MOUNTAIN MEADOW BUTTER

Manufactured by
SANDY CREAMERY COMPANY

The name "Mount Hood Butter" has heretofore been used by permission of the Mount Hood Ice Cream Co., which has all its dairy products registered under that title. That permission has ceased, hence the change of name, which became effective on January 1.

"Mountain Meadow Butter" will be found at all the Leading stores in the county. Ask for it.

MELROSE AND VICTORY.

The Searcher's class of III M. E. Sunday school had a merry time Sunday afternoon when they accompanied their teacher, Mrs. Alta Gentry, to her home in Powell Valley, for dinner. Those present beside the hostess and her son were, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Conrad, Misses Lena Cooley, Caroline Tallman, Nellie McCreary, Ruth Iekler and Messrs. Percy and Orle Conrad. Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood called during the afternoon.

Miss Lena Cooley has been ill most of this week but is improving. Little Walter Edwin Armstrong has been quite sick this week. It is hoped he will soon be well.

The last few days have been decidedly spring like with warm sun and the song of the meadow lark in the air and many of the folks are digging around their flowers to see if they are growing; but Elmer Mercer's are the only ones we know of brave enough to put in garden. They have planted potatoes, lettuce, turnips and other hardy vegetables.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kennedy, of Wamic, Oregon, are visiting Mrs. Grace Fritz.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Andrews were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hottinger at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Alder called in the afternoon and a very pleasant time was had by all.

Mrs. Adda Rogers, of Hood River, was a guest at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. W. Cooley one day this week.

Miss Henrietta Wiles is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Everett Stafford.

Sunday evening was pleasantly spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Armstrong when a number of friends called to spend a few hours with them. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hottinger, the Misses Annie and Dollie Morgan and Lena Cooley and Messrs. Geo. Jones, Harry Cooley and Charlie McCreary.

Mrs. G. W. Andrews was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos Wiles Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Iekler was a guest of Miss Lena Cooley Saturday night and part of Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Aton spent Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood. Mrs. Wood has been ill the past week, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cuddiford and family were week-end guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mercer. Mr. Cuddiford had the misfortune to have a heavy piece of steel dropped on his foot last week which gave him a rather painful holiday. Although very painful it was expected he would be able to go to work again in about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moffit Tuesday night.

Curtis Wheeler spent the fore part of the week in Portland, where he underwent the operation of having his tonsils removed. His sister, Mrs. Duke, accompanied him. He returned home Wednesday.

It is reported that Mrs. Arthur Burns and children and Miss Florence Wilhelm have been having chicken pox the past week.

Miss Lena Cooley and her guest, Miss Ruth Iekler, spent Saturday evening at the home of the Misses Annie and Dollie Morgan. A very pleasant time was had by all in singing and playing on the new piano which arrived last week at the Morgan home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Andrews.

Miss Mabel Wood spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stafford entertained at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Armstrong and son Walter, and Harold McCreary. Among those who called in the afternoon were Miss Norma Jones and Miss Lena Cooley.

There will be preaching at III M church at 11 a. m. next Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bachstrand has been ill but is much improved now. John Wheeler is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

New Jersey factories employ 232,000 operatives.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Leland Moore, who has been visiting with home folks for a few days, has returned to Coquille.

Mrs. Elwood, of Portland, was entertained over Sunday by Mrs. W. U. Moore.

L. J. Hollenbeck, of Lents, was looking after his farm near here one day this week.

Geo. Putteramer has returned to the city after a few weeks' stay on his farm, during which time Mr. Putteramer made a number of improvements on the place.

Allan R. Joy, Sr., of Portland, spent the fore part of the week with his sons, Guy and Allan R. Jr., who have recently moved on to the C. F. Kesterson place.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Melby, of Portland, were out to their farm last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Combs and Miss A. B. Combs and Miss May Chapler of Portland, were guests at the home of the Joy brothers Sunday. Miss Chapler is secretary of the Portland Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. R. F. Simms, of Creston, was an over Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kesterson.

Miss Hazel Berke and Mrs. Dave Masters were city visitors on Monday.

F. H. Gilchrist is contemplating the erection of a modern residence on his Sycamore farm in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison of Gresham, visited with Grandma Kesterson one day recently.

G. H. Richey, of Corvallis, is with us again. Mr. Richey will spend several weeks here this trip and will put in his time pruning his orchard and tiling his land.

Road Supervisor York has a force of men and teams at work regravelling the Berke road.

A large delegation of Pleasant Valley citizens went before the board of county commissioners last Monday to defeat a petition in which it was proposed to cut off a large parcel of land assessed at more than $12,000 and add to the Gilbert district. After listening to the arguments pro and con, the court was convinced that it would be detrimental to the best interests of Pleasant Valley school to grant the petition.

The proposed new road starting at a point on the Berke road and intersecting the Foster road at the Kelley bridge came up for final hearing before the county commissioners last Monday, and was granted.

Mrs. Emma Elspas and son Guy, of Portland, came out Wednesday evening to spend a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lehman.

COTTRELL

The ladies of the embroidery club gave Mrs. Arthur Dentler a shower at the home of Mrs. Wm. Craswell, Wednesday afternoon. The bride received many beautiful presents. There were about twenty ladies present. The club held its annual election of officers, electing Mrs. Frank Beers, president; Mrs. Wm. Craswell, vice president; Miss Rose Beers, secretary, and Mrs. D. D. Jack, treasurer.

Mrs. Guy Robertson has fully recovered from the measles. She was able to spend Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn.

Mrs. Martin Lenaartz will give an afternoon tea to the ladies of the Methodist Aid society next Wednesday afternoon. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Eva Beers was the guest of Miss Emma Cook Thursday evening. Miss Cook, who has been attending school in Portland, is spending a few days with her parents.

Rev. S. F. Pitts will preach at the Cottrell community church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Earl and Glenn Andre left for eastern Oregon the first of the week, where they have been employed to work during the summer.

The Best Recommendation

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Waynesfield, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
