GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley Beers on March 31.

Miss Elsie Metzger entertained Miss Esther Elford and Miss Emma Fuller last Sunday.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lenard died at the family home on last Sunday and was buried in the Gresham cemetery.

Rev. A. J. Ware will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. H. M. German has gone to Theford, Nebraska, to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. B. McCarthy for the summer. Luella McCarthy will accompany her.

Mill Metzger has resigned his position in Bert Metzger's grocery store and will devote the summer to improving two small farms he is owner of a few miles southeast of town.

Miss Carrie Bushong has been laid up for the past week with blood poisoning of a finger, due to a glass cut. Her place has been taken in the St. Clair home by Mrs. Nellie Cox of Hogan station.

E. A. Easley and family moved today to Pleasant Valley on the Wallace Miller place of 12 acres. Mr. Easley has offices in the Northwestern Bank building, where he will continue in the real estate business.

Mrs. E. A. Kesler underwent an operation at Emmanuel hospital last week Friday for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. The operation was performed by Dr. Horace P. Belknap, assisted by Dr. Wilbur Thompson.

The system of shade trees mentioned a week ago, being planted along the Base Line, has been continued from the Twelve Mile house toward Gresham. A double row has been set as far south as the railroad crossing on Main street.

A roving band of gypsies, camped at the gravel pit for several days, was told to "move on" by Constable Squire yesterday—and they moved. They had become a nuisance to the whole community, and, as undesirable citizens their room is preferable to their company.

An important meeting will be held at the library next Monday evening at 8 o'clock to consider the organization of a branch of the Red Cross society. Several Red Cross nurses will be present and explain the requirements. All women and girls are urged to be present.

The senior class of the high school is bending every effort to make the play, "A Rose O'Plymouth Town," one of the best ever staged in Gresham. Miss Mae Williamson of Portland is directing the work. The date will be Friday evening, April 29, and the place Regner's opera house.

A change has been made in the subject of the lecture to be given at the library this evening. Prof. Robert D. Leigh has decided to talk on "Why we are at War." Professor Leigh is from the department of politics of Reed college. He will also discuss plans for permanent peace. The lecture will be free. All should hear it.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger entertained their children and their twelve grandchildren last Tuesday, the event being a double celebration in honor of their son Frank's birthday and their own fortieth wedding anniversary, which was on last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Metzger spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Witter, it being the latter's birthday.

Next Sunday will be patriotic day at the Methodist Episcopal church. The subject for the morning sermon by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Brackenbury, will be "Is the Call of the Country the Call of the Church?" In the evening a platform meeting will be held, the general subject being "Our Flag." Several speakers will take part. Special music at both services.

PROF. HELEN BROOK AT PARENT-TEACHER CIRCLE

Prof. Helen Brook of the department of home economics of Oregon Agricultural College, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Gresham Parent-Teachers' circle, which will meet at the grade school-house on Wednesday afternoon, Apr. 18, at 2:30 p. m. Several musical numbers will be rendered, including a piano solo by Mrs. Jas. Sterling, a vocal solo by Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth and a duet by Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury and Mrs. Myrtle Meyers. Following the program a social hour will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served.

An effort is being made to extend the invitation to all interested in school matters in Gresham and surrounding districts, as Professor Brook is known to be a most interesting and instructive speaker. Her subject cannot be announced at this time.

Livestock Announcement

For the past two years I have been buying and shipping Livestock, on foot, from the Estacada stockyards, and at the solicitation of a number of interested livestock growers I have decided to enlarge my field to include the territory tributary to Boring, which will include Damuscus, Sandy, Pleasant Home, and adjacent communities.

There is no industry today that is more in need of development than that of Livestock, and there is no better means of development than the shipping alive of both hogs and cattle, thus eliminating the disagreeable task of butchering on the farm. After two years of trial, less than 5 per cent of the farmers in the Estacada district would be willing to return to "butchering at home" method.

I hope in the very near future to secure the establishment at Boring, by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Co., of a pen and chute, but until this is established I will make temporary arrangements for handling both hogs and cattle, and for a time will probably ship part cars from Estacada or Eagle Creek, to finish loading at Boring.

My policy is honest weights, market prices and a square deal for all.

If you have anything to offer communicate with me at Estacada or with Mr. E. L. Thompson, agent P. R. L. & P. Co., at Boring either by phone or by letter stating what you have and your name and address and at regular intervals I will call at your farm and make you an offer. Listing with either myself or Mr. Thompson does not obligate you to sell unless my prices are satisfactory. All I ask is a trial.

Yours for more LIVESTOCK,

Insomnia.

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less, and is often the cause of insomnia. Eat a light supper with little if any meat, and no milk; also take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper, and see if you do not rest much better. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv

Mrs. S. R. Bradfield entertained Miss Nellie Faris and Miss Emma Johnson at dinner last evening.

Last Sunday's services at the Methodist Episcopal church were of an unusually interesting character and good congregations filled the house both morning and evening. The programs were carried out as announced in last Friday's Outlook. The patriotic appeal of the pastor and the special musical numbers were greatly appreciated by all who heard them.

"If you begin saving when you are young, you will never know Want when you are old. Always remember that."

The Portland Chamber of Commerce is giving publicity to a telegram received from Governor Withycombe which everyone should read and act upon. It reads as follows:

"At this time, when the mobilization of all the resources of our country is the paramount national problem, it is the patriotic duty of all of us to co-operate in every possible way.

It seems to me Oregon's great opportunity lies in the organized encouragement and development of agricultural production. With this in view, I suggest that the Portland Chamber of Commerce take the lead in organizing the commercial bodies of the state in an Oregon League of Agricultural Preparedness, whose objects shall be the maximum production of staple crops chiefly useful in feeding the nation and protecting our citizenship from the hardships of increased living cost. Every community should be organized so that its vacant lots and unused fields so far as possible shall be placed under cultivation. An especially important work can be done with school children. Each one should become a volunteer patriotic farmer this summer. Organized purchase of seed would cut cost and should make possible free distribution to those who cannot afford this initial investment. I respectfully suggest this general plan for your consideration, believing it good economics and soundly patriotic."

Ways and means of carrying out these suggestions will be discussed and plans adopted at the rally at the library Saturday night. Everyone is invited.
