Esther Kincaid entertained with a taffy pull last Friday night. Those present were Edna and Jessie Maybee, Hattie and Earl Atkinson, Harvey Letsinger, Agnes and Harty Rankin, Crate and Theodore Reeves, F. Murray Smith, Lena, Walter and C. Bell.

The following party enjoyed a launch ride and picnic dinner up at Multnomah falls last Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. Leland, Mr. and Mrs. L. Reed, Miss Coulter, Esther Kincaid, Frances Johnson, Earl Douglass and Fred Reed.

G. W. Duncan spent Sunday at Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stephenson enjoyed Sunday at Ferndale Place, and in the afternoon went up the Highway on a picnic.

Earl Douglass of Camden, Ohio, Miss Coulter's cousin, is working at J. Sumpter's.

Mrs. R. E. Johnson, of Portland, visited home folks here Monday.
J. F. Phillips was in Portland on Monday.

"Between the Acts," the play given by the Montavilla Christian Endeavor society, took in $34 at their performance at Becker's hall last Friday night.

The Hurlburt Vocal society was pleasantly entertained last Friday evening by Mrs. Arthur Johnson. The next meeting will be held at Don Littlepage's.

Mrs. Jim Sumpter is suffering from tonsillitis.

Frank Spybrock, who has an attack of pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

Albert Pounder, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pounder, has ulcerated tonsillitis. Dr. Bittner of Gresham is attending him.

PLEASANT HOME

The Pleasant Home Methodist Aid society has postponed its regular meeting to June 21. The change was made on account of the Rose Festival and the Gresham Chautauqua. Mrs. E. Markell will be the hostess. Lunch will be served.

Special on O Cedar Oil this week at Sterling & Kidder Hdwe. Co.

MELROSE

The all-day services were quite well attended at the church last Friday and beside the regular business meeting there were two interesting sermons, the first by Dr. Ford and the second by Rev. Carlos of Portland. Among others present were, five Methodist ministers and five preacher's wives: Dr. Ford, Rev. and Mrs. Zimmerman, Rev. and Mrs. Carlos, Captain and Mrs. Branson, Rev. and Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Thos Wiles. A bountiful feast was served at 12 o'clock.

The regular services will be held next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. E. F. Zimmerman at 11 a. m. and Epworth League at 8 p. m. Miss Mabel Giger is the reader next Sunday and expects to have some special music. Everyone is welcome at all services.

Mrs. Katie Chamberlain, of Portland, is visiting her sister Mrs. Dimple Jones for a few days.

Mrs. Mary Mitzel is visiting a few days at her former home, Beaverton.

Miss Belle Penny, of St. Johns, spent a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood.

Some of the ladies gave the Hiff church a regular spring house cleaning this week. They were assisted by some of the men folks and report the church in fine shape.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson had as guests the past week Mr. and Mrs. Barendrick of Portland, Mrs. Jones of Brooks and Mrs. Ollie Massey of Salem.

J. H. Wilson is able to be about again after a three weeks' illness.

Mrs. Nina Buxton, of Gresham, is visiting her brother, Everett Stafford.

Leslie Wiles, who is working for his brother in Fresno, California, reports that they have an electric alarm stove, upon which they put their breakfast to cook at night. When the alarm rings the fire is started and the food begins to cook. Thus they have the privilege of sleeping until breakfast is ready.

Mrs. C. O. Branson has a bed of volunteer sweet peas in bloom.

Strawberries are plentiful here and very large. They seem to have suffered no damage from frost, although other fruits were more or less injured.

Mrs. Luella Drake visited her mother, Mrs. Helen Drake, in Montaville on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles visited their son Lewis at Terry on Sunday afternoon.

The graves in Douglass cemetery were generously decorated with flowers on Tuesday.

TROUTDALE

Mrs. Minnie Collins, of San Francisco, is here for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Bailey.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid society held a clearance sale Wednesday evening in the church basement. The rooms were beautifully decorated with potted ferns and spring flowers. A pleasant social evening was spent by those attending, and over $15 was added to the treasury. Next Aid meeting will be June 14, instead of June 7, the regular time, on account of Rose Festival week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Knarr surprised their friends in Troutdale by coming Tuesday for a few days' visit. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Macey, of Brooks, went by auto to visit them at Parkdale, their present home, and they returned with their guests as far as Troutdale. They return Friday to Parkdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, and daughter Della, have returned from Redmond, and will spend the summer with W. P. Benedict.

Mrs. Henry Parsons is home from Portland, where she underwent an operation recently. She is getting along very nicely, still having to go to the hospital for treatments, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheney and Miss Edith Cook, of Portland, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kummer.

Church services will be held next Sunday evening, preaching by Rev. B. C. Brewster. Brother Brewster is going to give the children's day address which is to be June 11, at 10:30 o'clock a. m.

The closing exercises of the school Tuesday evening were very good, showing patient and efficient work on the part of both teachers and pupils. The eighth grade pupils are taking the examinations Thursday and Friday. The class roll is Marguerite Bailey, Marie Bramhall, Florence Bramhall, Jack Hartow, Abbie Jane Larson, Mary Bell McGinnis, Basil Mercer, Artyl Tiller.

The Warren Construction company gave a parade in Troutdale Thursday evening, ending with a dance at Bailey's garage.

Thousands of farmers use Lowe Brothers Standard barn paint for painting their barns, silos, fences and outbuildings. It is the most economical barn paint on the market. Ask for color cards at our store. A. W. Metzger.—Adv.
