A Popular Food Item

People are prone to make fun when Beans are mentioned as something good to eat.

But we are willing to stake our reputation by venturing the statement:

"You Don't Know Beans till you have tried MONOPOLE Brand."

Only the Finest Bean Obtainable is used for MONOPOLE—they are baked in a way that is Superior to home cooked.

And a delicious Tomato Sauce flavors them.

Can be served cold or hot—fine for a quick meal.

No more healthful or nutritious food could be selected as a regular stand-by than MONOPOLE Baked Beans.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

A white horse, owned by "Charcoal" Baker of Pleasant Valley dropped dead in his tracks near the Gresham grange hall on Sunday morning. The owner substituted another white horse owned by a man living near Boring which also fell on the pavement and broke a leg. It was killed and both were taken to the crematorium.

Ed Metzger, the Gresham undertaker with R. R. Carlson, is in attendance today at the twelfth annual convention of the Oregon Funeral Directors which is being held at the Oregon hotel.

Henry Harvey, living on the western border of the city, fell from the roof of a new barn yesterday a distance of about 24 feet. Falling on some shingle bands, he suffered a ragged hole in his left side and was otherwise shaken up. He was able to come down town for medical attention.

Lloyd Axtel will leave next week for Curry county where he has a two-year job of carpenter work ahead. He has promised to send back some interesting news after his arrival there.

F. D. Axtel and wife, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. F. S. Brigham, left today for Los Angeles to spend the winter. They went over the Columbia River highway, through The Dalles, and will motor south through central Oregon to the California line.

Glen Davidson, accompanied by his brother Ivor and the latter's wife returned on Tuesday evening from a two-days' hunt for china pheasants near Independence. They had good luck and brought home the limit of birds allowed by law.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw and daughter Ruth will leave Wednesday evening for an extended visit with Mrs. Shaw's son, Lee Shaw, at Endicott, Washington.

Latourell & Son are now in their new garage and will have everything in smooth shape by Monday. Ford cars are now arriving in twos and threes and may be had on short notice, and they are able to supply the demand with only slight delay of a day or two.

Members of the local Womens Christian Temperance Union who attended the county convention in Portland this week were, Mrs. George Honey, Mrs. C. M. Oliphant, Mrs. J. N. Clananah, Mrs. Elia Aton and Mrs. H. L. Wostell.

E. W. Aylsworth and wife returned home yesterday from their eastern trip. They visited with relatives in Nebraska, Iowa, Minneapolis and Chippewa Falls, Wis. They had a very enjoyable time and came back in good health and fine spirits.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rugg have sold their ten-acre farm east of Gresham and will leave next week Tuesday for Spokane, where they will make their home and where they have considerable property. The Rugg family will be greatly missed in this community. Mr. Rugg came here in 1872 and Mrs. Rugg was born in the Sycamore neighborhood. They have lived on the farm which they are now leaving for fifteen years. The new owner is Burton M. Howell of the Mt. Scott district. He will take possession with his family at once.

The Women's Study club met last Tuesday night at the library, electing officers and making plans for the study course for nother year. The next regular meeting will be held at the library next Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods of Roseburg and Mrs. Sampson of Oregon City visited Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLain.

The Gresham Volunteer Fire Department has accepted an invitation to take part in the parade to be held in Portland on October 9th which is Fire Prevention Day. Several auto loads will attend from here.

Services of much interest will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday. Rev. A. C. Brackenbury who has been appointed to the charge for another year will preach in the morning on the subject, "Sons of God." In the evening at 7:30 the subject will be "Spiritual Farming." Sunday school meets at 10 and Epworth League at 6:30 in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Geo. Honey and H. L. St. Clair attended the Progressive Business Men's club luncheon at the Hotel Benson on Thursday. Intense interest was taken in the debate on the Brewers' Amendment.

On Friday evening last Mrs. E. E. Welling gave a corn roasting party to the neighbors. The evening was spent by the older people in social chat, while the younger ones played games and roasted corn around a blazing bonfire. Incidentally a straw vote was taken for president, resulting in 15 for Wilson, 3 for Hughes and one for Hanley.

Mrs. S. F. Pitts of Cottrell was a caller at the Outlook office today. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts and family moved this week from Dover, where they went several months ago, to the Mrs. Maggie Goger place at Cottrell. They traded for their present property and expect to make their home at this new location.

Frank Frakes, who has been ill for several weeks in St. Vincents hospital, is slowly improving.

Rev. W. B. Stewart of McMinnville will preach in the Gresham Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

Why Use Sherwin & Williams Ready-Mixed Paint?

There are very good reasons why Sherwin & Williams is the best for you to use.

FIRST—Because it is composed of nothing but the BEST ingredients.

SECOND—It is thoroughly ground in the most up-to-date Paint Plant in the world, making its covering capacity the greatest.

THIRD—Because it costs no more to use than poorer paints.

FOURTH—Because not only the Factory but also your local dealer will stand back of Sherwin & Williams Paint.

Attorney C. G. Schneider, who has city and Portland has now moved to Gresham and will make this his headquarters. He has rooms in the Emery home on Hood avenue. His office is in the First State Bank building.

A bank in Syracuse, N. Y., has instituted a series of exhibits and demonstrations of the manufacturing products of that city. In the commodious lobby of the bank have been displayed chemical products, with photographs and charts; china and pottery, nearly every process of manufacture being shown; typewriters, men's clothing, incubators and various food products. As a finale, it is planned to exhibit even automobiles and motor trucks in this bank's office.
