LOCAL EVENTS OF INTEREST

There will be a regular meeting of the fair directors on Monday next at 2:30 p. m. Several important matters in connection with the coming fair will be considered.

Mrs. Victor Iler, better known in this community as Maeve Lovelace, is the mother of a daughter, born at her home near Albany on June 18.
She is receiving numerous congratulations from her many friends here.

The residence of D. L. McLain is being improved by the addition of an 8-foot porch across the end and one side. J. G. Metzger is in charge of the carpenter work. Mr. McLain has been confined to his home for the past six weeks. He was able to walk up town this morning.

W. E. Wood was in the Outlook office this morning exhibiting a cancer, preserved in alcohol, which he removed from the face of Grandma Gibson of Pleasant Home by the use of Dr. Wyant's cancer salve. The cancer was of the rose variety and had given great annoyance and pain in the past eighteen months. Mr.
Wood applied the salve on June 18 and in 11 days the growth came off.
This is the fifth successful operation of the kind which Mr. Wood has to his credit. Mrs. Gibson is 88 years of age.

There will be a rally of the members of the Woodrow Wilson club on Wednesday evening of next week, July 5. Judge Samuel White, chairman of the state democratic central committee will be the principal speaker. Everyone is invited to be present at Regner's hall.

George and Harry Preston arrived home from Marshfield yesterday to spend a week with their mother, Mrs. Mary Preston, and the family of their brother, James Preston, who is spending his summer vacation here.

Ben Mathews has opened his new pool hall on Main street and is prepared to meet his friends there. It is one of the coziest places in town.

Ed. Seifer, of Boring, has bought of Hessel & Son an ensilage cutter and blower to use in filling his new silo.

Mrs. J. C. Hessel, who is yet at the Good Samaritan hospital with a broken left arm, will be brought home tomorrow. She is progressing favorably after the operation of last week and an early recovery is expected.

E. E. Chipman, carrier on rural route one, and William Childers of route two, will begin their annual vacation next Monday. Mrs. Edna Stanley will substitute on one and Clarence Stanley on two.

Next Tuesday being one of the holidays given the letter carriers there will be no mail service on the routes that day. The postoffice will be open for one hour in the forenoon.

A large cloth banner will be placed across Main street at the fair ground entrance, with the fair dates painted thereon.

The missionary society of the Baptist church will meet on Thursday afternoon, July 6th, with Mrs. James Lawrence. An interesting program of music and readings will be given and lunch will be served.

Mrs. Ella Aton is nursing her niece, Mrs. K. Stone, of Boring, who is very sick.

Mrs. Clara Blair has returned to her home in Portland, after spending about three months with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Bates.

The Misses Florence Wilhelm, Marie Lane and Lucy Peterson are taking the teachers' examination in Portland this week. Miss Wilhelm is staying over nights with Mrs. W. E.
Bates.

Mrs. Clara Kane had as guests one day this week her daughters, Mrs.
A. R. Goger of Co'trell and Mrs. May Landon of Lents.

E. W. Unis is advertising a sale of all his stock, farm implements and household goods, to be held at his place on Saturday, July 8th. Mr.
Unis has been in ill health for several months and is not able to look after his farm work. He may make a trip to some other place for the benefit of his health.

Word has been received of the birth on June 22d of a nine-pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buchanan, former residents here, now of Seattle.

Mrs. Robert Lansdown, of Pleasant Home, is taking the teachers' examination at Oregon City.
The open sesame—A Want Ad.
