LOCAL EVENTS OF INTEREST

All county road work was indefinitely discontinued on Monday and several road superintendents were discharged. It has been intimated that several more will be dismissed, owing to the fact that the hardsurfaced roads will not require attention by the county hereafter.

Mrs. C. A. Byington of The Dalles is the guest of Mrs. R. E. Belt during Chautauqua.

Mrs. A. W. Parker of Deer River, Minnesota, a niece of Mrs. Clara Kane and E. R. Wright, is here with her small daughter, visiting with her relatives. Mrs. Parker's husband, who is in the United States forestry service, is expecting a permanent location in the west, where they have come to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Preston and little daughter of Berkeley, California, are visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Preston. They will remain through the month of June. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair were guests at the Preston home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beagle, and children, Earl and Addie, have returned from a week's visit at The Dalles.

Frank Frakes has gone to Portland where he is working in the O. W. R. & N. shops.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Anderson and family, of Portland, visited at the home of his mother on Sunday.

The Rebekah lodge had a good attendance at their meeting. Three applications for membership were read. It was announced that Mrs. Cora Childers has been appointed district deputy. She was also elected captain of the drill team. A reading was enjoyed by Miss Willa Metzger and a song by Miss Gladys Michel.

Mrs. Cora Childers received word last evening of the serious illness of her father in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Honey left today for Seattle in response to a message announcing the sudden death of an aunt. They will probably be gone several days.

Mrs. F. J. Cartan of Corvallis, mother of Miss Hazel Cartan, spent last week here. Both left Sunday for Corvallis, where Miss Cartan will take a summer course at the college.

Mrs. C. M. Oliphant spent the day Saturday in Lents with her son, Roy White and family.

An informal reception will be tendered Mrs. Harriette Gunn Roberson tomorrow before the afternoon session of Chautauqua, under the auspices of the Gresham Woman's club and the Gresham missionary societies. Mrs. Roberson is especially interested in these lines of work and has expressed a desire to meet the ladies personally. All members of these organizations are asked to be present as early as 1:30 if possible, in the big tent.

Hazel Fultz of Salem, who came a week ago to visit her sister, Mrs. Claude Smith, has gone to Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for surgical treatment. She will be there for several weeks.

Dr. R. W. Quesinberry of Rockwood, one of the recent graduates of the North Pacific Dental college, left today for Joseph, Oregon, where he has purchased a dental office and will begin his practice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Conley and Mrs. Leonard of Philadelphia, guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stapleton, went with the latter on a trip up the Columbia River Highway on Sunday.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

An act of congress, passed on May 18th of this year, restores postal savings deposits to local banks. Nearly two years ago, when the Federal reserve banks were started all such deposits were sent to them since that time, but hereafter the local banks will be given the benefits of holding the money.

Mrs. A. D. Rigg of Newark, Oklahoma, came Friday night to visit with her daughters, Mrs. Alta Truitt and Mrs. Mary Wood.

Emil Olson, son Roy and daughter Olive, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schiller, left on Monday for Yellowstone National park. They went by automobile and expect to be away about two months.

Reports from Corvallis announce that two young men well known here have received merited promotion in the military ranks of the college cadets. Floyd Metzger has been created a second lieutenant, and Fred Crane was made sergeant. They are receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends and acquaintances.

James H. Sterling and family left on Saturday for Ohio where they will visit for three months. Their farm will be in charge of O. H. Meyers during their absence. Mrs. Elizabeth Heskitt, who has been a member of the family for many years, will visit during the summer with Mrs. Sterling's sister, Mrs. Chas. Briggs, at Lyle, Washington.

Martin M. Squires' 46th birthday anniversary was celebrated at his home on Saturday evening with a lunch to which the drivers of the Ford Quick Service cars and their wives were invited. William DeVoe, of Wisconsin, visited with the Thomas family last week. He was on his way to California.

A heavy frost on Friday night created considerable havoc with the gardens between Rockwood and Lents. Many potato fields were almost ruined.

A public sale of registered Holstein cows, horses, Shetland ponies and farm machinery will be held on the Olson farm just north of the Twelve-mile corner, on Thursday, June 22. Entrance to the farm is on the Fairview road.

Tomorrow will be Flag day all over the state. The junior agricultural school will hold a celebration in honor of the occasion under the auspices of the D. A. R. Hon. George W. Stapleton will make an address, as will Rev. J. D. Corby president of the school. All are invited to be present.

The Bank of Gresham has been made one of the county depositories; the amount to be deposited here being $5,000.

C. A. Lindstrom, who came to Gresham about six months ago, has recently passed the veterinary state board examination and has a license to practice in this state. He is a graduate of the McKillip Veterinary college of Chicago and has had considerable experience in his practice in Minnesota and California. He is living in Mrs. Raney's house on Second street, near Roberts avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Henkle, of Springdale, were in Gresham yesterday arranging for an auction sale of all their stock, farm implements and household goods, to be held on Wednesday, June 28. They have rented their farm for three years and will go with their family to Coffey county, Kansas, where Mr. Henkle will take charge of his father's farm. Mr. and Mrs. Henkle have been leaders in grange work and in all social work of the neighborhood and will be greatly missed.

C. M. Hall and family have moved to Newberg, where he has bought a farm.

Schlappi-Strebin Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Schlappi at Tillamook, Wednesday, June 7, when their daughter Helena was united in marriage to John C. Strebin of this place.

Miss Schlappi has been a successful young teacher for several years and is well liked and much respected by all who know her. Mr. Strebin is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college and is well known here.

The bride was very charming in her dress of white silk crepe de chine with veil and orange blossoms. She carried white carnations.

Miss Gertrude Schlappi, sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid. She was dressed in pink silk and carried pink carnations. Herman Schlappi, brother of the bride was best man.

About twenty-five guests were present at the wedding.

After the ceremony the young couple were congratulated by the guests and a very dainty and delicious luncheon was served to all present.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Strebin wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera.

You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.
