About twenty-five Gresham girls met at the library last Tuesday afternoon and organized a club, whose chief object will be hikes and healthful out-of-door sports during the spring and summer. Miss Durst was made an honorary member and elected chaperone. Ruth Inglis is the leader and Letitia Pulfer assistant leader. The motto of the club, three H's, signifies health, happiness and helpfulness.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a valentine luncheon at noon tomorrow, February 14, for the benefit of the society. The luncheon will be served in the store formerly occupied by Mrs. Wood's millinery store, in the Regner building. A splendid menu has been prepared and it is hoped that many business men will take the opportunity to patronize the Aid society.

A telegram was received today announcing the death, at Shelley, Montana, of Grandma Kohlen, mother of Mrs. Fred Honey. She will be buried on Thursday at Park River, North Dakota. Mrs. Honey, who has been spending the winter in Minnesota, was summoned to her mother's bedside, and arrived a few days before her death.

Yesterday morning, while S. G. Roper was doing some business at the delivery window in the postoffice, he left his pocket book lying on the desk from where it was taken by some unknown person. It contained nearly $60. An ad in the want column today offers a liberal reward for the return of the purse and money.

The Outlook has been promised a series of articles on timely subjects by a well-known writer who desires his name withheld for the present. The editor has often asked him for contributions and when in Portland the other day we met him and renewed our request with the result as promised above. Watch for them.

Mrs. George Withrow gave a 500 party last Friday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. J. J. Ryan, Mrs. C. Merrill, Mrs. A. Knighton, Mrs. C. Latourell and Mrs. Eunice Stratton, also Mrs. Frankie Converse of Portland. A nice lunch was served following the games.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Quesinberry, of Grandview, Washington, who have been visiting friends and relatives in California, are now visiting their uncle, Walker Quesinberry and family at Rockwood. After spending a few days here they will return to Grandview.

MRS. L. M. CONGDON CALLED TO REWARD

W. H. Congdon, proprietor of the Congdon hotel, has received word of the death of his sister-in-law in Minnesota. She was the wife of Mr. Congdon's brother, now deceased. The following is taken from the Brainerd Dispatch:

One of the pioneer residents of Brainerd passed to her reward last night, February 6, at 11:30, the deceased being Mrs. Louise M. Congdon.

Mrs. Congdon was born in Nelson, Tioga county, Pennsylvania, on Aug. 30, 1849. For a while she taught school in Nelson, and in 1870 was married to John C. Congdon, who preceded her in death in July, 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Congdon came to Brainerd in September, 1872, where they entered into the life of the community so much, that their memories are indelibly marked on the pages of its history.

Mrs. Congdon was a member of the First Congregational church and was a most active worker. The church honored her for a number of years with the office of deaconess in which capacity she served most faithfully. She was also active in any movement that had for its purpose the alleviation of suffering or the upbuilding of the community.

To the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Congdon were granted two children, John C. Jr., who has passed hence, and Harry W., who is in business in Brainerd.

Mrs. Congdon leaves two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. E. O. Parks of St. Paul, Mrs. Celestia Rawson of Tioga, Pa., O. C. Wright of Minneapolis and Judd Wright of Brainerd. Her remains will lie in state at the D. E. Whitney undertaking parlors until Friday morning. The funeral service will be held from the residence of H. W. Congdon, North Side street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. G. Phil Sheridan, minister of the First Congregational church, officiating.

Sale at Springdale.

An auction sale of the Shelley & Shelley dairy, together with farm tools and other articles will be held at Springdale, east of the Sandy tomorrow, commencing at 10:30. W. S. Wood will be auctioneer, A. Meyers clerk. It will be a good opportunity to get twelve excellent cows and other stock.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn called on H. L. Crenshaw and family while on their way to Portland.

Mrs. Ray H. Todd of Ridgefield, Washington, spent several days last week with relatives here.

Ernest Simms has moved from the Dahlquist place on Hood avenue to the house recently vacated by Arthur Dixon.

Mrs. R. H. Todd, who has been ill for several months, is reported to be improving slightly. She is still confined to her bed.

Mrs. Rudolph Kaser and daughter Beverly are visiting at the home of Mrs. Kaser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley.

Mrs. Emma Manning, of Bull Run, spent the past day or two here, the guest of Mrs. Mary Wood. She is now visiting in Portland.

Grand Master William Moore, of Pendleton, will be the guest of the Gresham Masonic lodge tonight. All Master Masons are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chipman celebrated the fortieth wedding anniversary on Wednesday of last week. They kept the event so quiet that no one else knew of it for several days.

The Rock, published at Fort Alcatraz, Cal., says, "Private Jewel Bond, United States disciplinary barracks guard, having reported for duty, has been assigned to the 8th disciplinary company and appointed sergeant." He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bond, well-known residents of Gresham.

George W. Kenney and wife arrived home yesterday from the California trip. They spent the most of their time around San Diego and Los Angeles. Mr. Kenney had received word of the serious condition of his brother-in-law, J. W. Frakes, by reading the Outlook and had decided to come home, but had no intimation of his death until he read it in a Portland daily which he bought on the train.

The anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birthday was honored at Union High School No. 2 by the presentation of a large picture of Lincoln by the graduating class of 1916. Addresses were given by Principal E. F. Goodwin, and Chairman of the Board of Education, George W. Stapleton. Patriotic songs were sung by the students. One half of the '16 class was present. They were Anna Brugger, Frances Bliss, Lucy Peterson, Marie Lane, Hester Thorpe, Florence Towle and Gladys Bliss. Other visitors were Mrs. K. A. Miller and son, Aldon; Mrs. C. E. Rusher, Miss Iness Holliday, Mr. N. O. Fuller and Mr. Coe.

Lecture at Lynch School.

Mr. Harrington, field worker from the state superintendent's office, gave a stereopticon lecture at Lynch school last Friday night, illustrating the industrial club work throughout the state. Among the pictures shown were those of Clark Koerner of Lynch school and Donald Grant of Fairview school, winners of the first and second prizes in the Pig club last fall, who were given trips to the state fair. The lecture was a feature of the regular Parent-Teachers' meeting. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

The Satisfaction of Saving

"Among all material pleasures there is none so great as that which springs from a store laid by for future wants, especially for the needs of those for whose well being you become responsible and when you have gathered that store by steadfastly refusing thriftless self indulgence you have a satisfaction that outweighs and outlasts all fleeting joys"—Youth's Companion.

OUR CHRISTMAS CASH CLUB

provides the means for those pleasures. You must provide the store in order to reap the pleasure. Begin right now. Ask for a card and join the club. Be one of the army of young and old working to effect a thrifty nation.

Bring your friend with you. It is a good "stunt," one that the college boy is going to give more attention in the future than he has in the past.
