SCENIC

John Boras, of Milwaukie, was a Scenic visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. C. C. Jack, who has been ailing for some time, was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital for medical treatment.

Mrs. I. L. N. Shriner visited her daughter, Mrs. Fredeen in Portland one day last week.

L. A. Shinaman, of Milwaukie, was greeting old neighbors in Scenic and Pleasant Home and looking after business interests one day last week.

Mrs. C. Kettle of Neilsville, Wisconsin, and Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Beyers were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Duncan Wednesday.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Most Effective.

"I have taken a great many bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and every time it has cured me. I have found it most effectual for a hacking cough and for colds. After taking it a cough almost disappears," writes J. R. Moore, Lost Valley, Ga. Obtainable everywhere.—Ad.

COTTRELL

Mrs. Joe Caldo entertained the ladies of the embroidery club Wednesday afternoon.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Craswell Wednesday, February 7.

Miss Mable Wagner attended the party given Miss Struggles by the junior class of the union high school last Friday evening.

The guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Schneider Sunday were Miss Pearl Ruegg of this place, Miss Crissy McPherson and Miss Clara Schneider of Portland, G. I. Foster of Vancouver, Washington, and C. G. Schneider of Gresham.

Miss Alice Winchester, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid society will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Arnold Ruegg, Thursday, February 1. This will be Mrs. Ruegg's last opportunity to entertain the ladies of the society before leaving and it is hoped that all members will be present. Mrs. Ruegg has been an active and willing worker in the society and will be greatly missed by all. Each member is requested to bring a needle and thimble with her.

Mrs. Smith, of The Dalles, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Andre.

Rev. S. F. Pitts preached at the Cottrell community church last Sunday evening. Mr. Pitts preached here some time ago and those who heard him came again, bringing friends with them, with the result that the church was crowded. Mr. Pitts is an earnest and very interesting speaker and it is hoped that he will preach again some time in the near future.

KELSO

Following is the obituary of C. J. Sindall who died at his home here, January 20th, after a two weeks' illness:

Christian Jensen Sindall was born in Horfing, Denmark, March 6th, 1837. He came with his family to the United States and settled in Racine, Wisconsin, in 1867. He also lived in Chicago, Illinois, for fifteen years and then in Minneapolis, Minnesota, until he came to Oregon sixteen years ago and settled at Kelso, where he lived until his death. His first wife died in Minneapolis in 1900. The following year he came to Kelso, Oregon, where he was united in marriage to Mrs. A. Jarl. He is survived by his wife, and six children by the first marriage, namely, Nels Sindall of Chicago, Illinois; Martin Sindall, Eau Claire, Wisconsin; Alfred Sindall, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Edward Sindall, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. N. P. Peterson, Minneapolis; and Miss Anna Sindall of Los Angeles, California. Most of Mr. Sindall's life in the east was spent in missionary work. He died Saturday, January 20th, at his home at Kelso. Funeral services were conducted in the Pleasant Home Methodist church by Rev. J. Johnson and Rev. Lennartz and interment took place in the Pleasant Home cemetery. He was an earnest christian and a kind friend and neighbor.

An appreciative audience gathered Wednesday evening at the school-house to hear the lecture, "The Fine Tooth Comb" by Geo. V. McClure of the Kelso Parent-Teachers' association. The lecture dealt with problems of home life, and the American girl and boy. Miss Ethel Wilkinson and Miss Evangeline Yerkes, teacher of the school, gave a vocal duet. After the lecture, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

The school kitchen, built by the association, is nearly completed and will soon be in shape to serve warm lunches to the school children.

Miss Anna Sindall arrived Friday afternoon from Los Angeles, California, just in time to speak a few words with her father, C. J. Sindall, who died Saturday morning, Jan. 20.

The Parent-Teacher association will have a business meeting Friday evening, January 26 at 8 o'clock, at the schoolhouse.

The Kelso Students' Self Government club held its regular meeting January 19, and elected the following officers for the month: president, Mildred Jarl; secretary, Nellie Harvison; inside monitor, Cecil Patterson; outside monitor, John Canning; librarian, Eunice Jonsrud; bell ringer, Gertrude Klige; line marshal, Hazel Dunn; police, Lester Irvin; executive committee, John Canny; Leo Mhan, Edith Lind and Dorothy Jonsrud. The students recently purchased a beautiful picture, "Washington Crossing the Delaware," for their room.

POWELL VALLEY

The Parent-Teachers' meeting will be held at the Powell Valley schoolhouse next Wednesday evening, January 31. An interesting program will be given and refreshments will be served. Patrons and friends of the school are invited.

Richard Belt has completed a bust of Lord Kitchener.

Bad Habits.

