GRAND OFFICERS VISIT ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Mrs. Dora Schukie, grand worthy matron of Oregon of the Order of Eastern Star, made her official visit to Gresham Chapter No. 117 on last Wednesday evening. She also convened the chapter in the afternoon for the purpose of instruction. In the evening there were a goodly number of members and visitors present. Sandy chapter was represented by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bauer and Troutdale chapter was well represented, as were also Mt. Scott chapter of Lents, Martha Washington, Corintha and Rose City chapters. The grand worthy matron was supported by some of her staff, including Mrs. Lena Mendenhall, associate grand matron; and Mrs. Janet M. Grant, grand warder, who is a member of Troutdale chapter. Past Grand Patron Davis was in the party. The worthy grand matron was well pleased at the way in which the officers exemplified the work. After the chapter was closed they all adjourned to the banquet hall, where a good supper was waiting. Worthy Patron W. H. Congdon of Gresham chapter presented the worthy grand matron with an engraved dessert spoon. The meeting will long be remembered by all who were there as being one of the most pleasant evenings this chapter has ever experienced.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mrs. I. McColl returned home Wednesday from Newport, Oregon, where she has spent a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Belt and family.

Gas pipe has been laid on Stanley avenue from the Base Line during the present week. Every house on the avenue, eight in all, are being connected up for lights and some of them for cooking.

Arthur Dixon, who resigned as janitor of the Gresham school building last week has been packing up preparatory to leaving tomorrow for Castle Rock, Washington, where he will engage in farming.

Mrs. Ed. Bauman had the misfortune to cut the middle finger of her right hand off this morning while assisting in serving meat to a customer in the Sanitary market. She was attended by Dr. Hughes and will make a speedy recovery minus the finger.

Miss Mabel Shipley, who was unable to continue her work as teacher in the Rockwood school all of last week on account of illness, has now recovered and has returned to her work.

An interesting program is promised for the regular bi-monthly meeting of the City Council of Parent-Teachers' association, which will be held at the Gresham branch library tomorrow, beginning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Hart of Reed College will speak on "Consolidation of Rural Schools." Miss Wood from the main library will speak concerning the use of the library by country school children. State president, Mrs. George W. McMath and County Superintendent W. C. Alderson will also take part and a good musical program will be rendered. Basket dinner will be enjoyed at noon, at which time some of the speaking will probably take place. The remainder of the program will begin at 1:30 o'clock. All interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. E. Beegle was taken to Good Samaritan hospital this morning, where she will be operated on for appendicitis. Mrs. Beegle's severe attack came on a day or two ago and was the climax of numerous former attacks. The Beegle family is moving to Scappoose, where they recently purchased a 118-acre stock farm, and a part of their goods have already been sent. Mrs. Beegle's two daughters, Eva and Mildred Pullen, will remain here until the close of school. Eva will remain with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, from Portland, who have rented the Beegle place and Mildred with Mrs. Emil Lauber.

A. E. Kessler, our popular barber, has taken over the lapidary business of the Portland Agatory and is taking a thorough course in the lapidary art under the well-known lapidist artist, G. M. Horne of Portland. He will keep on hand hundreds of beautiful cut stones for sale and already has a choice collection on display in his shop on Powell street. He announces in his ad that stones will be cut and polished in a highly artistic manner at reasonable prices. This is a new industry for Gresham and should interest both local and Portland lovers of precious stones. Mr. Horne expects to leave shortly for California, his former home.

A surprise shower was given Mrs. Ella Aton on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. W. Emery, when a large number of Mrs. Aton's friends gathered to offer best wishes in anticipation of her marriage to Hans Larsen of Boring next week. Mrs. Aton was the recipient of many gifts, among them being a dozen beautiful engraved silver teaspoons from the members of the Gresham Women's Christian Temperance Union. The affair was a complete surprise, the entire company being in the house before she knew of their arrival.

The Tuesday Study club will hold its next meeting at the library on February 13. The program consists of a reading, "The Perfect Tribute," by Mrs. H. L. St. Clair; papers on the federal and state courts by Mrs. Geo. F. Honey and Mrs. H. L. Wostell respectively. Roll call will be answered to by current events. The meeting begins promptly at 7:45.

Just a little letter or two in a word sometimes makes a vast difference in the meaning. It was not "Fresh Milk" that our Main street butcher, Ed. Bauman, said he would keep but "Fresh Smelt." So when in need of that delicacy call at the Sanitary market.

