Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"I will cheerfully say that Chamberlain's Tablets are the most satisfactory remedy for stomach troubles and constipation that I have sold in thirty-five years' drug store service," writes S. H. Murphy, druggist, Wellburg, N. Y. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

LOCAL EVENTS OF INTEREST

Joseph C. Lampt, who is employed on H. G. Mullenhor's farm, was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday while in the field at work. He was found after having been in an unconscious condition for five hours and was brought to Gresham by C. H. Lane and taken to Mrs. Waltman's sanitarium. He has nearly recovered and will return to his work in a day or two.

Mrs. H. M. Miller was able to be taken home from the sanitarium last Saturday, after six weeks' of treatment.

Children's day exercises will be held by the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A good program has been prepared and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mrs. S. E. Toepleman of Ileton, California, arrived Wednesday on the steamer Great Northern for a few weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Metzger and other relatives.

Walter Belt of Newport, Oregon, is here visiting his grandmother, Mrs. I. McColl and enjoying the festivities of commencement and rose festival weeks.

A. R. Lyman and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair attended a reunion of their college alumni at The Oaks yesterday afternoon and evening. Other members of their families present were Keith Lyman, Winifred and Margaret St. Clair.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Thompson and Mrs. I. McColl attended the graduation exercises of the Medical School, University of Oregon, held at Lincoln high school last night. Wilbur E. Thompson and Chas. McColl were among the graduates.

Miss Lucile Watson, of Eugene, is visiting her college classmate, Miss Vaughn McCormick.

Prof. R. W. Rose, of Molalla, is in Gresham the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McCormick. Mr. Rose will leave soon to visit his parents in Nebraska.

"Bill" Congdon says it's worth the price of two season tickets just to hear the Hawaiian singers to be at the Chautauqua. He has heard them and knows. "The same can doubtless be said of many other features to be heard here next week. Arm yourself with a season ticket so you can take them all in.

Francis Williams of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kessler. His mother, Mrs. Clara Williams, of Portland, and Miss Evelyn Williams of Oregon City spent Sunday here. The latter is employed in D. C. Ely's store in Oregon City.

Mrs. Hannah Jenkins of Kalama, Washington, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Lane. Mrs. Jenkins timed her visit for the present in order to take in the Chautauqua assembly next week.

Officials of the Portland Railway Light & Power company announce that beginning Sunday night the car which usually leaves for Portland at 9:45 on the O. W. P. line will be held until 10:10 for the benefit of those wishing to attend the Chautauqua from the city and way points.

A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Exley on Wednesday, June 7.

Lucile, Flora and Emmett Lane of Kalama, Washington, returned to their home yesterday, after having spent commencement week with their uncle, C. H. Lane and family.

S. F. Pitts has traded his 20-acre farm southeast of Gresham for an 80-acre place at Dover, six miles beyond Sandy and will move there with his family in a week or two. He expects to start a dairy and will begin with about twenty cows. Having bought stock and farm implements with the place, he is arranging for a sale of some that he has on his place here. See his ad. in another column.

A. W. Henry of Hoquiam, Washington, the newly elected head of the science department of union high school, and his wife, visited Gresham yesterday preparatory to moving here in the near future. They will live in one of Frank Gibbs' bungalows in Regner's addition. Mr. Henry is a graduate of Washington State college and comes highly recommended as a teacher of science, having had several years of successful experience in high school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger entertained on Monday Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith of Monument, Oregon and Miss Arletha Cannon of Portland. Mr. Smith was in attendance at the bankers' conference in Portland.

George L. Edwards, an experienced electrician who lived in Gresham two years ago, has returned and will succeed to the business left by Ray H. Todd. Mr. Edwards installed the new system at the fair grounds two years ago. He is here with his family and will make Gresham his home.

Art Leland moved the two Lovelace families from Rockwood, with all their belongings, to Roseburg in his big auto truck. The distance is over two hundred miles each way and the Lovelaces were able to save about $35 over railroad rates.

Miss Mildred Riddle, of LaGrande, returned home Wednesday after a week's visit with her college chum, Miss Vaughn McCormick.

E. S. McCormick addressed the graduating class of the Sylvan school Tuesday evening.

TROUTDALE

The Ladies' Aid society will meet next week Wednesday with Mrs. John Burdine.

The Children's Day exercises, which were to have been given by the Sunday school next Sunday have been postponed until June 18.

Mrs. C. I. Raker had as guests last Sunday, her niece and nephew, Mrs. Claude Rose, of Washington, and Sam Raker, of Portland.

Members of Troutdale Chapter, O. E. S. made special effort to attend the installation ceremonies of the Grand Chapter in Portland Thursday night. It was of more than ordinary interest, because their matron, Mrs. Janet M. Grant, was installed grand warder. As this is the first time a grand officer has been selected from this chapter, the honor is greatly appreciated. Mrs. Grant's work in her own chapter has always been exceptionally good and we know she will fill her station in the grand chapter with equal credit to herself.

HILLSVIEW

E. C. Jackson is hauling lumber and gravel, preparing to build a nice new house.

Mrs. A. Samuelson is home again, after a four months' stay in the hospital. She is able to push herself around in her wheel chair and is truly glad to be with her family again.

Glen Ogden, of Gresham, spent Monday night with Eugene and Aubrey Taylor.

Miss Agnes Taylor spent the first of the week with friends in Portland.

Mrs. E. L. Norquist has been unable to be out for the past few weeks on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Yunker attended commencement exercises of union high school in Gresham Tuesday night.

LUSTED

We are very glad to see that Mr. Hillyard, our road supervisor, has started to work on the road north of the school.

Walter Patterson, of Portland, visited with his cousins Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson a couple of days this week.

The school closed here Thursday. A picnic dinner will be given on the school ground on Saturday, June 10.

Several from here attended the Rose festival in Portland last Wednesday.
