GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

State Superintendent J. A. Churchill of Salem, with County Superintendent W. C. Alderson were Gresham visitors today, visiting the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Bee are preparing to move to Astoria, where Mr. Bee has the appointment as assistant city engineer, and where they will make their home.

Latourell & Son are putting in a distillate pump at their garage. This is the first one of its kind east of Portland and will be a great convenience to motorists who are using distillate instead of gasoline.

Mrs. Will Hessel and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse were joint hostesses at a 500 party given one afternoon last week, when six tables were played. Yellow was the predominant color in the decorations and in the luncheon.

Miss Ethel Calkins, principal of the Lynch school, was given a surprise party at her home last Wednesday evening by Miss Margaret Schanlin, primary teacher, and the pupils of the school. A delightful evening is reported.

Herbert Baslee, one of the "Roll of Honor" boys, made Gresham a brief visit yesterday, probably for the last time in several years. He is in the aviation corps at Vancouver but is expecting to be sent to one of the training camps in a few days, either at Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Pensacola, Fla., or Honolulu.

There will be a musical recital at Metzger's hall next Friday evening, May 18, by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart B. Chase of Portland. This will be a rare entertainment by competent musicians with the low price of 25 and 15 cents for admission. There will be a surprise treat for all children after the entertainment is over.

Bible school at the Gresham Baptist church next Sunday at 10 a. m. Mrs. Wostell, superintendent. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Ware, at 11. Mother's Day. The Aldridge quartette of Oregon City will help to make the day complete. Afternoon service at 2:30—a song and praise service. Let all plan to enjoy the day. The pastor will preach at Pleasant Home at 7:45 p. m.

At the meeting of the Chautauqua association last Wednesday night G. W. Wonnacott was elected chairman of the advertising committee. K. A. Miller was appointed head of ticket sale committee and Roy Kern of the committee on grounds. Other members of the committee will be announced later. A large amount of advertising matter is on hand and will be placed to the best advantage at once.

Rev. J. H. Palmer of the Portland Y. M. C. A. will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning and present the cause of the work of the Y. M. C. A. among the soldiers. Music will be furnished by a male quartet and a mixed quartet. The evening service will be in the interest of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden of Portland will be the speaker. A union choir will lead the singing and special numbers will be rendered by a male quartet and by Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury and Mrs. Myrtle Myers.

Mrs. M. Elford of Byron, Minnesota has been visiting for several days with old friends in Gresham. She was the guest of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman and Miss Esther Elford. On Saturday she called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Honey and was the dinner guest of Mrs. C. M. Oliphant on Saturday evening. Other guests were Mrs. Zimmerman and little daughter, Beth, and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair. On Sunday Mrs. Elford and Miss Esther Elford took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair. Mrs. Elford is a wonderful example of well preserved womanhood. She is the mother of twelve children, eight of whom are still living, and raised two children besides. Although nearly 80 years of age, she makes frequent trips from her home in Minnesota to visit with children in the west and in Canada.

A YOUNG MAN'S STORE

This is essentially a young man's store.

This is a store that thinks with and lives with and serves young men.

This is a store that never seeks to sell a middle-of-the-road style to a young man in search of a truly youthful model.

This is a store that never goes after the valued trade of young men in any half-hearted way. There's no limit to the size, pattern or fabric range in our showing of young men's suits and overcoats.

Here you will find those models which show the genius of this country's leading designer of garments for Young America.

Here are the far-famed

Kuppenheimer Clothes
At $15 $20 $25

Mark these prices well. Come here and try on a few of these suits. Compare them, stitch by stitch, at these prices, with anything offered heretofore at a third more.

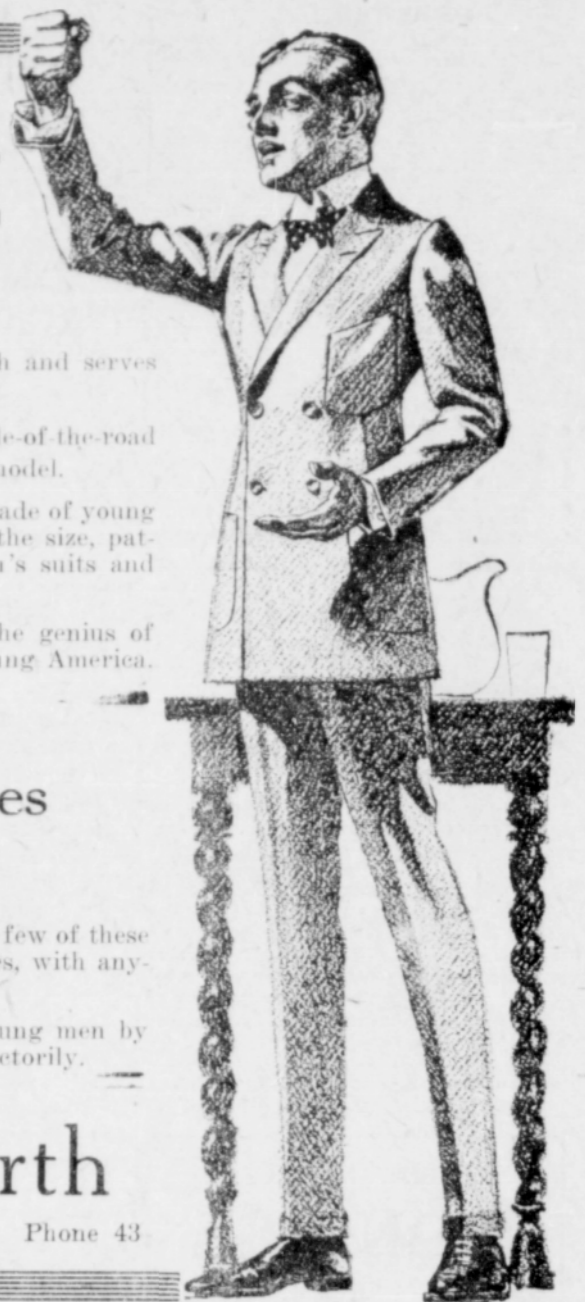

This store seeks the undivided patronage of young men by giving its undivided attention to serving them satisfactorily.

High temperatures and a saline solution are the essential features of a New York inventor's process for permanently waving women's hair. The cuckoo is a fine bird which sings as it flies, especially when pursued by angry little birds whose nest it has attempted to invade.

Rheumatism.

If you are troubled with chronic or muscular rheumatism give Chamberlain's Liniment a trial. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
