Whooping Cough.

One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClinton, Blandon Springs, Ala., writes, "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." Obtainable everywhere.—Ad.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

The pastor of the Gresham Baptist church, Rev. A. J. Ware, will spend Sunday, May 27, at Wilbur, Oregon, where he will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Wilbur high school.

There will be no services at the Gresham Baptist church next Sunday on account of the union services at the Methodist church. Rev. E. A. Leonard will preach at the Pleasant Home church Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

A special meeting of all companies of the Gresham Volunteer Fire department will be held Saturday night at the fire hall. Important business will be presented and all members are urged to be present. By order of Chief Jones.

Miss Emma Johnson has just received the graduation announcement of her nephew, Ivan Winsor, of Miles City, Montana. There are 21 to graduate from the high school. Mr. and Mrs. Winsor and son, Ivan, visited Miss Johnson in Gresham about two years ago.

Subscriptions to the Y. M. C. A. army work fund from Gresham now amount to $68. In that respect Gresham stands well to the front for a town of its size. Total subscriptions up to yesterday noon from the entire state footed up $49,152.

D. M. Roberts has received word from his son Kenneth, who has been working for some time at Spokane, that he expects to be at home in a day or two, to take the examination for the engineers' corps, which is being recruited in the northwest. It is expected that Emory Roberts will also join the engineers' corps.

Plans are being made by members of the high school alumni association to hold a banquet about June 29. This banquet is not held in connection with commencement week, for the reason that so many of the graduates are teaching, and would not be relieved from their school duties until early in June.

"Patria, the last of the Fighting Channings," is a remarkable serial now running at Smith's theater every Monday and Tuesday evening. It is one of the thrillers that is sure to bring out the lovers of good photo-plays. The theater was packed at the performances this week and the entire run promises to be phenomenal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Emery received a message yesterday announcing the birth of their first grandchild, a fine, eight-and-a-half pound girl, born to Dr. and Mrs. Mark W. Emery, at their home at Union, Oregon, on May 24. The baby is already named and will be known as Jean Margaret. Miss Ruby Emery is nursing the mother and child, who are both doing well.

Nineteen members of the Boy Scout organization from Gresham went to Portland last night, where they were the guests of the Portland Ad club at the Baker Theater to see "Charley's Aunt." In response to Scout Master George F. Honey's request for automobiles, a number were offered. The cars used were those of Benj. Cameron, M. M. Squire, W. F. and Geo. F. Honey, W. W. Cotton, president of the Portland council of Boy Scouts, made a short address.

The Methodist parsonage was crowded yesterday afternoon with friends of Miss Florence Fieldhouse, who met to honor her and bring tokens of their esteem and best wishes. The affair was informal and was under the management of Mrs. Myrtle Myers, Miss Esther Elford and Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury. A large number of gifts were left for the bride elect, which included linen, china, aluminum and other articles of household use. The house was decorated with purple lilacs and refreshments of tea and wafers were served.

On account of there having been no community center contest in Gresham on last Friday night there was no member from this school to be selected for a place on the general program as published. The items on the above program were selected from the community program as given previously on the evening of May 18.

It is especially urged that the pupils from Gresham district plan to attend this program of the closing exercises of the schools of the county.

There will be a picture taken of all the eighth grade pupils in the county. There are 21 graduates from Gresham and all should be present.

The cithern, a musical instrument resembling the guitar, mentioned in I Maccabees IV, 54, employed by the Chaldeans, was probably introduced into Palestine by the Hebrews after their return from the Babylonian captivity.
