GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mrs. R. B. Belt and Attorney C. G. Schneider attended the Yeoman convention in Portland on Monday and Tuesday.

A marriage license was issued at Vancouver on Wednesday to August Johnson of Boring and Miss Clara Johnson of Gresham.

James McKinney, having resigned as city marshal, will leave Saturday for Hartland, Wash. His family will remain here for the present.

Mrs. J. E. Metzger, who has been ill with tonsillitis, is improving. Both her children have been quite sick this week but are reported to be getting better.

Among the college and normal school students who are at home for the Easter vacation are Misses Helen McCormick, Kathryn Honey, Bessie Howitt, Olive Merrill and Laura Davis.

Mrs. Laura Barnes of Cottrell was in Gresham on business yesterday. Mrs. Barnes has just returned from Pittsburg, California, where she has spent the winter. She is glad to be back in Oregon.

Miss Mary E. Good has gone to southern Oregon on a business trip in connection with her homestead. She expects to be back in time for school work next Tuesday. Student substitutes are teaching her classes in her absence.

Doris, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown, whose serious illness was mentioned in Tuesday's issue, is recovering, and if no further relapse is had will soon be well again. She is under the care of Dr. Emily Bolcom.

The City Bakery will put on an automobile delivery tomorrow, to cover many miles of eastern Multnomah daily. Several orders have been received for bread and pastry from other localities, all of which will be supplied fresh every day.

Dr. C. E. Cline, father of Mrs. K. A. Miller of Gresham, underwent a delicate surgical operation last Thursday for the removal of a malignant cancer of the face, just back of the corner of the right eye. Drs. Geary and Short performed the delicate operation.

The Eighth grade play last Friday night was a very enjoyable affair. The characters were well sustained, and the ability in that line. The large number of the children showing expeditiousness entered into the spirit of the scenes and applauded enthusiastically. Miss Mae Williamson was the director.

The Tuesday Study club will meet at the library on next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Neal R. Crowne who is the assistant superintendent of the Women's Protective division of the Portland Police department will speak on the work of this division for women and children. All who are interested are invited to hear Mrs. Crowne.

CO. PARENT TEACHERS TO MEET APRIL 14

The County Council of Parent-Teacher associations will meet at 11 a. m., at the West Portland school, District No. 13. All officers and members of Parent-Teachers' associations throughout the county are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. J. N. Clananah, secretary of the County Council, has been informed that a splendid program has been arranged. Good speakers will explain the work of the organization and offer helpful suggestions.

The schoolhouse is reached by way of the Oregon Electric. Those wishing to go in that way may take the train at Hoyt street at 10:15. This train makes stops at Tenth and Stark, Tenth and Morrison, Fifth and Salmon, Second and Salmon and leaves Jefferson street at 10:30. Get off at Multnomah station. The schoolhouse is located at the junction of Taylor Ferry road and the West Side Highway, seven miles south of Portland.

Those going by automobile can reach the schoolhouse by either of these roads. Each lady is requested to bring sandwiches for one. All other refreshments will be provided by the West Portland circle.

HENKLES OF CORBETT HAVE RETURNED TO WEST

The Outlook is in receipt of a communication from Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Henkle, former residents of the Corbett district, who left their home here for Kansas last June, intending to remain for some time. This letter is from North Yakima, Washington, where the family is now located. It says in part:

"For various reasons, we concluded to return west, buying our tickets for Portland but stopped here to visit some friends and found work so plentiful, decided to stay awhile.

This is surely a busy valley and no one need be idle if willing to do his share.

The winter here has been ideal, no rain all winter and until last week no wind. But for all this there is still one thing lacking, old friends and associates from Gresham and Springdale, and for that reason I am sending for your paper so I can keep in closer touch with them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Henkle were active members of Columbia grange, and hearty supporters of Multnomah county fair. They have been greatly missed in this part of the county.

YOUTHFUL PLAYMATES JOIN LIVES TOGETHER

E. L. Thorpe, of the Outlook force, and Mrs. Eva G. Crawford of Portland, were married at Vancouver on Wednesday. They will make their home in Gresham. Mr. Thorpe and Mrs. Crawford were youthful acquaintances 49 years ago when their parents lived near Coffin Rock, on the Lower Columbia. Although they had both been married before they saw each other frequently during the intervening years, and, having each been bereaved by death they drifted together again and their youthful affections were renewed, resulting in a closer relationship for life. Their wedding was somewhat of a surprise to all their friends, but both have been receiving numerous congratulations since the announcement of their marriage was made public.

Insomnia.

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less, and is often the cause of insomnia. Eat a light supper with little if any meat, and no milk; also take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper, and see if you do not rest much better. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv

The sophomore class of the high school was responsible for a very amusing innovation this morning, when they took charge of affairs for a half hour and carried out a burlesque. Each member of the faculty was impersonated by some member of the class. Glenn Rusher, president of the sophomores, taking the part of Principal Goodwin. They conducted chapel exercises and went through the formality of calling classes and hearing recitations. They wore the clothing of those whom they impersonated and got off some very amusing hits. This is sophomore day, and an elaborate reception will be held at the schoolhouse tonight, when the boys will entertain the girls in honor of the basketball team.

There are many books at the library that are proving of especial interest during the present world crisis. Some of these are, "The Rights of Man" published in 1901, by Lyman Abbott in which he voices many of the same thoughts contained in the President's recent message; "Poland of Today and Yesterday" by Sidney Whitman; and "Pan-Germanism" by Roland Usher.

Prof. Robert D. Leigh of Reed College will deliver a lecture at the library on Friday evening, April 13, on "Political Problems of Permanent Peace." The lecture will be free and all are invited to come and enjoy it. An Easter program will be given

A call has been issued by Geo. F. Honey, president of the Gresham Chautauqua association, for a meeting of all members to be held at the library on Monday evening, April 9, at 8 o'clock, to make plans for the Chautauqua to be held next June.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton have returned from southern California, where they spent the greater part of the winter. Matt Shano, who accompanied them, has also returned and was calling on friends here recently.

at the Baptist church next Sunday following the regular Sunday school session. The pastor, Rev. A. J. Ware, will hold an evangelistic service in the evening.

Mrs. Grace Radford, of Black Rock, will spend Easter Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hessel.

Guy Jones left today to join the sharpshooters. He expects to see service on the Mexican border.

Ray Humason has joined the national guard and left today for Portland.

LENTS POSTOFFICE IN CITY DELIVERY

Lents postoffice is being changed into a city delivery station. Arleta has already been made a station and all house numbers as well as the streets having been designated, both will enjoy free delivery.

Superintendent Moulton, of the Portland postoffice is making the transfers. Present postmasters will be given their same positions as superintendents of the two stations. The rural route out of Lents will be changed somewhat to conform to the new arrangements.

Special Easter Sunday SMITH'S THEATER

Mae Marsh	Lillian Gish	Henry Walthall
Blanche Sweet	Dorothy Gish	Robert Harron

A wonderful company of notable players in a remarkable six-act production, teeming with spectacular scenes of tremendous interest—a stupendous offering, in which one woman holds the safety of her nation more sacred than the life of a lover—the story of a good woman's supreme sacrifice.

She sinned but, in sinning, saved her people. No wonder her sin was forgiven.

Her Condoned Sin

Founded on "Judith of Bethulia"—a production indisputably the master work of a master mind.

This unusually gripping, appealing, thrilling production was made by