H. W. Russell has sold his fine home property southeast of Gresham and is packing up preparatory to moving to Los Angeles, California. The buyer is a Portland man, who will move on with his family in a few days.

Mrs. Gust Larson is seriously ill at her home near Gresham. She has been in failing health for many months and is now confined to her bed.

A marriage license was issued Monday at the Clackamas county courthouse to Mildred S. Bissell and William F. Mueller of Boring.

Mrs. W. H. Waltman left today for Salem, where she will begin her duties as head nurse at the state hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Turner of Warren, Oregon, are the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Oliphant.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kessler spent Sunday in Portland the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Osburn have moved into the Regner house on Second street.

C. M. Zimmerman has been called to Dakota by the death of his father.

MAE MARSH
 "THE ESCAPE"

A Problem Story Which Grips and Fascinates.

"The Escape," D. W. Griffith's big drama of life Wednesday, February 14, one night only, at Smith's theater Gresham, is perhaps one of the most unusual stories ever filmed. D. W. Griffith, who is claimed to be the highest salaried director in the world, has taken the big Paul Armstrong play, "The Escape," as a foundation for a life drama that is true to the minutest detail. The picture is a plea for higher social government. In a short prologue which precedes this big and vital drama, there is an introduction showing the origin of plant and animal life, and in a clean and clever way the human family are reformed for their weaknesses and their carelessness.

Mr. Griffith has selected the very best actors obtainable for his drama. Dr. Arthur D. Houghton, considered to be the court of last appeals in matters eugenic, and who made the first eugenic marriage in America, said of "The Escape,"

It is more eloquent than the spoken drama, more convincing than a thousand sermons, a lesson to those striving to better humanity. The great lesson which this big production teaches is easily followed, but to fully appreciate the picture it should be seen from the beginning. Blanche Sweet, who has long been one of the leading motion picture actresses in America takes a prominent part in "The Escape" and with Owen Moore, who in private life is Mary Pickford's husband; Mae Marsh, Robert Harron, Ralph Lewis, Donald Crisp and F. A. Turner, Mr. Griffith has assembled one of the strongest casts ever used in a moving picture production. As a producer of big photoplays, Mr. Griffith is in a class by himself. He possesses the art of swaying his audience at will.

In "The Escape" you get much of educational value and a warning in the prologue and you are immediately plunged into a swiftly moving life drama that carries action from the opening scene to the finish.

You laugh. You cry. You follow the lives of two sisters with the sudden changes in their fortunes, you pity one, you wonder at the other. You admire and sympathize with the brother, you detest the father. You loath the brute husband of Jennie Joyce and are greatly gratified to see him get his just deserts from the right party at the right time. Although it takes one and three-quarter hours to project the picture, the interest is so well sustained that one is not conscious of passing time. You are pleased with the ending of the story.

This is the picture that ran last week at the Globe Theater, Portland.—Adv.

J. A. Frakes Died Today.

Word has been received of the death of J. A. Frakes at 4 o'clock this afternoon. He was stricken with paralysis Monday, January 29, and has lingered without expectation of recovery. The brother of the deceased arrived last night from Zilla, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenney, now in California, have been summoned.

Old Folks' Dance.

Announcement has been made that a real old-fashioned dance for both old and young will be given in Regner's hall on Wednesday evening, February 14. The admission will be one dollar, supper included, per couple. Old-time dances will be the order of the evening, with card playing for those who do not dance.

Stolen Auto Recovered.

An automobile belonging to C. W. Budd of Fairview was found in Seattle on Tuesday. C. D. Mortaine was arrested for the theft. The machine was stolen from Thirteenth and Alder streets on Jan. 31 while its owner and family were attending the First Presbyterian church.

Agates Polished and For Sale.

Jewel stones cut and polished in Gresham now. No better work done anywhere. Large selection of cut agates on exhibition and for sale reasonably. Kessler's Barber Shop.

A stepping party will be given by the girls' orchestra in Regner's hall tomorrow night. Good music. All are invited.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Mr. Kern and family will remain here for an indefinite period.

For a Billious Attack

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe billious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

The remains of Mrs. Barber, who died near Sandy on Sunday last were brought to Gresham on Tuesday and were later taken to the crematorium at Sellwood for incineration.

Something Good

Those who hate nasty medicine should try Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. They are pleasant to take and their effect is so agreeable and natural that you will not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Miss Orel Raney, who has been unable to use one of her hands for several weeks, on account of a weeping sinew, went to Portland Tuesday and had an operation performed.