Those who breakfast at 8 o'clock or later, lunch at 12 and have dinner at 6 are almost certain to be troubled with indigestion. They do not allow time for one meal to digest before taking another. Not less than five hours should elapse between meals. If you are troubled with indigestion correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets, and you may reasonably hope for a quick recovery. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.—Ad.

MELROSE AND VICTORY.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Roth, of Albany, spent the week-end at the home of A. B. Conrad, Mrs. Roth's uncle. Mr. Conrad's nephew, Mark Gerig and family of Montavilla, spent Sunday at the Conrad home.

Rev. F. S. Ford spent the first of the week visiting among the people of this community.

Mrs. Charlie Wilson, who is known by most of the people of this neighborhood, has been visiting at the home of her father-in-law, J. H. Wilson of Gresham. Mrs. A. B. Conrad called on Mrs. J. H. Wilson Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips, of Portland, called at the home of Captain and Mrs. Branson last Sunday.

Miss Caroline Tallman is enjoying a short vacation at home, having been exempted from high school examinations this week.

Mrs. C. H. Hopkins and her mother are away on a short business trip to Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad and daughter Ada and Mrs. Lester Conrad were Portland visitors Tuesday. Cecil Duke spent Sunday at the home of his parents, J. C. Duke.

SANDY BLUFF

A number of the neighbors of Mrs. A. C. Browning gave her a surprise on January 23, it being her birthday. Cards were the feature of the evening. A nice lunch was served about midnight soon after which every one wished Mrs. Browning many more happy birthdays and departed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Brook, Mr. and Mrs. Ault, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Dunn, Mrs. Osborn, Sylvia P'inn, Carrie Brook, Fred Radford, Jerome Brook, Rolland Brook, Percy Osborn, Fred Rizer, Byron Edwards and two sons, Clarence and Robert, and Elsie Radford, Clarence and Everett, children of Mrs. Browning.

Mrs. Joseph Caldo entertained on Wednesday the Cottrell embroidery club. In spite of the bad weather a good many were present and a nice afternoon was spent. Harry King, of Grass Valley, visited a couple of days with his niece, Mrs. Browning and family. The many patrons of C. H. Lane of this vicinity extend him their deepest sympathy in this hour of sorrow and trouble.

LUSTED

A. W. Hamilton, who is working on the Mt. Hood railroad with the section hands, came very near having a serious accident. While working, a rock came rolling down from the embankment above cutting a gash above the left eye. Dr. H. H. Hughes, of Gresham, took two stitches and no serious results are looked for.

E. N. Hamilton visited his cousins in Portland last Sunday.

Most all the farmers here have sold their potatoes for a good figure. There are some being held for a better price.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carlton, of Portland, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Rauw last Sunday.

We Have Them Now.

Those Milk Record blanks. Printed on durable cardboard, suitable for 16 to 18 cows. Just the thing for your dairy. Will save many times their cost. 10c each, or $1.00 a dozen. The Outlook, phone 701.

The Habit of Taking Cold.

With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 90 degrees F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.—Ad.

Asleep In Jesus.

Leona Kesterson Berke fell asleep in Christ January 6th, 1917, aged 23 years, 2 months, 29 days, and was laid to rest in Mountain cemetery, January 9, awaiting the first resurrection.

Three weeks before her departure, while loving friends prayed by her bedside, she was converted, and from that time gave clear evidence of being born again. Her last hours on earth were filled with deep concern about the welfare of loved ones. The burden of her precious soul, when speech had failed her, was that her darlings would meet her in heaven. Having received this tender promise, she laid her frail little hands upon her breast, breathed out the last little spark of life, and was gone into the great eternity, to forever be with Jesus. In the language of another, we say, "How beautiful it is to be with God."

She was married to Leslie J. Berke, December 12, 1915. She leaves her husband, a little son, Robert, also her father and mother, Wm. and Sarah Kesterson, and two little brothers, Willard and Bertram, to mourn her absence. The family wish to extend their deep thankfulness and love to all the kind neighbors who so freely helped in this time of trouble, and to the members of the Sunday school who so beautifully decorated the church.

The funeral service was very precious. The presence of so many at the little church and the wealth of beautiful flowers, speak the sympathy and love of the many friends. The precious songs that were sung, by friends of the family, with such tender sweetness was like a bouquet of rarest beauty and fragrance. The sermon, with its mighty truth, with its tender consolation to the bereaved, and with its urgent warning to the unprepared, should long be remembered in the hearts of all.

Everyone has something to buy or sell. Try an Outlook want ad.

CLEAR LAND

WITH DU PONT Red Cross Explosives

The upper view shows how groups of big stumps are blasted out clean, at one time, with all dirt off the roots and stumps shattered into kindling wood. At the same time the subsoil is thoroughly broken up, creating a fine home for the new crop. Lower view shows a celery crop worth $800 per acre ten months after stumps were blasted out.
