

CORBETT

The dance given by Columbia grange Saturday evening was well attended and was both a social and financial success. John Phipps has bought the timber on a tract of land owned by the Corbett estate, joining the highway, and will make it into cordwood and transport it to Portland by auto trucks.

Miss Laura Reed, who has very ably assisted Mrs. Maxson at Multnomah Lodge for several weeks, was compelled to return home Monday, because she is afflicted with chickenpox.

Rev. and Mrs. Maxey moved to Montevilla Tuesday. Rev. Maxey expects to preach here, however, but will come out

Sundays to fill his appointments.

Union High School No. 1.
On November 18th, 1916, the Students' Athletic societies gave a basket social and program in the high school building. It was a social and financial success. They took in $25.50. This sum was very welcome, as it is to be used to pay for their athletic apparatus.

FINAL CEREMONY OVER J. W. ROBERTSON

The funeral of J. W. Robertson, who died suddenly of apoplexy on Tuesday afternoon, was held from the Pleasant Home Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon. The church was filled to overflowing with sorrowing neighbors and friends and the casket was banked with beautiful flowers, mute expressions of respect and love for the dead and sympathy for the living. Rev. E. A. Leonard preached the funeral sermon. The interment was in Douglass cemetery. The pall bearers were: Geo. Lusted, A. Sester, John Sleret, Ralph Nebauer, Gust Carlson and Ed. Hamilton.

Joseph Mahshire Robertson was born near Mahomet, Illinois, March 29, 1851, died near Gresham, Oregon, November 29, 1916; Age 65 years, 8 months.

On August 13, 1879, he married Rebecca Jane Baird. To this union two children were born, Guy H. and Marian, both of this vicinity.

At the age of seventeen he was converted and joined the Baptist church of which he has been a consistent member.

He leaves a widow, two children, a brother J. J. Robertson of Gresham, Oregon, and two sisters, Mrs. D. L. McLain of Gresham, Oregon, Mrs. L. H. Hilligoss of Mansfield, Illinois, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors, who kindly assisted us at the time of the death and burial of our beloved husband and father, J. W. Robertson, by the use of automobiles, by the gift of flowers, by singing or any other expression of sympathy.

Mrs. Jane Robertson and Family.

HURLBURT

Mrs. Jackson, who has been visiting in Portland for a week, came home Saturday.

T. L. Evans, J. Ward Evans and Roy Emily have traded their autos for new ones. They all got Dodges, which makes seven of them in this vicinity.

The Powell brothers have sold two head of cows to a butcher.

Fay Davis is nursing a sore thumb, the result of trying to head off a cow with a hammer.

There was quite a little excitement here last Thursday when someone let a fire get away, which threatened the homes of S. S. Thompson, T. N. Laseley and T. L. Evans. About a dozen of the neighbors were kept busy all night Thursday keeping the fire away from Mr. Evans' barn and garage dryer. Had the weather been warm one or both of the buildings would surely have burned.

Edward Lewis, of the U. S. National Guard, is visiting a few days with his uncle, Victor Rickett. He expects to return to the Mexican border soon.

We seem to be getting our full share of wind this winter. Looks like snow now.

For Sale.

Registered Holstein Friesian bull calf, 4 months old. Will sell cheap, if taken soon. H. G. Mullenhoff, Phone 714.

MELROSE

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerig and children of Montevilla were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad on Sunday.

Amos and Chris Gerig and Sam Kennel, of Albany, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad Sunday.

Sam Kennel and Chris Gerig left Sunday for Iowa, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Douthett are the proud parents of a boy born Nov. 23.

Mrs. H. W. Cooley entertained the embroidery club Thursday.

Mrs. C. O. Branson visited Mrs. Earl Brewer Thursday and Friday.

Thanksgiving day will be observed next Thursday at the church by a sermon at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. S. F. Ford. A basket dinner will be enjoyed at the Pleasant Home Methodist church will join with him in the celebration. All are invited to attend.

Shooting Match.

Arrangements have been made for an old-fashioned shooting match on Monday, November 27, on the S. S. Thompson field, commencing at 9 o'clock. The trophies will be turkeys, geese and chickens. All who can shoot are invited to be present.

Tanler-Bartholomew.

Miss Rose Tanler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tanler of Viola, formerly of Gresham, was married last Friday evening, November 17 to Fred Bartholomew, a young business man of Estacada, by pastor Walter Givens. It was a quiet, home wedding. Miss Ada Tanler, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Ed. Saling acted as best man. The bride carried a huge arm bouquet of chrysanthemums, which flowers were also used with ferns in decorations. An elegant supper was served before the newlyweds left for Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew have rented the attractive bungalow near the Estacada hotel.

White Knoll.

We will take orders for our high-grade baby chicks until January 1, at $12 per 100. Order early, save $3.00 per hundred and set your date for hatching. We start our incubators in January. 25 per cent deposit with all orders. H. W. Cooley & Son, Troutdale, Ore. Phone 434.

FIREMEN'S DANCE THANKSGIVING EVE

The Gresham Volunteer Fire Department has made complete arrangements for a dance on Wednesday evening next, Nov. 29th, in Regner's hall. It is to be given for the benefit of the disability fund and will be largely attended.

A program of dances will include all the old favorites for those who are not familiar with the new "steps," thus giving everyone a chance to participate. Kelley's orchestra will furnish the music and there will be a cafeteria supper served in the dining room. Tickets will be only 50 cents.

Sufferer from Indigestion Relieved.

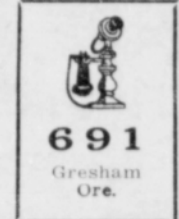

Before taking Chamberlain's Tablets my husband suffered for several years from indigestion, causing him to have pains in the stomach and distress after eating. Chamberlain's Tablets relieved him of these spells right away," writes Mrs. Thomas Casey, Geneva, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

Buick Valve-in-Head Motor Cars

Long before the end of the Nineteen-Sixteen season Buick purchasers will possess upwards of 80,000, Nineteen-Sixteen Valve-In-Head Sixes. Meritorious performances of past Buicks will have sold many of them. Buick power and Buick beauty will have sold others.

The buyer of a Valve-In-Head Buick has the experience of over 250,000 owners to confirm his selection of a Buick car. He has the satisfaction of knowing that in the building of his car, Buick engineers have followed the same time-proved principle that has distinguished Buick cars for fourteen years.

Never wavering, never deviating, absolutely sure of their ground, Buick engineers have developed the Valve-In-Head motor until today in the Nineteen-Sixteen Buick you get a power, a smoothness, an ease of control not surpassed in any car.

Buick Valve-In-Head motor cars are manufactured in a variety of body styles, Roadster, Touring Cars, Coupes, Inside Drive Sedans. In body design, finish and upholstery they fully measure up to the high mechanical standard of the well-proved Buick chassis.
