TAKE THINGS EASY.

No, this isn't the worst ever. You lived through longer and hotter warm weather spells several times if you are over twenty years old. Don't you remember them—with death and suicides, and all the mills shut down "back east." No, sirree, this is not the hottest and driest summer you ever lived through—if you are over twenty.

But what if it were the hottest—What are you going to do about it? This is just the sort of thing that makes the American what he is, a wondrously adaptable creature, passing a large part of every year in resisting intense cold, and a large part of the rest of the year in enduring withering heat. Resistance and endurance, year in and year out—what a wonderful training for flexibility and versatility—and for steadfast holding to duty, too. So the thing to do is to accept it all as a part of the scheme that gives the American his characteristic equipment for survival in the stern business of life.

And if you don't feel like thinking about highbrow things like that in hot weather, just take it easy, anyway. You can't change it. Congress doesn't suit you? Well, what's the use in getting hot under the collar? You can't change that, either, and it doesn't do a bit of good to vex yourself and get your brain into a turmoil under this pelting sun. It is a pretty critical moment over the water. Read about it by all means, but don't worry. Truth and righteousness aren't going to be beaten by lies and wrong. Just keep right on with your war work, and don't fret about things you can't change or influence in the least by fretting.

Keep reasonably busy—that is the idea. The man with something to occupy his hands and mind, work to do and something to think about, isn't worrying himself into a heat breakdown. Hot? Of course it's hot in the middle of the street, don't run to extremes of temper or even of pastime, keep busy, keep getting along with the daily grind and that bit of war activity you have taken on, and pretty soon it will occur to you that it is raining and old Web-foot is a mighty good place to live in after all.

THE NATIONAL NEED.

Next to food and munitions crude oil is of more importance to the nation than anything else, not excepting soldiers and sailors.

Soldiers and sailors cannot be equipped or placed on the battle front without fuel and transportation—without oil.

Gasoline horse-power built and sold in 1913 was 11,300,000. In 1916 it was double that figure. In 1916 we had 400,000 motorcars in use. In 1916 we had 2,350,000. The additional cars required 28,000,000 barrels gasoline a year, and today automobiles are demanding 40,000,000 to 50,000,000 barrels, besides there are a million motor boats.

Railroads in 1916 consumed 42,000,000 barrels of fuel oil and demand much more this year, while the government refuses to allow them to develop crude oil on their own lands.

The progress of the army today depends on automobiles and trucks to carry food and munitions, gasoline to propel and oil to lubricate.

Those are the principal reasons why the price of gasoline is going up and why we can have no more oil for our roads. It is the reason why changes are being made in many of the fuel plants of big buildings everywhere—in the courthouse, city hall and other public places right here in Portland and all over the country.

Too soon the nation began discontinuing the use of coal on its railroads and steamships; and too soon there began a waste of oil that can never be replaced. But such things always happen, and there will never be a thought of an economic distribution of oil, coal and wood until they are so nearly gone that the world will have to get along without them.

A little girl said that pins had saved many persons' lives by not swallowing them; and a little boy said that salt was something that makes a tater taste bad when it ain't got none on it. By the same philosophy high profits are something that makes a person feel mad when he ain't gettin' none of 'em.

It is the hay fever season, the stomachache season, the grouchy season, the hysterical season, the fanatical season and the bonehead season, and Gresham is always an up-to-date town. But we believe a good hail storm would do the town good, even if it destroyed the bean crop.

In these days of stress isn't it about time more consideration were paid to the membership of the back fence choir by getting rid of some of the male members of the fast-arriving families among the best-regulated cat societies?

Those staggering figures printed every issue is having a serious effect on the cipher matrices of our linotype. If the government would throw in a few other figures occasionally it would save a lot of wear and tear on the naughts.

A New York girl got $125,000 from an 84-year-old idiot in a breach of promise suit. Now if she will buy a ticket for Gresham we'll try to get her a job as a war widow and let her live among us. We need the money.

The Oregonian quotes bar silver as the highest it has been in more than thirty years. Bar silver is very quiet in Gresham at present, for the drouth has stopped the circulation of bar silver for more than two years past.

We realize the difficulty of getting our people to eat corn bread when it sells for nearly as much as wheat. At its present price we will cling to our own luxury and let the cornfeds have theirs.

If Uncle Sam puts the screws on pleasure riding what a relief it will be to those who are owing the grocery stores or denying themselves food so that they can buy gas and rubber tires.

Carrie Chapman Catt says all childless wives should work, so that their husbands might join the army. But who is to care for the poodles, pollys or pussys if the childless wives have to work?

We suppose that when the Oregon boys capture a German commissary they will empty the beer kegs on the ground from force of education ingrained into them during the past year or so.

The inquisitive subscriber at Troutdale notifies us that he has joined the aviation corps. His next inquiry will probably come from "somewhere up there."

It seems too bad that the cleanup movement, which the war department started in Vancouver, can't be extended to other cities that need it just as bad.

If the I Want Williams would only fight the Germans as hard as they fight the selective draft they would make a great dent in the west front.

A report from "over there" says that our boys who saw King George took a look at their first king. We'll bet he looked like a dunce to most of them.

Doctors say that in every five million births there will be a "Siamese Twins." Then will someone figure it out when Gresham's turn is due?

With such dry weather as this we hardly expect to see eastern Multnomah put up a roasting ear shower this year at two bits a sack.

If the Beavers could steal a few submarine bases we believe they would put up a better percentage in the sport columns.

So far there are no reports around here of anyone loosing his front teeth backing off a roasting ear.

