N. O. Fuller attended the Hughes Alliance meeting in Portland Friday and the Fairbanks meeting.

Mrs. Sadie R. Crawford is having her house painted by Fred Todd. A new cement walk is being laid by Jones & Co.

Arthur Parker, who has been at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Clara Kane for the past week or two, has gone to the Snoqualmie national forest near Seattle, where he will be employed as a forest ranger. Mrs. Parker and baby will remain here for the present.

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. N. Clanhon next Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. O. A. Eastman has charge of the program. The usual tea and social hour will be enjoyed at the close of the afternoon. All women are invited.

Much interest has been aroused of late by the Oregon Congress of Mothers, in the judging of the physical and mental development of infants. It is not generally known that Gresham has a hundred per cent baby, but such is the case. The child is Jane Ellen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse. She was judged at the headquarters of the Congress of Mothers at the courthouse the day she was six months old and scored perfect.

The first social event of the high school for the year was the entertainment on Friday night of the freshmen class by the members of the sophomore class. Evidently the time honored feud between sophomores and freshmen has been settled. More than a hundred members of the two classes met in a jolly good time. All agreed that it was much more satisfactory than a hazing party.

A man from Portland giving his name as Schwanz, overturned his car, a big Auburn roadster, on a narrow Beaver Creek road near W. B. Parson's place on Saturday evening. The man had met and passed C. M. Zimmerman with his car, which had the inside of the road, but failed to turn his car back into the road. It struck a soft piece of road and turned over the embankment, pinning the occupants under the car. Mr. Schwanz and a woman accompanying him were extricated and were found to be unhurt. Mr. Zimmerman took the woman to Portland and later helped put the car onto the road. No great damage was done to the car.

Rev. E. I. Harrington and wife left Monday for Falls City, Oregon, for a month's vacation. In addition to his pastorate of the Free Methodist church here, Mr. Harrington is pastor of a new church organization in Portland and has been actively engaged in building a church, having been head carpenter on the building. The new church is located at 30th and Wygant street. It is 32 by 48 feet in dimension. It was dedicated last Sunday.

Rev. S. F. Pitts and Rev. David Cathey will have charge of the services at the Free Methodist church during the absence of the pastor, Rev. E. I. Harrington on his vacation.

An enjoyable hike was indulged in Saturday by several Gresham young women, who went by auto to Troutdale, from there by train to Oneonta and from there on foot along the highway. The exploration of Oneonta gorge afforded one of the greatest pleasures of the day. Several members of the party climbed the bluff to the top of Multnomah falls. Those in the party were Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Misses Mae Hughes, Emma Fuller, Esther Elford, Elsie Metzger, Lyman and Mrs. Jennie Oswald.

A marriage license was granted Lloyd D. Axtell of Gresham and Miss M. Gertrude Lines of Portland, at Vancouver yesterday where they were married. They will leave for Curry county in a few days where they will make their home.

Miss Margaret Burke has returned to her work as teacher of the Hurlburt school. The school board ordered a vacation last week on account of the appearance of diphtheria in the neighborhood. No new cases having developed, it was believed safe to reopen school.

Mrs. L. S. McIntyre, of Seattle, returned Sunday after a five days' visit with Mrs. John Metzger. Mr. McIntyre is employed by the N. W. Lumber company and was here on business.

UNION HIGH WINS, TREATED BY POWELL

The football team of Union High school No. 2 defeated the team of James John High on the home grounds, Friday, with a score of 14 to 0. The game was well played, star plays being made by Glenn McCormick and Emerson Brown. After the game the team was treated to ice cream by Fred Powell, as a reward for winning the game.

Next Friday the boys expect to play against Estacada High school. In recent games with Franklin High, Estacada lost with a large score, as did Union High, when they met Franklin here recently thus a close game is being looked forward to.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison were guests at dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair.

It is worry, not work which matures the pulley.

"Black Friday"

Red Davenport production with Dorothy Davenport and Emery Johnson. From the book by Fred S. Isham.

Wed. and Thurs., Oct. 11, 12

Many people will remember "Black Friday," the day of panic during Grant's administration in 1874 which Fred S. Isham has used for the central episode in his novel of the same name as the Red Feather feature which is founded upon it. For some reason costume plays have not been as popular on the legitimate stage but the production of this play of 1874, a period within the memory of many, is a reversal of this observation. This Red Feather photoplay will bring back "as if it were yesterday" many scenes of the past to older members of the audience.

But besides its historical interest and special appeal to the elders there is much to catch the attention and hold the interest of young people as well. This is a splendid story founded on a famous novel which was read and enjoyed by thousands of people, and the acting of the principals leaves nothing to be desired. Miss Davenport is seen at the very best, and the sets are as true to the period as the costumes and there are thrills enough for the most blasé of fans.

A big feature in five acts. Wednesday and Thursday, October 11 and 12, Smith's Theater.
