GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Ida Klum, of LaGrande, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Ryan.

Preaching service will be held at the Gresham Baptist church next Sunday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. Rev. A. J. Ware, the pastor, will preach.

The Portland Railway Light & Power company has granted a 25-cent round trip fare between Gresham and Portland during the Chautauqua, which may be purchased at either end of the trip.

The children's day exercises, which were previously announced for next Sunday morning at the Methodist Episcopal church, have been postponed until the evening of that day. They will begin at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

Several from Gresham and vicinity attended the funeral of Clarence E. Gilliland in Portland yesterday. He was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gilliland and leaves a widow. His age was 29. He was a member of the harbor patrol, having served as engineer on the patrol boat for several years.

Regner & Fields, county agents for the Chevrolet automobile, have recently sold a number of those popular machines in this vicinity. Among the buyers are Charles Powell, Mrs. C. E. Fritz and three residents of Pleasant Valley, Messrs. Stradley, Schmidt and Coulter. The Chevrolet is winning its way to popularity.

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Jas. Sterling on Monday afternoon, June 4, when the annual election of officers will be held. The date was advanced to the 4th on account of the Chautauqua session. All members and friends are urged to be present. Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury and Mrs. Will Ott will assist in serving.

W. T. Hartley, who has been spending the winter in Walla Walla, Washington, has returned to Gresham and, together with his daughter, Mrs. Stella Stockdale, has taken rooms at Mrs. B. W. Emery's. They will probably remain here for several weeks. Mrs. Stockdale is the twin sister of Mrs. S. S. Thompson.

Harold Kern received word on Wednesday to report to the Presidio, in San Francisco, this morning. He made all haste to go, and it is supposed that he reached his destination in due time. From there the Engineers' Corps, to which he belongs, will proceed to American Lake, Washington. Roy Kern, who was visiting at Beaverton, was summoned back Wednesday to resume his work on the mail route.

The class day exercises held in the auditorium of the high school last night were well attended and carried out as announced in the last Outlook. The members of the class, clad in caps and gowns, occupied the platform. The figures 1917 were arranged in a white floral design against a background of evergreen just back of the platform. The parts taken by the seniors were well carried out, features of special interest being the presentation of the class picture and the class staff.

FIREMEN REGRET WHEN FIRE CHIEF RESIGNS

GRESHAM, May 31. Editor Outlook:—At a special meeting of the Gresham Volunteer Fire department held May 26, 1917, E. T. Jones tendered his resignation as chief and as a member of that organization, he having been called to serve our country as a draftsman. As much as we dislike to see him leave the department we wish him all the success that is possible for one person to receive.

He has been one of the most active members of the department and has done a great deal for the town in the way of fire protection. Many residents do not know this and have berated him for some things that have been done or have not been done. What would they have done under similar circumstances?

L. G. Merrill was elected, by the secretary casting an unanimous ballot by the usual method of procedure. We stand back of our new chief and hope the citizens will give their hearty support to him and to the Gresham Volunteer Fire Department. HARRY JOHNSON, Secretary.

Watch the big Chautauqua clock in the window of the Bank of Gresham. It will register the sale of season tickets up to noon Wednesday, June 6. Keep the hand moving. Everybody work for the 400 season tickets before opening afternoon, Wednesday, when season tickets will jump to $3.00.

Tag day, Monday. A ticket in your pocket and a red badge on your coat will pass you through.

Chautauqua Brings Strong Staff of Lecturers

LORENE W. WILSON.

WOOD BRIGGS.

W. A. BONE.

W. L. MELLINGER.

AMONG the notables coming to Chautauqua this year are: Mrs. Lorene Wiswell Wilson, noted civic leader of the Federated Women's Clubs of America, in her great lecture,

"The Adventure of Being Human."

Wood Briggs, Kentucky's wittiest son since the glorious days of Bob Taylor and W. A. Bone, the famous poet-philosopher and humorist of Illinois.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED TUESDAY EVE

A pretty wedding of the week took place on Tuesday evening, when Myrtle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Elwood of 1396 Rodney avenue, Portland, became the bride of Lionel G. Buckley. The wedding was solemnized at the country place of the bride's parents, at Elwood station. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Miller of the Piedmont parish.

After the wedding a reception was held at which one hundred friends of the bride and groom were present. The decorations were flowers and palms. An orchestra from Portland played appropriate airs throughout the evening.

The bride was dressed in white satin with veil. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Rose Elwood, her sister bridesmaid wore lavender satin with a chiffon overdress. She carried lavender sweet peas.

To Fred Miller fell the honor of cutting the bride's cake. Numerous presents were given and many were the congratulations and well wishes when the happy couple left for a wedding trip to Seaside. Upon their return they will occupy their new home on the Section Line road near Buckley avenue.

AGED GRESHAM MAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Ephriam Dewey is celebrating his 87th birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Ryan, in Gresham today. "Grandpa" Dewey is a familiar figure on the streets of Gresham, and although he generally walks with a cane, his movements are always sprightly.

Mr. Dewey was born in Indiana and was married in the same state in 1853 to Polly Ann Martin. She died in 1902 in Galesville, Oregon. Five of the eleven children born to Mr. and Mrs. Dewey are living, all of them in Oregon. They are Mrs. Ryan of Gresham, E. D. Dewey and Mrs. Annie Penney of Portland, James Dewey of Glendale and Mrs. Ida Klum of LaGrande. E. D. Dewey is in the mailing department of the Morning Oregonian. The family is related to the late Admiral Dewey.

REGISTRATION BOOTHS AT POLLING PLACES

All the polling places in Multnomah county, where the elections will be held on Monday next, have been designated as the places for registration on the day following. All the chairmen of the different precincts have been selected as registrars, but in most cases have chosen others than the clerks and judges of election for registration purposes. In case the count of ballots is not finished by the hour for registration to begin the two boards will work side by side without conflict as their work is totally dissimilar.
