LOCAL EVENTS OF INTEREST

The Monday Night Dancing club, of Portland, was in full attendance at an invitation party given last night by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton. A barn dance to excellent orchestra music was the principal feature and a good time was the final verdict.

Helmer Johnson, living near Orient, sent a Sharpless strawberry to the Outlook that measures five and one-half inches around the largest way. A peculiarity of this particular berry is that it is shaped like the letter S—the initial of its name.

A city election will be held tomorrow for the purpose of annexing more territory to the municipality. The area asking to be annexed is about 40 acres on the western boundary of the town, the owners of which have put up a check for the costs of the election. Polls will be open from 1 to 7 p. m. at the town hall.

Floyd Metzger returned Wednesday evening from Corvallis, where he has been attending O. A. C. He was accompanied by Martin Vancouver, a graduate of the mining department of O. A. C., who left Thursday morning for Arizona where he will be employed. Mr. Vancouvering was president of the O. A. C. Glee club which gave a concert here last December.

Geurdon Humason is spending a few days here this week, but expects to return to eastern Oregon soon.

Everything is in readiness for the big banquet by the Alumni association tomorrow evening. Mr. Regner has been bending every energy to help the association make the affair a complete success. About eighty covers will be laid.

The plate glass windows in the Regner building which were cracked by the frost last winter have been replaced today. The woodwork of the front is being repainted.

Pomona grange will meet at Rockwood next Wednesday. Rockwood grange is making ample preparations for the session which will probably continue until late at night with a class of candidates and a special program.

Rev. A. C. Brackenbury, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will begin a series of sermons next Sunday, which will continue for at least five weeks. They are prepared especially for the young people. The subject of the morning sermons will be "The Investment of Talent." That of the evening services will be "A Young Man's Life and Its Lessons." James Preston of Berkeley, California, will sing at the morning service next Sunday.

A delightful trip to the Highway was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davidson, Mrs. Lillian Grant of Melstone, Montana, Mrs. Chas. Levens of Portland and Mrs. W. C. Burch.

Neighbors and friends of S. F. Pitts and family, more than thirty in number, gathered at the Pitts home last Wednesday night to express their esteem for the family and their regrets for their intended removal to Dover. A pleasant evening was spent, at the close of which ice cream and cake were served.

Dr. McFloy, wife and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. White and daughter Murrell of Lents motored out last night to the Oliphant farm and had a feast of strawberries and cream.

Miss Olive Merrill has returned from Monmouth, where she has finished a year's study at the normal. Miss Birdine Merrill closes her school in Portland today and will be at home tonight.

C. Shattuck formerly of Gresham, motored out to Gresham Wednesday in his new Ford. Mr. Shattuck is now living in Portland.

Mrs. Ella Aton returned today from Grants Pass, where she has been visiting for several weeks with Rev. Melville T. Wire and wife. She was accompanied from Portland by her nephew, Morris Wilmarth of Oswego.

Gresham's census should have been taken this week while Chautauqua was in session.

TROUTDALE

Mrs. C. E. Rose of Matlock, Wash., was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. I. Raker, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Norman Dibble, of Forest Grove, a former resident of Troutdale, was visiting Tuesday and Wednesday at the Thomas and Grievish homes.

Members of the union high school at Corbett will give a play in the Masonic hall next Tuesday, June 20.

The annual school election will be held next Monday, June 19 at 8 p. m. at Masonic hall.

Miss Marguerite Bailey is making a fortnight's visit in Portland in the family of her uncle, Roy Bailey.

The Sunday school will have its Children's day exercises next Sunday, June 18, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. J. H. Thomas, of Corvallis, and Mrs. Taylor H. Halleck, of Newport, are visiting their son and brother, C. I. Thomas, this week. Their husbands, Mr. Thomas and Mr. Halleck, went on to Hood River on a business trip, expecting to return Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. John Burdine Wednesday afternoon. A very pleasant time was had and Mrs. Burdine served dainty refreshments. The principal business of the meeting was to vote a vacation from active work till September, when they are to meet with Mrs. Harlow. Plans were also made for a picnic to be held at the Oaks Park Thursday, June 29. All friends of the society are cordially invited to picnic with them.

Mrs. Eugene Barnes and daughter, Miss Valeta Barnes, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, are the guests of Mrs. Vanderwalker. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Vanderwalker entertained in honor of Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Henry Vanerman of Portland, and Mrs. M. Collins, of Berkeley, California.

Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons in Gresham Saturday.

"Her conversion to christianity was very much like that of Saul of Tarsus" says Pastor Kramer of First Baptist church, San Jose, concerning Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons, wife of the former champion of the prize ring, who is now an evangelist lecturing under the auspices of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society of Portland, and who will tell the remarkable story of her life and conversion on Saturday night in the M. E. church. Mrs. Fitzsimmons is a woman of striking personality, of French birth with blood of the nobility in her veins, and she speaks with a marked French accent. Her meetings are attracting much interest and making a very deep impression. The story she tells sounds more like the pages from tragic fiction than the actual experience of a real live human being. She is devoting her life to rescue work and has achieved some good results already.

NOTICE OF SALE UNDER CHATTEL MORTGAGE.

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah, ss.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a chattel mortgage dated on the 7th day of June, 1916, and duly filed and recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Multnomah county, Oregon on the 9th day of June, 1916, and executed by J. at public auction on the Rowen 20-acre premises about one mile north of Rockwood in Multnomah county, Oregon, on the 20th day of June, 1916, at one o'clock p. m. of said day for the satisfaction of said mortgage debt in the total sum of $455.00 and for paying of disbursements and expenses of this proceeding that may accrue, and for making due return hereof to the County Clerk of said County.

Dated Gresham, Oregon, June 9, 1916.

M. M. SQUIRE,
Constable for Multnomah District.
MILO C. KING,
Attorney for Bank of Gresham.

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. Here is an instance: E. W. Archer, Caldwell, Ohio, writes: "I do not believe that our family has been without Chamberlain's Colic, Diarrhoea Remedy since we commenced keeping house years ago. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." For sale by Gresham Drug Co.—Adv.

THE BEST CAR

Many manufacturers and agents claim that theirs is the best car for general all around use, but it remains for the Dodge Brothers to demonstrate the fact that it actually IS THE BEST CAR for general use. The elements entering into this fact are too numerous to be explained in an advertisement, but if you will call and see us and take a ride in one of our Dodge cars we can then satisfy your desire for information on every point. There is more service to the dollar of expense in the Dodge Brothers car than there is in any other car made.
