QUALITY AND SERVICE

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Mazie Tonseth is lying quite low at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tegart, on the Sandy road. She contracted a cold a few weeks ago which has developed into pneumonia.

Walter Ruhl was awarded the contract for the high school drains and has begun the work under the supervision of Engineer C. H. Gossett. The contract price is $478. It is expected that the work will be finished by the end of the month.

James Hansfield, an insane man, was brought over from the Columbia slough on Saturday by Constable Squire. He was taken to Portland on an order from Justice Rollins and will be examined as to his qualifications for a residence at the state hospital.

Frank Bowder and family, of Portland, Jack Penney and wife of Oakland, Cal., and E. D. Price of Portland were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Maggie Ulm.

Mrs. Roy Winters, her daughter Florence and three boys of Bend, Oregon, are visiting with relatives and friends in Gresham.

There will do no council meeting tonight, owing to the election. It has been postponed until tomorrow evening.

A very enjoyable Hallowe'en party was given last Saturday evening by the Misses Willa and Evelyn Metzger at their home on Powell street. Autumn leaves and Hallowe'en emblems formed the decorations. The forty guests spent a merry evening at games and jokes, which were in keeping with the occasion.

There will be a "free announcement dance" in Metzger's hall next Saturday evening. It will be the opening of a series to be given later, this one being free to everybody. There will be good music with dancing at 8:30. The dances will be under good management.

W. S. Wood, of Vancouver, the well-known auctioneer, accompanied by his son, were Gresham visitors yesterday. Mr. Wood has an advertisement in the "professional" column today.

Mrs. A. J. W. Brown recently received a letter from her sister, who lives on the east coast of England, telling of a zeppelin, which was brought down by anti-air-craft guns, practically intact. It was an immense affair, measuring 850 feet in length and standing as high as great alder trees. It was fitted and furnished as well as a first class hotel and was a very interesting capture.

Mrs. I. McColl has returned from Newport, Oregon, where she has visited for several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Belt and family.

Mrs. Ella Aton spent the week-end at Oswego with her nephew, Morris Wilmarth, who is carrier on a rural mail route.

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the library next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All women interested in the work of temperance are invited to attend.

Reports have been received from Gillette, Wyoming, of the recent birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Will Raney of that place. The mother was formerly Miss Christie Burkholder. Mr. and Mrs. Raney are well known in Gresham, where they formerly made their home.

Word has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Clair Edwards of Pendleton, Oregon, on October 29. Mrs. Edwards was formerly Miss Ava Thompson, of Gresham.

Alex. Gullickson and sister, Mrs. Humason, have moved into the Hardwick cottage, next to J. H. Hoss' residence. They have been occupying the Alexander property on Powell street and Cleveland avenue.

A good crowd gathered at the grade school last Friday evening, in spite of the down pour of rain, to witness the presentation of "The King of the Land of Nod," by pupils of the school, under the direction of Mrs. Ellen A. Pomeroy. The children did creditably, both to themselves and their teachers and, with their bright colored costumes, made a most attractive picture. The proceeds of the entertainment are to be used toward the purchase of a phonograph and records for the use of the school in its study of music. The net sum from the evening was $33.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bates entertained about forty guests Monday evening of last week with a Hallowe'en party. A very enjoyable evening was spent with games and music, after which an elaborate luncheon was served. The decorations, which were unique and unusually attractive, were hand painted by Mrs. Bates. One of the diversions of the evening was a straw vote for president, which resulted in a 3 to 1 vote in favor of Wilson. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. W. Edleman, Miss M. Viner and W. Baldwin, all of Portland.

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Hevel tomorrow afternoon, when the study of education in the south will be led by Mrs. Will Ott. Refreshments will be served at the close of the afternoon, when Mrs. Hevel will be assisted by Mrs. Mary Leslie, Mrs. O. A. Eastman and Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury. All women are invited.

Arthur Parker, who has been away in the forestry service, returned to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Clara Kane, quite ill, and was taken to a Portland hospital, where he is operated on for appendicitis. He is reported to be making a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wood have returned from a business trip to Schofield, Oregon.

GRESHAM ATTORNEY RECEIVES ENDORSEMENT

Attorney Milo C. King is not a politician, neither is he running for office, but there is no reason why it should not be more widely known that he has such endorsements as the following from M. L. Holbrook of the Merchants National bank, to R. W. Montague, one of the most eminent of lawyers, also a graduate of the Iowa State University:

Portland, Ore., Nov. 3, 1916.
Mr. R. W. Montague,
Yeon Building,
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—This is to state that I have known the bearer, Mr. Milo C. King, for a good many years. I went to the State University in Iowa with him some thirty years ago and renewed my acquaintance with him several years ago, since which time I have had more or less business with him. He is practicing attorney at Gresham and I know him to be a man of good character and a reputable attorney in every way. I have no hesitancy in recommending him to you. Any courtesies you can show Mr. King will be appreciated by me.

Yours very truly,
M. L. HOLBROOK.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their sympathy and kindness during the illness and at the time of the death of Earl Beegle. We especially mention the offerings of flowers, and use of automobiles. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beers and family, W. E. Beegle and family, Mrs. Etta Hoover.

PLEASANT HOME

The first quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held here next Saturday, beginning at 10 o'clock. A basket lunch will be served at noon. Dr. T. B. Ford, the district superintendent, will give an address in the afternoon. Officers and members of Ithf church, which belongs to this circuit, will take part in the conference. Everyone is welcome.
