FAIRVIEW

A nine-pound daughter was born on Sunday to Mrs. Margaret Loser, widow of John Loser, who was killed, together with his brother Charles, in a railway accident on Christmas day.

A number of Fairview grangers are planning to attend Pomona grange at Pleasant Valley next Wednesday.

Mrs. Benedict, of Centralia, has come to spend a few months with her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Brewster here.

Mrs. Harriet Jenkins has moved back from Portland into her old home at Fairview.

The chicken pie supper and sale given by the M. E. Aid society last Saturday was largely attended, and the sum of $333 was taken in.

Charles Smith, for a number of years on the Swank place, has left here for Michigan, his former home.

W. E. Stone, one of the well-known young men of Fairview and Miss Dixon of Ventura Park were married Thursday, March 15, at the home of the bride's parents.

ANDERSON

David Wolfe, rural carrier from Boring, Route 1, has been off duty for nearly a month on account of ill health. Floyd Lake is substitute.

Our road boss, John Meyer, was seen in this vicinity the first of the week making some improvements.

The high price of potatoes has stimulated several parties in this vicinity to put new land under cultivation. Wm. J. Hillyard & Son, Vivian, intend getting six acres ready for planting by June 1st. Others are Leggett, Hartley and Wheeler with smaller pieces.

Vivian Hillyard has moved into the house belonging to A. E. Lake, 1/2 mile east of Anderson.

KELSO

At the special school meeting, held on Monday, the school board was authorized to re-engage Miss Wilkinson as principal and Miss Yerkee as primary teacher for a nine months' term next year.

The Parent-Teacher association will postpone the meeting announced for March 16th to Thursday, March 22d. At that meeting the men will entertain and serve refreshments.

The following spelling contestants will represent Kelso in the try-out to be held at Sandy or Kelso: Nellie Harvison, 5th grade; Dorothy Jons-rud, 6th grade; Anna Milan, 7th grade and Eunice Jonsrud, 8th grade. John Canny, 8th grade, will be a contestant in arithmetic.

Miss Angela Canning has returned to her school at Greenwood, after an enforced vacation on account of the snow in that place.

Time too Valuable.

A Montavilla woman asked a peddler, who had some large potatoes on his wagon, for a dime's worth.
"Lady," he said, "I can't afford to take the time to slice my potatoes."

Next Thursday and Friday the pastor, Rev. F. S. Ford, has arranged to have two well known pastors preach, and Saturday District Supt.
T. B. Ford, will spend the day at Iliff, conducting the second quarterly conference. If possible a more complete program of the services and the hours at which they will be held will be published in Tuesday's Outlook.

Miss Caroline Tallman was a guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Conrad.

Morgans had the misfortune to lose one of their cows last week.

Next Tuesday and Wednesday a convention of the Sunday schools of Multnomah county will be held in First M. E. church of Portland. As many as can go should report to the superintendent Sunday, as there is some thought of trying for some of the awards offered for attendance if a good percentage can attend.

The Embroidery club met with Mrs. Geo. Armstrong Thursday, giving her a surprise party. A number of ladies were present considering the distance and everyone had a fine time.

Mrs. Morgan is home after a week's visit with her son, William Morgan. The reporter made a mistake last week in stating the arrival of a son at the home of William Morgan. It was a daughter.

A good many from the Victory district who heard the mole lecture recently are enthusiastically trapping moles, some having as many as seven traps going. Good progress is being made and with a combined and determined effort they can hardly help but improve conditions.

Dorothy and Leon Caddy and Ruth and Gertrude Ickler were guests of Lena and Harry Cooley Saturday evening.

Mrs. Alta Gentry and son, Russell, were dinner guests Thursday at the White Knoll Poultry farm.

Miss Anna and Dolly Morgan and Fred and Hector Morgan spent Sunday afternoon visiting Misses Bessie and Jennie Strebin and Robert Stre-bin.

Herbert Armstrong spent Tuesday evening at the home of his brother, Geo. Armstrong.

Noses are sometimes a nuisance and oftimes a joy but twice last week they proved sturdy protectors. Once when the pevie, with which Geo.
Armstrong was clearing, flew out of his hand and struck him across the nose and eye, knocking him down.
Although it almost broke his nose it saved his eye from the force of the blow which would have proved more serious. The other was when Russell Gentry fell headlong down a flight of stairs striking on his nose on a step near the top where he remained head down till rescued from his dangerous position.

BORING

The Boring social club met at the home of Mrs. Joe Lunday with most of the members present, and the usual good time was enjoyed by all.

A surprise was given for Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larsen last Saturday evening, about 30 people being present. A pleasant evening was spent by all. On opening the packages which were left on the table, it was found that the host and hostess had been remembered with many useful gifts by those present.

The boys' and girls' basket ball teams of the Boring school, played Sandy school teams last Friday evening, Boring winning both games.
Hurrah for Boring!

Rev. Thomas Atkinson has been appointed for Boring M. E. church, preaching each alternate Sunday.

The women of Boring met at the home of Mrs. Hans Larsen on Wednesday and organized a Ladies' Aid The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. Anderson; first vice president, Mrs. O. W. Boring; second vice president, Mrs. Hans Larsen; secretary, Mrs. J. C. Schultz; treasurer, Mrs. Cross. They will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shultz on Wednesday, March 21, at 1:30.

Mr. Kesray, of Portland, is opening an up-to-date barber shop, which we have needed for a long time. He also expects to open a pool hall in connection with the shop.

land, were guests at the home of

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

MRS. P. ANDERSON.

Well, we have come to the conclusion that that groundhog business is a fake and wish he never would show up, for what is the use of fooling us every spring? But we patiently wait for springtime; we are longing to hear the frogs and the birds giving their accustomed spring concert for then we know that winter with its unpleasant weather has disappeared once more, and now we turn our thoughts to the seedtime, and oh for the good old housecleaning time.

R. P. Rasmussen can boast of a fine herd of dairy cows. Mr. Kramer, the state veterinary has spent a couple of days testing his herd, and declared it the finest bunch of cows he has ever inspected. Not one of the animals was found to be sick or diseased.

Mr. Ehrman, of Portland, has a big force on to work at his place here. We held our breath at the dimensions of the house. It will be 62x146 feet and modern to the letter. There will be a tennis court on the grounds, and a large cement swimming pool, a $4,000 garage, and everything to make life worth living for the family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Crane, of Portland, accompanied by Miss Spence and Miss Hammlin, old time friends, were out at Columbia View farm on Sunday looking over their newly purchased property and are now arranging to set out fruit trees and shrubbery. Mr. Pipes of Portland, is their architect, and is busy with the plan of Mr. and Mrs. Crane's future home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Knieriem has just presented their only daughter, Blanche, with a fine new piano.

Mr. Manning, the blacksmith, is enlarging his shop and aims to start up auto repairing this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward, of the Heights here, are crowing over their little grandson, Audrey Forest Landine, of Portland, who scored 100 recently in a better babies' test in Portland. He also was a prize baby at Gresham last fall at the baby show there.

R. Becker entertained a hundred and fifty city people Monday morning at a breakfast dance, and they all had a wonderful time.
