LUSTED

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Rauw, September 2, a ten-pound boy.

Ed Hamilton and Ed. Carpenter were called to serve on the jury this month. The former was excused on account of such a busy time taking care of the grain and threshing.

Miss Marlon Robertson attended the teachers' institute in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton and daughter Irma, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Smith and son of Montavilla, visited the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, Sr., last Sunday.

For some time Mr. I. Spencer has had much trouble with rodents around the chicken house. He set traps and recently caught a large mountain beaver. The animals have undermined the ground and otherwise made themselves a nuisance.

A. W. Whitesides of Portland, stayed at the home of his brother-in-law, Ed. Hamilton, from Saturday until Monday evening. He put his time in fishing. He caught twenty five large salmon trout and fifteen large graylings. His fish basket was full.

Argentina's 1915 imports were valued at $219,000,000.

Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a medicine that every fam-Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and illy should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. For sale by all Druggists.—Adv.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin and daughter Fern, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Campbell, Monday.

I. T. Coffman, of Lents, was out looking after his ranch Tuesday.

Ernest Olson, of Sellwood, was a visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Olson on Tuesday. Ernest is making arrangements to build a residence on his place here with the expectation of making it his future home.

Mervin Richey was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sager one day recently.

Jake Cornelly, formerly of this place, but now of Hood River, spent the fore part of the week visiting with relatives here.

Geo. Thebo was transacting business in Troutdale Monday.

Miss Laura Moore leaves Friday for Cedardale where she has secured the school to teach for the ensuing year. Cedardale school is in the Colton district, Clackamas county.

Pleasant Valley school opens Monday, September 11, with Mr. Series of Montavilla in charge of the advanced room and Miss Winnifred Roman of this place in charge of the primary department. The ninth grade will be taught here this year.

The Richey clan held their annual reunion in Pleasant Valley grange hall on labor day. About thirty members of the clan were in attendance. While the attendance was not as large as usual a very pleasant and interesting meeting was held. F. S. Akin, of Portland, delivered a short address in which he reviewed the objects of the organization and urged the members to use their influence to get others to attend next year. The report of the historian showed that so far about two hundred members of the clan have been located, half of whom are located on the Pacific coast. The rest are scattered throughout the eastern states. The report also disclosed that there had been three weddings, three births and no deaths amongst the clan since their last annual meet a year ago.

Between the hay baling and threshing outfits Pleasant Valley folks are kept pretty busy these days.

TERRY

John Coons and William Powell and family have gone to the hop fields.

Guss Anderson, of Terry, is improving the Douglas cemetery.

Mrs. Coons was a caller at her farm on last Tuesday.

John Hinderman, who lives near Terry motored to Columbia highway last Wednesday. Those who went from Gresham were Mrs. Coons and A. G. Guynap. The party returned late in the evening and all reported having a pleasant trip.

Notice of Meeting of County Board of Equalization.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, September 11, 1916, the Board of Equalization of Multnomah county will attend at the office of the county assessor, at the courthouse in Portland, and publicly examine the assessment rolls for the year 1916, and correct all errors in valuation, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property, assessed by the county assessor. And it shall be the duty of persons interested to appear at the time and place appointed. If it shall appear to such Board of Equalization that there are any lands or lots or other property assessed twice, or incorrectly assessed as to description or quantity, and in the name of a person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond the actual full cash value thereof, said Board may make proper correction of the same. If it shall appear to such Board that any land, lots or other property assessable by the assessor are not assessed, such Board shall assess the same at the full cash value thereof.

HENRY E. REED,
County Assessor.
Portland, Oregon, August 19, 1916.
