

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller entertained on Sunday the latter's father, Dr. C. E. Cline of Portland.

Mrs. W. J. Hollenbeck and children and Miss Isabel Metzger left last Saturday for Burley, Idaho, after a visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas Lawrence, accompanied by Conrad and Delbert Metzger and Lawrence Aylsworth, have gone to Manzanita beach for a brief stay.

Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. Geo. Kenney were joint hostesses Friday afternoon at a 500 card party at the home of the former. Five tables were played.

Mrs. D. Wright spent Monday in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Callaghan. The latter's son, Eugene, recently scored 99 1/2 in a eugenics test.

Mr. Whitehead, of Portland, who planted Whitehead addition in Gresham and who owns considerable property here, has bought the E. E. Darling place.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the library on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 to sew for the soldiers. All are invited to attend.

A picnic lunch was given in honor of Miss Mary Dooze, of Iowa, by Dr. and Mrs. Inglis at the Oaks last Friday evening. A very enjoyable time was had by those present.

Dr. J. W. Thom and family of Silver Lake, Oregon, are visiting his father, William Thom and family. They will remain until after the medical convention in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen, of Portland, visited Friday evening and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern and other relatives. Mrs. Hansen is a niece of Mrs. Kern.

Mrs. J. J. Cunningham of Dorr, Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Beers of Gresham, underwent a serious operation last week at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland and is slowly improving.

The young people of Rockwood are planning a social dance, which will be given at the grange hall next Saturday evening, June 30. The best of music and floor management have been provided and a good time is assured.

Mr. Mark Matthiesson, Mr. Chas. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Mauer, of Portland, and Miss Mary Dooze of Monticello, Iowa, were guests at the home of Dr. Inglis on Sunday. All were former residents of Monticello, the former home of Dr. Inglis.

The Pacific Indians' shoot is scheduled for July 22-25 at Everding club grounds, Jenne station. The tournament will embrace California, Oregon, Nevada and Utah, but there will be many visitors from all over the coast and some from elsewhere.

Mrs. R. K. Akin entertained at dinner last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Elsie Metzger, bride elect. The guests were Miss Metzger, Oren Milleson, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Jones. The house was tastefully decorated in yellow and red roses.

Fred Hershaw was brought to town on Friday last by Constable Squire and was sent to Portland by Justice Rollins to be examined as to his sanity. He was sent to the asylum the next day so violently insane that he had to be confined in a straight jacket.

Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Neal entertained at dinner on Sunday the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. N. L. Huxley, of Portland and her son, Corporal M. H. Huxley of Company B, from Camp Withycomb, O. E. Milleson of Oberlin, Kansas and Miss Elsie Metzger.

Harold Elliott, who drives a Buick, with the number 13681 was surprised to find the number 3215 on the rear of his car this morning. The latter number belongs to a Dodge car owned by J. W. Lawrence of Portland. The sheriff's office was notified by Constable Squire.

Mrs. Christine Humason, Mrs. Clara Kane and Mrs. Maggie Ryan left this morning for Forest Grove to attend the state encampment of the Women's Relief Corps which is in annual session. Mrs. Humason is the delegate from Gresham. They will all return home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts went last week to Welches for a stay of several weeks. Mr. Roberts and his son Ed. came down this morning on business, making the 32-mile trip in two hours, which shows that the mountain roads are beginning to open up. Mrs. Jennie Welch and others climbed to the top of Huckleberry mountain yesterday and found three feet of snow.

Bowel Complaints in India. In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in this country. Obtainable everywhere.

The annual election of officers for the Alumni association of Union High school No. 2, took place Saturday evening at the schoolhouse and resulted in Floyd Metzger, '13, being elected president; Mabel Shipley, '15, first vice president; Roy Gibbs, '16, second vice president; Mrs. Gladys Clananhan, '12, secretary; Chase E. St. Clair, '15, treasurer; Hester Thorpe, '16, poet; Mary Hansen, '10, historian; Cleveland Bliss, '13, sergeant-at-arms. The treasurer's report was read, also the report of the treasurer for money received and disbursed in connection with the banquet, which was a success financially and socially.

Otto Magnuson has traded his old auto for Dr. Bittner's Reo and will start next Thursday with his wife for Sedgwick, S. D., where they will make their home on a farm.

Miss Emma Fuller left yesterday for Lansing, Michigan, where she will wed Carl Gundrum, formerly of this place.

SIX HUNDRED MILES TO SET ROAD MARKERS

Charles Latourell and George Chambers, secretary of the Automobile club, will start next Saturday on a 600-mile trip through central and southern Oregon for the purpose of setting 200 road markers by which motorists may find their way.

They will go from here to The Dalles and arrive in Bend for a 4th of July celebration. From there they will go to Klamath Falls, over the California line and back to Grant's Pass. Mr. Latourell and Mr. Chambers will do the work free, besides which Mr. Latourell will furnish a Cadillac eight for the trip.

Gertrude Ickler is helping her cousin, Mrs. Arthur Witter, for a few days with housework.

The picnic party that went to Sandy Bluff Sunday enjoyed a fine time. The young folks spent their time in boat riding on the Sandy river.
