GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Ross Heiney has been visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mrs. E. Lane of Manzanita visited several days this week with Mrs. F. W. Fieldhouse and other friends. D. M. Cathey will go to Hillsboro tomorrow, as delegate to the annual conference from the Free Methodist church of Gresham.

There are regular drills of the Gresham Home Guard every Monday and Friday evening. Last Sunday two squads of 16 men made a six-mile hike to the Base Line and back by another road. Mayor Stapleton was one of the hikers.

A meeting of the Gresham Chautauqua association will be held at the library tomorrow evening, Wednesday, March 9. Glen J. McCaddam, representing the Ellison-White Chautauqua system will be present, and everyone interested is urged to be there.

Guy Jones of Company B. is still in quarantine at Camp Withycombe. Guy was one of four from among the new recruits who were advanced to the first class privates. He is now Captain West's orderly. The position carries with it exemption from guard duty and detail work.

A mothers' meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Metzger on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, which will be of special interest, as work will be commenced on the "house wives" for our soldiers. The women will also be told of other work to be done for the boys. All women are urged to attend.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a food sale in the vacant store next to Cannon's dry goods store, next Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. The cakes and cookies entered by the school girls for prizes can also be bought. The prize for the best cake will be $2 and second prize 75 cents, instead of 75 and 50 cents as announced in a previous Outlook. Come and help a worthy cause. It takes money to make and fill the "house wives" and "comfort bags" for our soldiers and sailors.

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. G. W. Stapleton on Wednesday afternoon of this week. This is the occasion of the annual mite box opening and all women are asked to bring their mite boxes. The lesson will be on Porto Rico, our new possession. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Brackenbury, Mrs. Clananah and Miss Adella Towle. Mrs. Jas. Elkington, Mrs. W. R. Burke and Mrs. J. Cannon will assist the hostess. Automobiles will be at the church at 2:30 to take those who have no other transportation.

OBITUARY NOTICE OF D. L. JACKSON

D. L. Jackson died at his home near Cottrell, April 30, 1917, aged 65 years. Death was due to pneumonia, his illness lasting but nine days. Besides his widow, he leaves two married daughters, Mrs. Neva Kezer, Elsworth, Wisconsin and Mrs. Sarah Hellman, Webster, Wisconsin, and a brother, B. S. Jackson, Nashville, Tennessee, who is the only remaining member of his family. Other members of Mr. Jackson's immediate household are his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. L. Jaynes and his sister-in-law, Miss Nettie Jaynes.

Mr. Jackson was born in Belvidere, Illinois, February 23, 1852, where he grew to manhood. Later he moved to Grantsburg, Wisconsin, where he lived for a number of years. At the latter place he was town assessor for ten years. He was known as a man faithful in the performance of his duties, and was liked by his associates.

The funeral services were conducted from his late home, by Rev. F. S. Pitts, on May 2. The interment was in Douglas cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the sympathetic help given us during the sickness and death of D. L. Jackson, for the beautiful flowers and for the use of automobiles.

Mrs. D. L. Jackson, Mrs. M. L. Jayne, Nettie Jayne, Ellen Crawford.

A YOUNG MAN'S STORE

This is essentially a young man's store.

This is a store that thinks with and lives with and serves young men.

This is a store that never seeks to sell a middle-of-the-road style to a young man in search of a truly youthful model.

This is a store that never goes after the valued trade of young men in any half-hearted way. There's no limit to the size, pattern or fabric range in our showing of young men's suits and overcoats.

Here you will find those models which show the genius of this country's leading designer of garments for Young America.

