A PSALM TO THE FORD.

The following was handed to us by a Ford owner, who thinks the Ford is the only car:

The Ford is my auto; I shall not want another. It maketh me to lie down beneath it; it leadeth me besides many repair shops.

It soureth my soul; it leadeth me in the path of ridicule for its name sake.

Yea, tho I ride through the valleys, I am towed up the hills for I will fear much evil. Thy rods and thy springs, they discomfort me.

I "repair" "blow-outs" on thee in the presence of mine enemies; I annoint thine axles with oil; thy radiator runneth over.

Surely, sneers, jeers and laughter shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the "bug-house" forever.

Estray Notice.

TAKEN UP at my place 1 mile south of Springdale, the following described property: One dark bay mare, weight about 900 lbs.; and one bay gelding, white spot on nose, 2 white front feet, one white hind foot, weight about 1050. A. B. Karslake.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

M. O. Evans, of Corvallis, assistant leader of county agents from State Leader Maris' office, was in Gresham today in consultation with County Agent S. B. Hall.

Charles Crenshaw has been engaged permanently as plumber for J. J. Kaddery, and is now staying in Portland.

Henry Latourell and wife, who motored to California a few weeks ago, have been heard from at Ocean-side, where they will stay a month. They will spend the remainder of the winter at San Diego.

Mike Allshouse is serving on the jury in the circuit court.

Charles Latourell and Fred Todd went to Arlington last Saturday, hunted jackrabbits on Sunday and returned home on Monday. They had good luck and brought home a good bunch of rabbits.

Metzger Bros. are tearing away the annex to the Powell street livery barn, preparatory to excavating for a new brick building which will be erected in the spring. The old buildings that formerly stood on the corner were removed several weeks ago. Metzger's grocery store will occupy the new building when it is finished.

K. A. Miller has been called by the government as a witness on the W. J. Prendergast case now being prosecuted in the United States District Court before Judge Wolverton.

Clarence Irish and family have moved into Mrs. H. L. Wostell's cottage.

The individual pie dishes belonging to the Ladies Aid are at the Bank of Gresham, where they may be obtained by those who will furnish the pies for the supper on the evening of November 24.

Among the Gresham people who went to Portland last Tuesday night to hear Mayor H. Gill of Seattle, were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shoemaker, Mrs. Mary Shoemaker and Mrs. E. A. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Honey, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and Mrs. J. N. Clanhon. All were impressed with Mayor Gill's stand for law enforcement and received with enthusiastic applause his statement that the next great issue would be for nation-wide prohibition.

Rev. E. A. Leonard will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and at Pleasant Home in the evening.

Mrs. D. W. Metzger was hostess yesterday at a luncheon at her home. Yellow chrysanthemums from her own garden formed the table decorations. Covers were laid for seven. The guests were Mrs. A. H. Dowsett, Mrs. Arthur Dowsett, Mrs. Benj. Cameron, Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. Jas. Elkington and Mrs. Emil Oswald.

The M. A. Ross Post and Corps will meet at the grange hall tomorrow in an all-day session, when department officers from Portland and Oregon City are expected to be present. A full attendance of local members is expected. One feature of the day will be the annual sale of fancy and useful articles by members of the Relief Corps.

About a dozen members of the Women's Home Missionary society met last Wednesday morning at the Methodist church and spent the greater part of the day tying comforts and packing provisions to be sent to the Portland Industrial Home. Several local families were assisted before the boxes were packed to be sent to Portland. An inventory of the contributions going to fill the boxes showed 100 articles of clothing, 9 pairs of shoes, a package of pictures, 56 jars of canned fruit, 1 gallon of dry beans, two comforts, besides a quantity of pumpkins, squashes, cabbages and apples. Lunch was served cafeteria style and all had a pleasant time.

LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS WILL HONOR TEACHERS

A public reception will be given at the library in Gresham next Wednesday evening, Nov. 22 at 8:30, to the teachers of Union High School No. 2 and Gresham grade school, under the auspices of the women's Christian Temperance Union, the Parent-Teachers' association and the Tuesday Study club.

The presidents of the three organizations will compose the receiving committee. They are respectively, Mrs. Geo. F. Honey, Mrs. Jas. Elkington and Miss Pearl Durst. The vice presidents, who are Mrs. J. N. Clanhon, Mrs. K. A. Miller and Mrs. W. E. Bates respectively, will make up the social committee. Mrs. A. Hevel is chairman of the decorating committee and Mrs. Theo. Brugger of the soliciting committee. The refreshment committee is divided into two sections with Mrs. H. L. Wostell and Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury as the leaders. Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Mrs. Roy Kern and Mrs. Maxwell Schneider will act with them. Those who have been selected to serve are the Misses Marie Wells, Miriam Brown, Bessie Howitt, Maude Michel, Willa Metzger, Mina Gilbert, Anna

Governed by Forty-nine Commissions.

The people of the United States are on the brink of suffering from their own laws, and from their own failure to investigate the management of railroads from the point of view of what is best for the railroads, what is best for the railroad employes and what is best for the people.

We have in this country some 49 commissions—one to every state—which are picking at the railroads first in one state and then another until the railroads do not know what to do. Government by commission is only satisfactory when there is one centralized commission, with centralized interests, and which rules for all the railroads in all parts of the country.

It is obviously ridiculous, for instance, to have one state demand such a rate for interstate commerce and for another adjoining state to demand a different rate, either higher or lower. This situation merely means that the railroads are operating under different conditions in every state.

The railroads are left in an even worse condition than ever, for now they are not only subject to control by 49 commissions, but by Congress as well.

How do they know what to expect? How can they plan for the future? They have no security that some state will take a fall out of them next.

In this period of readjustment there are just two courses open for the proper management: one is government ownership; the other is one federal commission having full power over the roads.

It is impossible that the railroads favor government ownership, but they would undoubtedly receive with open arms the dictates of one commission.—Fresno Herald.

Now Look Out.

When a cold hangs on as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another, look out for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

Grounds for Divorce.
 "So old Williams is looking for a divorce from his young wife. On what grounds?"
 "On the grounds of economy, I guess."

Very many men, it is explained, make loans on their policies with their families knowing of the thing. At death, therefore, the facts are called by those who expected to be the beneficiaries. That kind of perience is certain to injure the pute of insurance as a protection for the family.
