THE MORAL FABRIC.

The fate of two "free thinkers" who read the Moral Fabric woven by centuries of civilization, is portrayed in this wonderful farce, Triangle production, which carries the name of the subject it deals with.

A husband who sees his wife taken from him by an ingrate and his own unique scheme of revenge is the central figure of the story. As he foresees they grew to hate and despise one another. Then the wronged man wins back the love of his former wife, and enrages the other man by demanding that he give her up, and finally throws the pair for the last time together, going forever out of the woman's life with a final burst of scorn and contempt. A very dramatic and interesting story with swift action, and a moral lesson; in five acts, featuring such famous stars as Frank Mills and Edith Reeves. Also a good two-reel Keystone comedy, "Love Riot" and special music for one night only, Wednesday, April 4, at Smith's Theater. Admission, 10c and 15c.—Adv.

Five prominent W. C. T. U. women, among whom were Mrs. Kemp and Mrs. Addison, were the guests of Mrs. Davenport of Portland in an automobile trip up the Columbia Highway yesterday, in honor of Mrs. Woodworth of Pendleton. On the return trip the party stopped at the home of Mrs. Geo. F. Honey, where they had luncheon and spent a pleasant hour.

Berlin and other German cities are noted for the enthusiasm with which the women engage in the cultivation of flowers and in this cultivation window boxes are made to play an important part. It is now proposed that these window boxes be given over to the growing of potatoes.

Virginia is the leading state in the production of soapstone, Vermont ranking second.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Principal E. R. Goodwin has purchased a new Ford.

Mrs. J. E. Metzger has returned from St. Helens, where she made a brief visit. She is now ill with tonsillitis.

Passion Week services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church every evening of next week, to which the public is invited.

Roy White, of Portland, son of Mrs. C. M. Oliphant, is a member of the Oregon National Guards and has been called to the colors.

William E. Bates is spending his vacation in Seattle, Walla Walla and other Washington cities. He reports a fine time. He is expected home in about a week.

Walter Givens, of Estacada, was a Gresham visitor on Thursday. He is interested in the purchase of livestock and has established stock yards at Estacada and is working to do the same at Boring.

The new cannery building has progressed as far as the roof which is now being finished. The structure will be completed in full time for installation of the machinery before the berry season comes.

Rev. A. J. Ware will begin his pastorate of the Baptist church in this place by preaching at the church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Services will be held every evening during the week, it being Passion Week and Easter services will be held on Sunday, April 8.

Five young men, students at the union high school, left this morning for Vancouver barracks to join their company in the Third Oregon. Ernest B. Quesinberry, Clark Hillions, Wilson Eastman and George Reynolds comprise the list from Gresham. The other member, Ernest Lovelace is from Boring.

Mrs. Ellen A. Pomeroy was elected to teach music in the grade school at the recent meeting of the board of directors. Mrs. Pomeroy's work in the school is worthy of much commendation. It is conducted in all grades, and a satisfactory progress is being made on the part of the pupils in the knowledge of music.

Miss Hester Thorpe has been added to the "central" force of the local telephone company as a substitute. Upon the resignation of Mrs. Mary Wood, who was recently married to Homer Williams, her place was filled by the promotion of Miss Lucy Peterson. Hester Thorpe was chosen to fill the latter's place as substitute.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wall have rented their place on Cleveland avenue and Division street, and Mr. Wall has gone to Moro, Oregon, where he will engage in wheat growing. Mrs. Wall plans to go to Portland tomorrow, where she will spend a week, before joining her husband in eastern Oregon. Mrs. Christian will move into the Wall home.

Clover Circle No. 202, Women of Woodcraft, met in regular session on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the clerk, Mrs. Nellie Metzger. After the routine work of the day, Mrs. Metzger served a delicious luncheon, which was greatly appreciated by the members. Fragrant violets formed the house decorations and bunches of violets were the favors at luncheon.

The entertainment at Metzger's hall tomorrow night under the auspices of the Gresham Troop Boy Scouts, promises to be interesting and instructive. Jas. E. Bockway, scout executive of Portland, will be the principal speaker. The Gresham scouts will demonstrate their skill in various lines and invite your attendance. Some good musical numbers are expected. Admission will be free, but a nickle collection will be taken to help defray the expenses of the meeting.

FISK

Non Skids

THEY'RE the best tire buy on the market today. Fisk Quality is unexcelled and mileage returns prove it. Buy a pair of Fisk Non-Skids and put them to the dollar-for-dollar value test. "When you pay more than Fisk prices you pay for something that does not exist." Don't forget that, when you buy tires.

ered by the Dowsetts to be the best all around variety, and so far their results have justified that belief. They have several pens of layers that average 229 eggs to the hen in a year, which is better than the average and far above the product of many other breeds. Next year will see a vast increase in their business.

Dr. F. F. Casseday, of Portland, writes the Outlook that he has nearly three acres of good potato land near Fairview which he is willing to let some deserving person have to cultivate for a small amount of potatoes. Dr. Casseday's office is in the Dekum building.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey arrived home last Wednesday, after having been away all winter. Mr. Honey has been looking after business interests in eastern Oregon, Canada, North Dakota and Minnesota. Mrs. Honey has spent the greater part of the time since early September with her daughter, Mrs. Ada Nickerson, in Montevideo, Minnesota, but was called to Montana by the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Kohlen. Miss Florence Honey, who is studying music in Boston, joined her mother and sister in Minnesota at Christmas time. Mr. and Mrs. Honey returned home by way of the south and spent a few days with their son John at Leland Stanford University. The latter is here this week, enjoying his Easter vacation.
