Gilbert Sutart, the painter, once said of his favorite subject: "There were features in Washington's face totally different from what I have observed in any other human being; the sockets of the eyes, for instance, were larger than I ever met with before, and the upper part of the nose broader. All his features were indicative of strong passion, yet, like Socrates, his judgment and great self-command made him appear a man of different class in the eyes of the world."

Fungi discovered in breweries by a Japanese scientist have been found to dye silk a beautiful rose color, and to be harmless when used in the manufacture of beer.

Notice to Owner.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

E. W. Aylsworth, the men's furnisher, has added a full line of automobile robes to his stock. Heretofore it has not been possible to get robes here and the assortment carried by Mr. Aylsworth will supply a want long felt.

Rev. A. C. Brackenbury is away on a business trip to Forest Grove and Salem and will probably be away until some time next week.

No preaching service will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday. Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock as usual.

Mrs. Grace Quick and daughters, Helen and Margaret have moved into E. C. Lindsey's cottage on Roberts avenue.

Rev. Henry Bruenagel has purchased a new Buick light six auto from Metzger Bros. Auto company. He turned in the Scripps Booths, which he recently bought.

E. A. Baker, president of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, will speak at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A quartet will lead the singing and furnish special music. Rev. Thos. Wiles will preach in the evening. It is expected that Jackson and Guy Jones will sing a duet at that service. The Epworth League, which meets at 7 o'clock, will be led by Miss Marie Wells.

Mr. James Reager, of Rettil, Washington, is visiting B. R. Hottinger. Mr. Reager is a civil war veteran and was with General Sherman when he said what war really was. He enlisted at Winterset, Iowa, was under Gen. W. T. Sherman on his last campaign of the march to the sea. Mr. Reager was in seven battles and came out without a scar. He is nearly 71 years old but in company of young ladies is never over 40. He is delighted with this part of Oregon and declares if he had a good wife, he would buy a good farm and live near Gresham.

Miss Brownell of the cataloguing department of the Portland main library spent the day in the Gresham branch library today, adding new cards to the catalogue.

Miss Clara Stensland returned recently from Shaw, Oregon, where she spent several weeks.

Clyde Hopper, formerly of Gresham, was a recent guest at the home of Rev. S. G. Roper.

Miss Ruth Tibbitts from the Baptist Sunday school, the Misses Eva Pullen, Grace Fieldhouse, Winifred St. Clair, Mabel Michel and Gladys Wright from the Methodist Sunday school are planning to attend the girls' Sunday school conference to be held at the First Presbyterian church in Portland tomorrow afternoon and evening and Sunday.

The Gresham high school football team went to Estacada this afternoon for a game with the Estacada high. A bunch of rooters went along to overcome the Friday—thirteenth hoodoo.

An enjoyable meeting of the Tuesday Study club was held at the library last Tuesday evening. After a brief business session the evening was spent in a social way. Mrs. Gorsage played piano solos and games were played, after which ice cream and cake were served. A committee, consisting of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Mrs. Geo. F. Honey, Mrs. Jas. Eikington, Mrs. E. S. McCormick and Mrs. H. L. Wostell, was appointed to arrange the program for the study course. The next meeting will be on the evening of October 24.

The regular meeting of Gresham grange will be held tomorrow. The usual grange dinner will be served at noon and in the afternoon an open lecture hour will be enjoyed.

The barn and contents, belonging to Ferdinand Floss, living at Egypt three miles east of Hurburt, was burned on Monday last with a total loss. It was insured in the grange for $500. The loss was adjusted by A. F. Miller on Wednesday.

J. H. Wilson, for many years a prominent farmer living near the Auto club, moved into Gresham today with a part of his family to remain through the winter. They will occupy Mrs. Stoner's house. A recently married son will take charge of the farm hereafter.

F. S. Drake and family, living east of the Twelve Mile corner, will start for Green Bay, Wis., on Monday accompanied by William Post. Mr. Drake recently fell heir to a fortune of $100,000 by the death of an uncle and is going east to settle up the estate. They will be gone several months.

A surprise party was given Myrtle Rusher in honor of her eleventh birthday Thursday afternoon, October 12. After playing games, the birthday cake and ice cream were served. Those present were Marjorie Stillions, Mildred Metzger, Beatrice Bates, Ina Smith, Mildred Easley, Doris Zimmerman, Addie Pullen, Jeanette Dowsett, Joyce Kidder, Myrtle Rusher.

SANDY BLUFF

Mrs. Sutton's horse became frightened at Mr. Straas's thrashing machine Friday and ran the buggy upon the bank overturning it. Mrs. Sutton was thrown beneath the rig but very fortunately was only badly bruised. The horse ran away but was caught by Mr. Baumback, near the rock crusher. The buggy was badly broken. Mrs. Sutton was returning from Sandy, where she had taken some exhibits for her children to the Sandy grange fair.

Those keeping their grades above 90 per cent in everything, including deportment, are on the roll of honor. Those in Mrs. Lansdown's room are Homer Radford, Minnie Radford, Janes Sutton, Jane Brook, Frances Bates, Robert Booth, Mabel Haughlum, Clarence Edwards. Those in Miss McMillan's room are Zaldie Ault, Kenneth Hutchins, Esther Andrews, Fern Hutchins, Edna Beers, Edith Andrews, Jessie Beers, Josephine Sutton, Walter Radford, Eleanor Brook, James Crissey.

Mr. Andrews' slashing was set on fire which with the heavy winds has put several homes in danger.

Miss Alice O'Neil, of Portland, is visiting her sister, Miss Louis Haughlum.

Quite a number from this vicinity visited the fair at Sandy. The program Friday afternoon by the children deserves much credit.

Paul Dunn has purchased a Ford. Elmer Radford has a Ford.

If Congress passes satisfactory water-proof legislation permitting the development of our streams without additional taxation, millions of dollars will pour into the state for this line of industry within the next few years.

SMITH'S THEATER SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14 "The Iron Hand"

A Red Feather Masterpiece with HOBART BOSWORTH

A powerful human-interest drama depicting the rise and fall of a grasping politician with Hobart Bosworth in the leading role. The star is seen for the first time in the role of a "tough," a gang leader and a ward politician. The story is an unusually strong one, with a splendid moral. The original name of the play was "Tainted Money" which describes it better than the one adopted when it was found the first could not be used. The scene in which the self-righteous leader of the Purity league begs Big Tim for some of his "tainted money," is one of the strongest in recent photoplays. An unusually interesting drama in five acts.

Bank Money Orders

We notice that the people of this vicinity are getting the good habit of coming here for a money order when they want to send money away.

They used to go to the post office or to an express office, but now they know, that the Bank Money Order is the best. It costs less. It is absolutely safe and payable anywhere. You don't have the bother of writing out an application.

You get an immediate receipt for the amount of the order you buy. If the order is lost, there is no tangle of red tape about recovering your money.

Make remittances with Bank Money Orders.
