Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a medicine that every fam-Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and ity should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. For sale by all Druggists.—Adv.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

A. W. Davis, J. W. Davis, I. B. Martin and D. C. Lewis of St. Johns, visited the fair on Wednesday and were Outlook callers.

Mrs. C. I. Raker, of Troutdale, was a guest of Miss Emma B. Johnson on Wednesday. She also took in the fair.

Samuel Jones, a resident of Douglas county, was a caller at the home of Judge Wonacott on Wednesday and a visitor at the fair.

Ralph Stanley was severely burned by a gasoline flare-up while cleaning his suit one day lately. His left cheek and neck were badly scarred as a result.

A forest fire near Sandy yesterday destroyed two barns on the Hoffman place, one of which contained twenty tons of hay. The fire is under control.

Roy H. Gibbs, who was graduated from the Union high school last June, expects to leave tomorrow for Corvallis, where he will enter Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Laura V. Bulkeley, formerly of Gresham, came from Montavilla yesterday to visit the fair. She was accompanied by Miss Ola Deniston, a teacher in the Montavilla school and her cousin Mrs. Ella B. Weise, of Waldport, Oregon.

Mrs. Oscar Erickson and children are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey this week.

A general alarm brought out the fire department Tuesday evening on a call from Claude Smith's residence. The fire, which is said to have been started from the explosion of a lamp, was extinguished before the arrival of the department.

Word has been received of the recent serious illness of George B. Faris, who suffered from malarial fever in a hospital at Fort Smith, Arkansas. Mr. Faris has recovered and is now employed on the office force of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad, Van Buren, Arkansas.

A card was received this morning by Mrs. Mary Leslie, announcing the birth of a grandson at Lebanon, Oregon. The young man arrived Wednesday, September 13, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orland Zeek, formerly of this place. The many friends of the family here congratulate them on the birth of an heir.

How to Give Good Advice.
The best way to give good advice is to set a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and enjoys an excellent reputation. For sale by all Druggists.—Adv.

Cleveland has received $218,000 in payment of three years' taxes from its street railway company.
