CLEAR LAND

The upper view shows how groups of big stumps are blasted out clean at one time, with all dirt off the roots and stumps shattered into kindling wood. At the same time the subsoil is thoroughly broken up, creating a fine home for the new crop. Lower view shows a celery crop worth $800 per acre ten months after stumps were blasted out.

To learn how progressive farmers are using dynamite for removing stumps and boulders, planting and cultivating fruit trees, regenerating barren soil, ditching, draining, excavating, and road-making.

TROUTDALE

Rev. B. C. Brewster has arranged for a series of meetings, which is being held in the church in Troutdale this week, beginning Monday, February 12, conducted by Rev. F. S. Ford, of Pleasant Home and Rev. C. A. Spiess, of Estacada. All are invited to attend.

At the meeting of the Troutdale Aid society at Mrs. L. A. Harlow's last Wednesday, among other business it was decided to save and collect waste paper, especially magazines and newspapers, to sell to create a fund for the relief of Belgian children. All friends in the vicinity are asked to help the Aid in this undertaking. Paper may be brought to the church, where it will be stored in the basement. Mrs. Harlow served refreshments, surprising Mrs. J. A. Knarr, whose birthday it was, with a birthday cake with sixteen candles on it. The next meeting will be March 7, with Mrs. C. I. Thomas.

The Parent-Teachers' association held its regular meeting last Friday, with a good attendance. Prof. J. C. Ryan gave an interesting talk on the share the Parent-Teacher associations have had in the betterment of the public schools. Mrs. C. I. Raker and Mrs. Arthur Van DeWalker served lunch. Plans were made for attending the bi-monthly meeting of the County Council of the Parent-Teacher associations at Gresham Saturday. Those who attended from here are Mrs. L. A. Harlow, president of the council; Mesdames J. A. Larsson, A. Fox, C. I. Raker, Arthur Van DeWalker, Wm. Crawford, Hatfield, Misses Miriam Inglis and Saline Fox and Prof. J. C. Ryan.

Little Elizabeth Thomas celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday with a valentine birthday party. The decorations were hearts and cupids, with pussy willows and spring flowers about the rooms. The afternoon was spent in playing games and enjoying the birthday spread, and listening to the stories told them by Miss Ruth Ferguson. Just in time to get home before dark, the little folks departed, wishing "Betty" and her mother, whose birthday it was also, many more happy birthdays. The little guests were Fay and Dale Parsons, Clella Crawford, Helen Landan, Frances Fox, Ruth and Inez Kniefel, Louise Cummins, Ella Richardson. Others enjoying the day with them were Dr. Belle Ferguson and daughter Ruth of Portland, Miss Nell Cooper of McMinnville, and Miss Myrtle Wallace, of Troutdale.

The DeMoss family have made arrangements to give a concert in the Masonic hall on February 14th under the auspices of the Troutdale Ladies' Aid society.

Miss Evelyn Kendall had a few friends in Thursday evening to help her celebrate her sixteenth birthday. Those who came in were Bessie and Isabel Low, Marguerite Bailey, Clarence Parsons, Linn Monohan, Mrs. R. D. Bailey, Mrs. N. S. Parsons and Fay and Dale Parsons.
