After giving their hearty sympathy to the railroad men in their fight for an eight hour day, millions of our housewives would probably be pleased to see their hours reduced to twelve.

FAIRVIEW

Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Brewster were given a surprise party on Thursday evening at the parsonage. It was in honor of their second wedding anniversary and also Mrs. Brewster's birthday. Previous to the party, Rev. and Mrs. Brewster had taken dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peterson in honor of their wedding anniversary. Music and games made a happy evening and refreshments were served. Twenty-three were present.

There are in Oregon 32 projects for reclamation of desert land, covering 1,109,599 acres, and total amount of money needed to complete them is $54,644,000. There are 2,000,000 acres of so-called desert land in the state which may be reclaimed to furnish homes for many people. But the trouble is, Oregon's share of the reclamation fund is spent in other states.

Encouragement.

B. F. Yoakum, the railroad man and munitions contractor, said in his New York office:

"Scandal, even when proved false, does immense harm. They who are maligned get small comfort when you tell them the scandal is false—does this news, which they knew already, make good the harm they have suffered?"

"Such comfort is almost as bad as the remark of the mutual friend. 'Oh, how I adore that girl!' a chap said to this fellow. 'But she's so beautiful, so fascinating, I know I'll never succeed in winning her love.'"

"'Rot said the mutual friend. 'Lots of other men have succeeded. Why shouldn't you?'"
