

CITY GAS FOR HEATING HOMES

Newly Invented GASCO, JR., HOUSE HEATING FURNACE---Designed by Us Especially for the Average Portland and Suburban home

FIRST COST WITHIN REACH OF ALL EASY TERMS GIVEN WHEN DESIRED

This installation will solve your fuel problem and insure you against the constantly rising prices and scarcity of solid fuels.

Fuel costs, at our special rate of 50c per thousand cubic feet, only slightly more than solid fuels, offset, however, by the many conveniences.

The heat is uniform and the room temperatures are always under perfect control. The furnace is thermostatically controlled, thus insuring even temperatures and a saving in fuel.

The clock installed with the thermostat will automatically start the furnace at any predetermined hour.

A limitless supply of fuel is always at hand and is paid for only as used. No dirt, soot or ashes in rooms or basement. No manual labor in making or maintaining fire.

If You wish to be Free from the Usual Discomforts Attendant to House Heating, Install this Furnace Now.

CALL AT OUR SALESROOM AND SEE THE FURNACE IN OPERATION, OR PHONE MAIN 6500 OR A-6274 AND ONE OF OUR SALESMEN WILL CALL, OR CALL ON OUR LOCAL AGENT L. L. KIDDER FOR PARTICULARS.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

B. L. Walrad and wife left yesterday for Seattle and other Sound cities for a week's vacation.

Miss Laura Anderson of Aberdeen, Wash., has been visiting friends here and in Portland the past week.

The Misses Laura, Florence and Clara McNeil, former residents, visited at W. R. Johnson's Monday.

Mrs. Carl Dahl and children have returned from Grass Valley, where they have been visiting for several weeks with Mrs. Dahl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, formerly of this place.

Lee Merrill and Bert, Hoss, who have been in San Francisco, are returning home and may be expected here tomorrow. Lee has been promised a lieutenant's commission. He will be at the head of a machine shop.

Glen McCormick, who has been working in The Dalles cannery for the past month, came home Sunday for a week's visit with his parents. He expects to return to The Dalles and work there until high school starts.

Claude Case, a former Greshamite, who has been living at Port Angeles, Wash., for the past two years, was visiting old friends in Gresham and vicinity last week. He was accompanied by Guy Hoff, also of Port Angeles.

John Bliss and family had a close call on Sunday while motoring beyond the Sandy on their way to Mt. Hood. Their machine began to back track on a steep hill and all that saved them from going over a cliff was a friendly stump. The machine lost its headway when an attempt was made to change from high to low in going up the hill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and daughter Margaret took a week-end trip to Seaside, where they spent a part of the day Sunday with Leslie St. Clair, who came from Ft. Stevens for the visit. The trip down was made by boat Saturday night as far as Astoria and the remainder of the way was by auto stage. The return was by train from Seaside.

Eldridge McCulloch, a member of the Union High school, has enlisted in the 44th Infantry regiment of the regular army, and is in training at Vancouver. He has been in the service for two months, but his relatives and friends here are just finding it out. Eldridge is a son of J. W. McCulloch and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCulloch.

A birthday dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Vesta Raney last night in honor of her son-in-law, H. M. Boehmer. Besides Mrs. Raney and Mr. and Mrs. Boehmer, there were present Mr. and Mrs. Ben Raney and daughter Orel, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dean of Sycamore, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mewhirter, Lyle Mason and Miss Freda Wycoff.

Word has been received here that Ernest Thom has won his lieutenant's commission. He has also been granted a two-week's furlough and will spend it here with his wife visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thom and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch. Mrs. Thom has been living near the Presidio during her husband's stay there.

Aaron Knighton was in Gresham today looking after his property. Mr. Knighton has been employed for the past few months with a large logging company at Big Creek near Astoria, and comes home occasionally to spend a few days with his family. Mrs. Knighton and Mildred are with the former's mother in Lents.

Wendell Cleveland has been seriously ill for the past ten days at his home, where he has had the attention of two physicians and a trained nurse. He is suffering from an infected knee, which has been opened, and his condition is somewhat improved. Miss Ruby Emery is the nurse.

A. S. Newcomb and wife of Mondake, Montana, have returned to their home after a visit with the Honey and Towle families. While here they enjoyed trips to Mt. Hood and to the beach. Mr. Newcomb is cashier of the First National Bank of Mondake.

Mrs. Geo. F. Honey had as her guest last week, her brother, E. N. E. Drake of Tacoma, Washington.

Miss Mabel Burch has returned from a two-weeks' visit at Astoria and Seaside. While there Miss Burch visited Fort Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kenney went on Friday to Seaside, where they will spend a month at their cottage, enjoying the cool sea breeze.

W. F. Honey and George Towle returned recently from a business trip to Vancouver and New Westminster, B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Towle and daughter Ellen have now gone to Seattle for a visit with a daughter of the family.

C. J. Lundquist is again in his place at the First State Bank after a vacation spent at Seaside. He was accompanied by his wife and son.

Mrs. H. E. R. Johnson of Boise, Idaho, and Mrs. S. F. Block, of Chicago, mother and sister of W. R. Johnson are here on a visit.

Miss Helen Wilson of Aberdeen, Wash., who has been visiting with Miss Kathryn Honey, returned to her home on Sunday evening.

Notice of Meeting of County Board of Equalization.
Notice is hereby given that on Monday, September 10, 1917, the Board of Equalization of Multnomah county will attend at the office of the County Assessor, at the Court House in Portland, and publicly examine the assessment rolls for the year 1917, and correct all errors in valuation, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property, assessed by the county assessor. And it shall be the duty of persons interested to appear at the time and place appointed. If it shall appear to such Board of Equalization that there are any lands or lots or other property assessed twice, or incorrectly assessed as to description or quantity, and in the name of a person or persons not the owner thereof, or assessed under or beyond the actual cash value thereof, said Board may make proper correction of the same. If it shall appear to such Board that any land, lots or other property assessable by the assessor are not assessed, such Board shall assess the same at the full cash value thereof.
HENRY E. REED,
County Assessor.
