Sleeve Valve Motor

At Last!

The Real Thing in Motors

Ride in a Willys-Knight. You don't know the real thing until you've had this experience. Don't judge it by any other car. There's nothing with which to compare it.

The quiet powerful smoothness of the Willys-Knight motor is a thing to marvel at—it simply revolutionizes any previous notion you may have had about how smooth and soft a motor could be.

You can't possibly realize what it means until you try it. You simply wouldn't have anything else after you know what it means. See us today.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

E. C. Lindsey was showing a remarkable hill of potatoes, grown in his garden this season, in which were 50 tubers of good shape and of size.

John Dawson of Fresno, California, accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Harry Hodgson of Eau Clair, Wisconsin, were recent visitors at the home of their old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Calkins. While here they took the trip up the highway.

Carl Gundrum left this week for Michigan, being called by the illness of his mother. He will probably make his home there.

Leslie St. Clair is making daily trips to Portland, where he is employed in the house furnishings department of Lipman & Wolfe's store.

Miss Esther Elford has taken a suite of rooms in Mrs. E. C. Lindsey's house, where she will live for the winter. Miss Elford reports much interest being taken in the sewing classes in Gresham grade school and good progress being made by the girls.

Mrs. W. D. Harshfield and children, who have been the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. S. R. Bradford and other relatives, returned this week to their home in Parsons, Kansas.

H. A. Abricht was placed in charge of the grabateria store yesterday as permanent manager. His daughter, Miss Pauline Abricht, is English and physical culture instructor in the union high school.

Mrs. W. C. Burch, her daughter Mable and son Clair returned Wednesday morning from Astoria where they visited the former's daughter, Mrs. Reta Burch Linn.

Sheriff Hurlburt writes the Outlook to say that a recent raid was made on a farmhouse near Heiney's mill was not made by his deputies, as reported. He says the raid was made by U. S. revenue officers, and asserts that at any time his officers locate booze it will not be admitted to bail, as it seems to have been done in the case mentioned.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman had as guests on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lester McBride and son Clifford of Pasadena, California. They took the trip over the Columbia highway almost to Bonneville and were delighted with the beauties of the scenery.

The sophomore class met Wednesday and elected officers for the year. This class was the first of the year to hold a class meeting. The following is the list of officers: President, Glen Rusher; vice president, Mabel Michel; secretary, Loren Meyers; treasurer, Lester McMains; sergeant at arms, David Peterson; editor, Winifred St. Clair. Preparations are being made for the sophomore-freshman reception, which will be held in the gymnasium on October 5.

Miss Carrie Staffanson, who has recently completed the nurses' training course at Emanuel hospital, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staffanson.

Mrs. T. R. Howitt and son Frederick and Mrs. B. N. Raney left yesterday morning for Seaside. Mrs. Raney expects to return in a week but Mrs. Howitt will make an indefinite stay. It is expected that the change will be a benefit to the health of Frederick.

Miss Caroline Tallman of the Melrose district is attending high school and is making her home with Mrs. Aton in the Emery home.

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a bake sale at Metzger's store on Powell street on Saturday afternoon, September 23.

Mrs. Ella Aton was called to Portland, yesterday, where she is nursing.

Miss Inez Lusted has been employed as bookkeeper for Latourel's garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dahl have moved into their house on Lawrence avenue, recently purchased from Mrs. L. C. Metzger, not from Jas. Lawrence, as erroneously reported.

At the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, Rev. A. C. Brackenbury, the pastor, will preach both morning and evening. Baptismal services will be held in the morning. In the afternoon, a special meeting of the Sunday school board will be held for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. Epworth League will meet at the usual hour. An invitation is given to all to join in these services, which are the last for the conference year. The pastor will go on Tuesday to Lebanon, where the conference will be held.

Mrs. George W. Stapleton and daughter Georgia returned Wednesday morning from their summer vacation, which was spent in New York and in Nelson, B. C. They were accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Haley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton, and her infant son, who will remain here for several months.

Bert Metzger and J. J. Halligan left yesterday by auto for Pendleton to attend the roundup.

W. C. Alderson, republican candidate for county school superintendent, and Mrs. Alderson were callers at the Outlook office one day this week.

By reference to a notice elsewhere it will be seen that the Gresham cannery wants a big lot of good apples.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coulter, of Sellwood, were callers Sunday at the home of T. P. Campbell.

Mrs. Elwood, of Portland, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Moore Sunday.

C. H. Bateman, of Bellrose, visited E. L. Anderson one day recently.

Marvin Hedge and W. D. Eaton, of Lents, were looking after business matters at this place Tuesday.

Eugene Reuter, of Portland, was in our midst on business Wednesday.

Miss Edna Berke, who has been on the sick list for several days past, is on the road to recovery.

Grain harvest in this neighborhood is over, for this season. Jones & Hevel finished the last job Tuesday.

The New Ordinance Says

Every Vehicle on the public highway must carry a light.

This means bicycles, horse-drawn vehicles, etc. We have added to our stock a new lot of SOLAR CYCLE LAMPS, the Standard Acetylene Lamp of the world. Also a lot of carriage and wagon lanterns with ruby backs to fasten on the side.

How to Give Good Advice.

The best way to give good advice is to set a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and enjoys an excellent reputation. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Several concrete culverts are being built on the Section Line and Troutdale roads east of Gresham. They are taking the places of some of the smaller wooden bridges.