Here are the far-famed

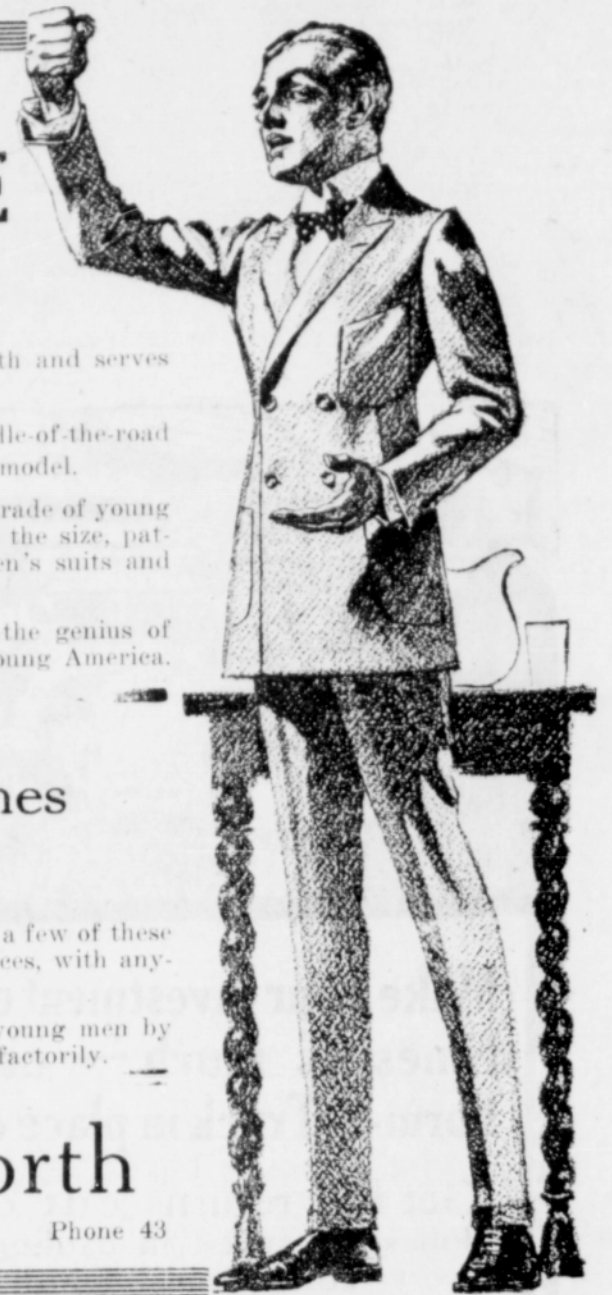

Kuppenheimer Clothes
At $15 $20 $25

Mark these prices well. Come here and try on a few of these suits. Compare them, stitch by stitch, at these prices, with anything offered heretofore at a third more.

This store seeks the undivided patronage of young men by giving its undivided attention to serving them satisfactorily.

PLEASANT HOME

Frank Bergstrom, of Portland, was a visitor Friday and a part of Saturday at the P. A. Staffenson home. He and Joe Staffenson left Monday evening for North Yakima, where they will remain all summer working on a large cannery building there.

The basket social by the Pleasant Home baseball boys has been postponed.

Maurice Milsted, of Oregon City, is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Jack Milsted of the Marion corps, who has served his four years, is visiting with relatives. He expects to return for the duration of the war.

The Sunshine club will meet with Miss Ruth Iekler, May 14.

Miss Laura Jackway, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Iekler and family Sunday.

Miss Nellie McCreary was a Portland caller Friday.

John Iekler visited H. D. McCreary Sunday.

H. C. Wihlon, Ruth Iekler and Maurice Milsted visited with Mr. and Mrs. P. Caddy and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. D. M. McLaughlin is out on her farm for the summer.

A. P. Hale is doing Mrs. McLaughlin's farming.

Mrs. Albert Bankus went to Portland Sunday to see her son, Elmer, who has joined the navy and was about to leave for San Francisco for training.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bankus of Camas, Washington, motored out to Pleasant Home to see the former's parents. Albert is superintendent at the Crown paper mills, at Camas.

Martin Lennartz came home from Brightwood to spend Sunday with his family.

The patriotic meeting last Saturday night was a great success. Dr. McKenzie and Mr. Brown of Portland represented the Red Cross organization and gave interesting addresses. More than $11 were raised for the work.

Rheumatism.

If you are troubled with chronic or muscular rheumatism give Chamberlain's Liniment a trial. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Whooping Cough.

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClinton, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes, "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." Obtainable everywhere.—Ad.
