.

There will be no initiation fee nor dues but funds will be raised by contributions. The next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, May 27.

A Symbol of Health.

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.
