The Value of Water Powers.

Approximately 6,000,000 horse power of hydro-electricity has been developed in the United States. The United States Geological Survey estimates that about 60,000,000 horse power remains undeveloped. It is estimated that perhaps 15,000,000 of this undeveloped water power could in the near future be economically and profitably developed and used if the laws permitted. Water power cannot be utilized to advantage excepting where it can be generated and delivered at a lower cost than fuel power. The cost of installing water power plants is generally from two to three times that of installing steam plants and the interest on this additional investment in very many instances amounts to more than the cost of fuel and operation in steam plants. In many sections of the country, steam power is cheaper than water power because of this larger interest cost.

BORING

The entertainment given at the Methodist church last Saturday evening was a decided success. The net proceeds being $43.90. The church was packed to the limit. Following the program a voting contest was held to decide who was the prettiest lady and homeliest man present. The winners to be chosen by popular vote. A lively time for one hour followed, during which 258 votes were cast. Miss Sophia Zore, the jolly clerk in the local postoffice and drug store easily won the ladies prize, receiving sixty-three votes, her nearest opponent receiving only forty-eight, and H. G. Knox, although quite good looking won the homely man's prize over J. W. Stone by 45 to 40 votes. The prize in each case being a cake. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream, cake and watermelon. At the parcel post counter numerous small packages had been collected and which were quickly sold. In the meantime the young people enjoyed themselves with games on the lawn by the church until midnight.

TROUTDALE

Miss Gladys Goin, of Portland, came out Saturday for a visit with her friend, Miss Merle Monahan.

Miss Sallie Fox returned Sunday from a delightful visit with her aunt at Baker City. On her return she went to Pocatello, Idaho, to meet little Miss Clelia Crawford, who is going to stay with her grandmother, Mrs. Powell, and attend school in Troutdale.

Mrs. N. S. Parsons and two children, Fay and Dale, returned home Sunday from a visit with her father in Kansas. Their visit was cut short on account of the threatened railroad strike, which they feared would maroon them longer than they intended to be away.

A card from Mrs. Crawford received Sunday says she is having a pleasant time at Netarts, Oregon, on the coast.

Quite a party went to Gresham last Tuesday evening to participate in the street celebration at that place.

Two of our most popular young people sprung a surprise on their friends at Troutdale last week. Gladys A. Lumsden and Morris B. McGinnis were married at Roseburg Thursday, August 17th. They came home the following Tuesday to announce it to their surprised relatives and friends. The young couple have the best wishes of the entire community for their future happiness and prosperity. They expect to reside in Troutdale, where Morris is interested in the McGinnis celery gardens.

Miss Della Zimmerman spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Ruby Rasmussen, at Corbett.

Carl Allard and his wife and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Anna Berger and daughter, of San Francisco, motored up from California last week and are spending their time visiting Mrs. Frances Allard, at Troutdale, and other relatives in Portland.

John Burdine has a curiosity in his garden in the form of a new kind of strawberry, which now has a goodly quantity of ripe fruit, and green fruit and blossoms. He says they have given him berries all through the three summer months and will certainly continue till frost.

All of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Morris McGinnis who could be there, gathered at the G. P. Lumsden home last Thursday evening, to give them a welcome home, and express their good wishes toward the newly-weds. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the large gathering.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid will meet next week Wednesday, September 6, with Mrs. L. A. Harlow. Election of officers and other important business will come before the meeting.

COTTRELL

Nothing Doing.

"What's the shape of the earth?" asked the teacher, calling suddenly upon Willie.
"Round."
"How do you know it's round."
"All right," said Willie; "it's square, then. I don't want to start any argument about it."

Trunk Bank Is Robbed

SALEM, Or., Aug. 29.—(Special).—Mrs. J. E. Steen, of this city, laid $100 in gold by for a rainy day last Wednesday. She placed it in the pocket of an old overcoat which she buried in the bottom of a trunk. Saturday she had need of some money and went to the trunk. The trunk was there, but the overcoat and gold were missing.

The police are working on the case today.
