TROUTDALE

Mrs. H. J. Berry and children, of Portland, came out last Thursday to visit her sister Mrs. Geo. Lumsden. They returned home Sunday evening.

Church services next Sunday evening. Preaching by Rev. B. C. Brewster. All are cordially invited to attend.

Little Mildred King has been quite ill the past week. Her mother, Mrs. King, who has been sick, is very much better.

C. D. Parker has been ill with pneumonia the past week. He is reported as improving. His son, Mabin, who had the same illness, is very much better.

Miss Gertrude Christian, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. G. P. Lumsden last Friday.

The Troutdale Sunday school has plans under way for the celebration of Children's day, June 11th. Those who were there last Sunday enjoyed a treat in the way of several songs and an interesting talk by S. O. Hawkins, of Walla Walla, Washington.

The families on the low lands over here have been preparing for a hasty moving, anticipating an invasion from the old Columbia, but the recent cool weather has checked the rise of the river, and they are living in security, for a while at least.

Mrs. Weinkoop and Miss Hazel Hoyt, both of Portland, were visitors at the Dan Mickley home last Sunday.

Mrs. Carter, of Latourell, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Larsson, of Troutdale. Mr. and Mrs. Carter start soon to take up their residence in Alaska.

The present able corps of teachers has been re-elected to manage the affairs of the Troutdale school for next year. They are J. C. Ryan, principal; Miss Miriam Inglis, intermediate, and Miss Mabel Inglis, primary.

The Ladies' Aid society has about perfected its plans for a May clearance sale in the basement of the church, Wednesday evening, May 31, where aprons, caps and other articles will be on sale. In connection, strawberries and cake will be served, and candies, home made cakes, pies, etc., will be sold.

The Parent-Teachers held their last session of the season last Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse. A program, short but very pleasing, was rendered, and refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mesdames C. I. Raker, N. S. Parsons, and A. D. Kendall. The officers elected for the ensuing year are, president, Mrs. L. A. Harlow; vice president, Mrs. A. D. Kendall; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lou Kummer.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. John McNemier, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Campbell.

Calvin Powell, of Portland, was delivering election supplies to the various country precincts in Multnomah county Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sager, Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Moore and Mrs. Elwood attended a lecture delivered at the Evangelical church at Lents last Monday evening.

Miss Laura Moore returned Monday from Meadowbrook, Clackamas county, where she has secured a school for next year.

Mrs. P. J. Berke and daughter Miss Hazel were city visitors Wednesday.

Fred Olson is giving his house a new coat of paint this week.

Chas. Ericson, of Portland, was looking after his farm in this neighborhood one day recently.

Mrs. F. A. Lehman entertained the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon.

There will be a social gathering at the grange hall Saturday evening, May 20. A short program will be rendered, including songs and instrumental selections, and a reading by Miss Roberta Downing of Portland. Miss Downing is a talented and an accomplished elocutionist and impersonator. There will be no charge for admission. Everything is free and everybody is invited to come and bring your friends and enjoy a social evening. Light refreshments will be served.

HALEY

Dr. E. H. East, of Portland, will give an address at the Swedish Baptist church Friday evening, May 26, at 8 o'clock. Miss Johnson, also of Portland, will give some vocal solos. Admission free. Ice cream and cake will be served. All are cordially invited to come.

Whooping Cough.

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClinton, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes, "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

CORBETT

Mrs. H. L. Stephenson spent the week-end with Mrs. Clara Smith and Miss Coulter. Mr. Stephenson spent Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle of Springdale, delegates to state grange, returned Sunday from Grants Pass. They report a most interesting meeting. It will be held next year at Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith are visiting at the home of the latter's brother, Rudy Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward have returned from a week's visit with their daughter at Roseburg.

Most interesting sermons were preached both morning and evening at the Christian church by Mr. Lewis of Portland, in the morning, a sermon appropriate to Mothers' day and in the evening on the theme "Exercises."

KELSO

Kelso again won the championship in the athletic field meet held at Sandy, May 13, under the auspices of the Sandy union high school, in which the following local schools participated: Kelso, Sandy, Cottrell, Firwood, Dover, Marmot and Bu: Run. Kelso won 201 points, Cottrell came second with 145 points, Sandy third with 90 points and Firwood fourth with 46 1/2 points. Of the Kelso girls, Marion Barnum won the largest number of points, 26 1/2, and of the boys, Lester Irwin, 24 points. George Jonsrud made the longest running broad jump 17 feet, 8 inches. He also won first place in all but one of the six events for boys over 15 in which he took part and in that he won second. Kelso was awarded the first prize, consisting of a handsome championship pennant in the union high school colors of green and white.

The last meeting of the Parent-Teacher association for the current school year will be held Friday evening, May 19th.

Friday evening, May 26, a spelling contest will be held at Kelso in which two contestants from each of the local schools are invited to participate.

PLEASANT HOME

Next Sunday, at the Baptist church there will be a rally of old folks, fathers and mothers of all ages. The pastor, 50 years ago, the third Sunday in May 1866, preached his first sermon. He will give a brief outline of that sermon, and a short review of his work in the ministry for the half century. The choir will consist of old folks, old songs, that your father and mother sang, will be sung. Come with your baskets and enjoy an old time picnic in the basement of the church from 12 to 2. The afternoon services will be of special interest. Special music and addresses will be made by Dr. Loughbridge, who spent the prime of his life as missionary in India, will tell of his life work in that country. Rev. E. P. Waltz, pioneer missionary in Oregon, will tell of the work in the early days of the state. Young people are invited to come, see and hear the old folks.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. I. M. Thomas on the Cannon place, Wednesday afternoon, May 24. Lunch will be served.
