Ernest Brugger came back from Welches the other day with a slice of his left thumb missing. He was splitting kindling in the usual way and made a misleek. He will have a thumb with a point to it hereafter.

J. C. Hessel received some samples of Minnesota wheat yesterday that show the result of the hot weather in the middle west. All the grains are shriveled to less than one-fourth the size of ordinary wheat such as is seen here. To see the samples is enough to fully realize the recent rise in wheat and have the great crop shortage fully confirmed.

Marshal McKinney has painted the fountain with a new coat of white paint. Its appearance is improved about 100 per cent.

Kirk Thompson and Glenwood Miller went to Wildcat mountain, near Welches, this morning on a hunting trip.

Rev. J. D. Corby writes the Outlook to discontinue the Junior school advertisement, saying that applications for admission have been so great that they cannot be accommodated. He says that for the present they must decline to receive more pupils and devote their energies to raising a fund to finance the school adequately.

Ben Mathews has received a letter from Sherman county saying that the wheat crop is turning out from 20 to 45 bushels per acre with most of the crop at the higher figure.

M. Bahtwa, from British Burma, is spending a few weeks at the Hall-rose ranch. Mr. Bahtwa is a student of agriculture, spending several years in this country studying agricultural practices in different sections and attending several of our leading agricultural schools. He was a student of S. B. Hall at the Agricultural high school in Los Angeles, and will attend the Oregon Agricultural college this next year.

Jas. McKinney and wife are home after a week's vacation at Eagle Creek.

Miss Lenora Dunlap left Tuesday evening for Prescott, Washington, after a visit with her mother at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery.

Principal Goodwin is compiling a new prospectus of the Union high school. It will be issued about September 1.

Bert Metzger has let the contract for the removal of the old shop at the corner of Powell street and Roberts avenue, preparatory to putting up a new building.

The musicale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown, in which the chief part was taken by Miss Edna Leona Benson, of Seattle, was well attended and greatly enjoyed. Miss Benson's playing was considered excellent, and many highly complimentary remarks were heard regarding it. Miss Benson has been the pupil of Mme. Venino for the past five years. She has made a very fine beginning on the vocation which she expects to follow, that of music. Over $20 were cleared at the concert, which was under the auspices of the Baptist church.
