CORBETT

Miss Ida Facett, of St. Johns, will be a guest at the James Ross home for the next two weeks.

W. R. Willis, agent for the O. W. R. & N. Co. at this place, returned Monday from a four weeks' leave of absence.

W. H. Reed was in Portland Monday buying goods for his store.

Mr. Davenport, of Portland, owner of the rock crusher at Tunnel No. 1, has spent the past ten days at the plant.

Miss Emma Hankey, who has been in poor health for several months, was taken to the sanatorium at Mt. Tabor Wednesday.

The basket social, and literary and musical program at the Corbett Union High school No. 1, was a most enjoyable affair as well as profitable, the net proceeds, which were to go to the Chautauqua society, were about fifty dollars.

C. V. McMonagle, of Portland, and friend were out to his picturesque acres, adjoining Ferndale Place.

Mrs. H. L. Stephenson, of Portland, gave a party Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock, at her spacious home, 412 Marguerite avenue, announcing the engagement of her sister Miss Helen Ethel Coulter to Mr. F. Harold Rondebush of Akron, Ohio. Miss Coulter has taught in the Corbett high school the past two years and during her stay among us has gained a host of friends and is very popular. The ladies invited from this vicinity were, Mesdames St. Joseph, Leland, Lewis Reed, A. R. Tollefson, J. Ward Evans, Walter Luhn and Clara E. Smith.

Rev. W. F. Reeder left Monday for Wallowa to visit a relative at that place.

Kenneth Kineaid, Rodney Shultz, and Clifford Reed, who recently took the eighth grade examination passed with very good grades.

COLUMBIANA

Golda Roney, of Portland, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Hinkle of Springdale last week and attended the social of Banner Sewing society at Columbian high school.

Rudolph Becker has commenced the sale of light refreshments to passing autoists. This fills a long felt want in this vicinity and will, no doubt, prove quite successful.

The opening dance at Becker's hall, which was postponed on account of the death of Mr. Becker's mother, will be held next Saturday night.

The Montavilla C. E. society gave a play Thursday, "Between the Acts" and presented it in quite a creditable manner. The musical program was also good. The proceeds will go to the Endeavor society of the Christian church at this place.

Miss Grace Ferguson had as her guest in Portland Marguerite Ross.

Morris Johnson returned from Portland Sunday.

Geo. Klieriem is employed at Mr. Stewart's as their chauffeur.

Mrs. Walter Luhn is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Pauly and Mrs. Luhn, of Portland.

TROUTDALE

Mrs. N. P. Wallace had as guests last week her brother, H. J. Van Schoiaek, and his wife.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Moffat, near Troutdale, on May 16th.

Mrs. S. A. Mitchell, of Portland, was a week-end guest of Mrs. E. W. Grievish, at Cherry Park. She returned home Monday.

Mrs. George Lumsden entertained the Misses Miriam and Mabel Ingils and Miss Myrtle Wallace, at dinner last Friday evening.

The Ladies' Aid sale, mentioned before, will be held next Wednesday evening. The cool weather has held back the strawberries till they are scarce yet, and they may have to change the menu, but there will be something good to eat.

Norman Dibble, formerly of Troutdale, was a visitor at the E. W. Grievish home last week. His son, Edwy., graduates from the Pacific University, June 6th.

Mrs. A. Delaney and son Leland, left last week for Vader, Washington, to join Mr. Delaney and Wilford on their ranch at that place, where they intend to make their home.

Troutdale school closes next Friday, June 2. The closing exercises will be held Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall.

Captain Stevens, of Portland, was out recently inspecting his ranch, which is the west forty acres of the Cherry Park orchard tract.

A son was born May 24 to Mr. and Mrs. John Naysmith, of Troutdale.

Rheumatism.

If you are troubled with chronic or muscular rheumatism give Chamberlain's Liniment a trial. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

COTTRELL

The Cottrell Ladies' Embroidery club will meet with Mrs. J. B. Jones on May 31. The meeting with Mrs. Hutchins last week was well attended and all had a good time.

The marriage of Miss Rosa Wishart and Lawrence Craswell in Portland Wednesday, came as a great surprise to their many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craswell attended the ceremony. The bride and groom returned to Cottrell Thursday evening. Both are Cottrell young people and are very much esteemed in the neighborhood.

Mrs. J. B. Jones will entertain the Ladies' Embroidery club Wednesday afternoon May 31.

Robert Lansdown is building a new barn. Elmer VanFleet and Joe Hall are doing the carpenter work.

The Cottrell school closed last Thursday with a picnic at the school-house. A program was rendered by the pupils in the morning and the afternoon was spent in games and races by the pupils and parents.

The Baptist Aid society met at the Pleasant Home Baptist church Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank McKinney, Thursday, June 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Seaberg, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craswell Saturday and Sunday.

Columbian High School.

Gladys Barr spent last Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents at Brower.
