MELROSE AND VICTORY.

The program and basket social given by the Searchers' class will be held at the schoolhouse Saturday evening, May 12. The program will start at 8 o'clock or as soon as possible afterwards. Following the program the baskets will be sold at auction to the highest bidder but will not be held for exorbitant prices as all the class desires is a reasonable price for each basket but bidding seems to be the most fun. Ladies not desiring to take baskets are requested to bring cakes. The following program will be rendered:

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles entertained a number of guests at their home week before last but owing to the garden making of the reporter, as well as the fact that people are a little slow or else too busy to phone in the items, the following were neglected until too late for publication last week.

Mr. Hoffstetter, who owns a portion of the farm formerly owned by Mr. Cochran, has rented it to Mr. Schnell, who runs a dairy. Mr. Hoffstetter is a cousin of Mrs. A. B. Conrad and lives near Salem.

A very good attendance at Sunday school and church last Sunday but a good many stayed at home for various reasons. The most popular reason at present is the weather but only two more Sundays and seven Sundays will be up and a change is due.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stafford and son visited Mrs. Edith Gundlac in Portland Sunday. During their absences Slim, Chet and Jack Stafford and Mr. Richardson and daughter Audrey were callers at their home.

Miss Anna Hoecker is working for Mrs. John Streblin.

HURLBURT

Mr. Burrows is farming the Perkins place.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Sumpter, a 12 1/2 pound boy.

A farewell party was given to Miss Luella Paulson at the high school. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Two small boys living near Bridal Veil became frightened at a covered wagon and ran down to the railroad track and in their fright forgot which way they came. In trying to go home they went down the track instead of up. They came down as far as Corbett, where they were stopped by some people who thought they were running away. Mr. Pounder, the deputy sheriff of this neighborhood, was called. Mr. Pounder succeeded in finding where they lived. They then called their parents and told them where they were. Their father walked from Bridal Veil up to Corbett Heights where Mr. Pounder met him and took them all back home.

Morris Johnson's family are staying out on the old Johnson place while Morris is putting in the crops.

Some of Miss Burke's friends of Gresham and Cecil and Beth Pounder of this neighborhood spent Tuesday evening with Miss Burke.

CLEAR LAND

WITH Red Cross Explosives

The upper view shows how groups of big stumps are blasted out clean at one time, with all dirt off the roots and stumps shattered into kindling wood. At the same time the subsoil is thoroughly broken up, creating a fine home for the new crop. Lower view shows a celery crop worth $800 per acre ten months after stumps were blasted out.

To learn how progressive farmers are using dynamite for removing stumps and boulders, planting and cultivating fruit trees, regenerating barren soil, ditching, draining, excavating, and road-making.
