GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Clara Kane went Friday to Lents for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. May London.

Rev. W. B. Stewart, of McMinnville, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mabel Burch has gone to Elk City, in Lincoln county, where she will teach school. She had a very successful year last year at Toledo, near Elk City.

H. Look, a former resident of this community, died at his home in Lents last Wednesday morning, aged 80 years and six months. The funeral was held this afternoon from Kenworthy undertaking parlors, Lents. Mr. Look formerly owned the farm now owned by H. W. Russell. He was the father of Clarence Look, formerly of Gresham, now of The Dalles.

The Tuesday Study club will meet at the library next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year and laying plans for the winter's study. All members and others wishing to join are urged to attend.

A largely attended meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. N. O. Fuller on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Clara Sunday was elected president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman. It was decided to hold a parcel post social and chicken pie supper about the middle of November.

A crew from the Warren Construction company began some needed work this morning on the Main street pavement. When the job was finished the gutters near the curb were left uneven, some low places retaining water after a rain. They are being sloped to drain the street to the catch basins.

Jas. A. Brown, wife and five children, arrived yesterday on a visit to his brother, John Brown. Mr. Brown came from Siletz, coming by way of Albany. He reports not very encouraging prospects for the fruit industry of the valley. He will probably spend the winter here and the children will attend school.

J. J. Ryan, the "umbrella man" is making his fifth annual visit to Gresham. His circuit is from Eugene, Oregon to Grangeville, Idaho, and takes him about a year to complete. He notices marked improvement in Gresham and places it among the leading Oregon towns for advancement.

C. M. Zimmerman took a load of Gresham people to Salem Saturday to attend the state fair. Those going were Mrs. M. D. Kern, Mrs. Roy Kern, Mrs. J. T. Stillions, Mabel Metzger, Elizabeth Schwedler and Bonita Stillions. Mrs. Roy Kern won first prize on her display of pickles and second on steamed brown bread.

A burglar on being frightened from a building in Exeter, N. H., fled, leaving a nautomobile behind him.

How to Give Good Advice. The best way to give good advice is to get a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and enjoys an excellent reputation. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Among the Gresham people who have visited the state fair this week are Chas. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Townsend, Benj. Matthews, Dr. and Mrs. Will Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hessel, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Todd.

Mrs. M. Finn, of Seattle, is the guest of Mrs. B. R. Hottenger. Mrs. Finn drove her car alone from Seattle and made the trip in a day. Mr. and Mrs. Hottenger are from Seattle. They recently bought the Kiger place northeast of Gresham.

Charles Cleveland was elected treasurer of Oregon Pure Bred Livestock association at Salem on Wednesday. The president is C. L. Hawley of McCoy; secretary, C. N. Maris of Portland.

Mrs. Edna Wood, of Portland, was a visitor yesterday with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Wood.

Mrs. Uim is having her house on Second street remodeled to accommodate her boarders. She will vacate the Sell building next week and conduct her restaurant in her own house.

The Martha Verein will meet next Thursday, October 5, with Mrs. Volbrecht.

Mr. and Mrs. William Willis and two children of Yaquina are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Sales. On Thursday and Friday they visited Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews of Cottrell. Mr. Willis was for many years in charge of coast lights at Yaquina Bay and is a noted character in Lincoln county. A brother has been in the treasury department at Washington for more than thirty years. The Willis are related to both General Ulysses S. Grant and Mrs. Abraham Lincoln.

WOODEN-SOLED SHOES PROOF AGAINST BEER

A Nashua (New Hampshire) company is advertising a wooden-soled shoe. It is described as waterproof-steelralls and is for use in breweries, distilleries and bottling works. The Methodist Temperance Bulletin reproduces the advertisement with the following comment:

This is a free advertisement. If you are a bar-fly, remember that if you drop beer on your shoes it will eat the toughest leather. Keep your shoe bills down by wearing wooden-soled shoes.

If beer is too much for tough cowhide, what will it do to your stomach? Of course, we know that beer is "liquid bread" and yet we are almost sure one could stand in bread crumbs all day long without damage to his shoes.

A Lawrence, Mass., owner of a motorcycle took it apart, but when he put it together again and mounted it the machine started backward; the motor was in the wrong way. After this was remedied, the owner again went for a spin, and this time the machine started in the right direction but would not stop until the supply of gasoline had been exhausted.

A new French three-handed watch tells both twelve-hour and twenty-four-hour time, one hour hand being used for each kind on separate dials, while a single minute hand does for both.

Emil Bennett, of Lawrence, Mass., claims the local record for growing lettuce with a head that measures 22 inches across and 14 inches high.

Registration.

With some misgivings, in November, 1913, Gresham voted dry by local option about 1 1/2 to 1.

During the following year all branches of business improved. Building permits equalled several previous years combined. Wage checks are cashed at the grocery stores. "Shoes instead of booze" Saving accounts were started in our banks. Mothers were greeted with sober sons.

A great wave of satisfaction from home and business houses began almost immediately and in November 1914, when statewide prohibition was before the people, Gresham recorded her approval by a vote of 3 to 1.

Assisting the Anti-Saloon League in their effort to get every dry voter registered, I with several others, have been pretty well over precincts 308-309 and 309 1/2. I am amazed at the change of sentiment, old time drinkers condemning the traffic and advocating more stringent laws. I will miss my guess if these three precincts do not vote at least 5 to 1, against the "Brewers wet amendment" (which means the return of the saloon to Oregon) on election day, 7th of November next. "If 23 per cent of the stay-at-home vote of 1914 will go to the polls this year you will defeat the infamous brewery amendment by 56,000 votes. Your problem is to cure your good citizens of sleepiness. They are affected with righteous paralysis," charged the Rev. M. A. Matthews, of Seattle, at a meeting in the White Temple last Friday night.

Have you registered?

It is important that every one register at once, and avoid the tedious procedure of swearing in your vote.

Registration books close October 7th, 1916.

You can register before B. F. Rollins, Gresham, or at the courthouse in Portland.

Register, if for nothing but to kill the viper brewery amendment.

Mothers and grandmothers, get busy.

Everybody boost for registration.

A considerable increase in manufactures in Texas between 1909 and 1914 is shown by a report from the United States bureau of the census. The capital invested, as reported in 1914, was $283,544,000, a gain of $66,668,000, or 30.7 per cent. over $216,876,000 in 1909. The value of products was $361,279,000 in 1914 and $272,896,000 in 1909, the increase being $88,383,000, or 32.4 per cent.