It is not a remarkable fact that no food speculator was ever elected president of the United States.

We've been wondering lately why the weather bureau doesn't advertise for rain.

People who used to ring the door bell now look in the garage first.

Just the Thing for Diarrhoea. "About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

PLEASANT HOME

Lena and Harry Cooley and Carl Alder spent Saturday evening at Dorothy Caddy's enjoying a treat of ice cream and cake.

Mrs. I. G. Denny entertained the Baptist Ladies' Aid last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams and baby are visiting their father and mother for a short time.

Miss Elsie Harris has returned to Portland, where she is making ready to enter high school the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caddy made a trip to Portland last Friday.

Lena Cooley spent the day Saturday with Dorothy Caddy.

Mrs. Lennartz made a business trip to Oregon City Saturday.

Inez Bell spent Sunday at Bull Run.

Mrs. Clifford Sloop and Mrs. H. L. Ball entertained their Sunday school classes respectively last Thursday afternoon in the Pleasant Home grove. A very enjoyable time was had each receiving plenty of ice cream and cake. Thirty-four were present. Those assisting Mrs. Sloop and Mrs. Ball were Mesdames Pratt, Collins, Hommers, Quicksall and Miss Jenne Sloop.

On account of so many being away, no meeting of the Methodist Ladies' Aid will be held on August 29, as was at first planned.

Mrs. Grant Sloop has gone to Knappa with her sister, Mrs. B. W. Sole and 3-weeks-old baby, where she will visit with relatives for about a week. Mrs. Sole has been the guest of Mrs. Sloop for several weeks.

D. T. Williams was seriously injured last Tuesday afternoon, when the load of feed, which he was bringing from Gresham to Pleasant Home, tipped over, throwing him off. The wagon ran over him and broke his leg above the knee and otherwise bruised him. The accident was the result of the running off of a wheel, and occurred near the homes of J. M. and W. J. Hillyard. Mr. Williams was taken to a Portland hospital, where his injuries are being cared for. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are especially grateful to the Hillyard families and other neighbors, for their assistance at the time of the accident.

At the Pleasant Home Baptist church on Sunday, Bible school will meet at 10 o'clock and the pastor, Rev. A. J. Ware, will preach at 11. Communion service will follow the sermon.

F. Cornutt of Riddle, Oregon, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jewell Collins and other relatives and friends. Mr. Cornutt taught school here in 1883. The change in conditions since then is wonderful.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are visiting the latter's brothers, J. W. and D. Lauderback, whom they have not seen for twenty-eight years.

George Carpenter has been down from Condon, Oregon, for a few days' visit but expects to return Saturday. He has been engaged in carpenter work.

Bruce Hoyt is visiting his mother, Mrs. H. F. Wilton, a week or so.

Mrs. H. W. Cooley and daughter, Miss Lena, of Victory and Dorothy Caddy were callers at Mrs. John Ickler's, Wednesday.

The Misses Ruth Ickler and Mamie Denny have returned home from their visit in Portland.

Maurice Milsted of Oregon City, who has joined the field artillery, was here visiting relatives before leaving for California.

Miss Nellie McCreary is visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnuson are rejoicing over the arrival of a 12-lb. baby girl.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Columbia Heights, Aug. 10.—Editor Outlook:—We think that Mr. McAdoo, the secretary of the treasury, struck the right key when he recently suggested or requested that Uncle Sam should provide for the dependent families of the soldiers that he has called away to enter war.

Uncle Sam surely would never have his soldiers go to war and fight other nations with a sad and heavy load on their minds, that the dear folks they left, were in need. And we believe it is wrong to expect neighbors in the community to take care of them for we all have a great battle to win at home here with small crops of everything, and war prices and taxes on everything. My goodness, a farmer can't even sell a roll of butter nowadays without he must pay a license, and our old faithful dog is doomed now too, unless we pay a tax on him. Where will we be at by and by? It doesn't appeal to us at all, the suggestion from Mr. Baker the Portland mayor, to raise a huge sum like $400,000 to support the families of soldiers. Uncle Sam has his coffers full of riches. Now is the time to show patriotism and either take care of the dependent or pay a soldier enough so he can send a monthly check to the folks at home.

Here is another subject that I can not refrain from stating my opinion about: while I have always supported women's suffrage and believe in equal rights, I firmly believe it is wrong of the suffragettes to keep on their violent picketing in front of the White House in Washington. In fact, it is more than ridiculous to display such banners as bearing the name of Kaiser Wilson. It is a disgrace to the cause, in these dark days of national trouble, and I am afraid they get further away from that which they aim to gain and it would do them more justice if they would take the example of the women of England. Quit this foolish business and help win the war.

Many persons of prominence and high standing in life have been entertained at Crown Point chalet this season. Saturday Brigadier General White took dinner there. The officers of the English aviation corps also dined there. John McClure Hamilton, an artist, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Edward of Portland, is scheduled for tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burrell, of Portland, had breakfast at the chalet this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier and friends motored up near Mt. Hood on Sunday.

At the stockholders' meeting of the Rooster Rock Water company, the following members were elected to constitute the board: J. Deaver, president; F. Shoults, vice president; Mrs. Mary Hicks, secretary and P. Anderson, treasurer.

Mrs. D. Benefield, of Tillamook, has been a guest at the Benfield bungalow for a week, as has also Miss Leona Kesterson of Portland.

Mrs. Helen Deaver Nelson, who was operated on recently at Good Samaritan hospital, is getting along nicely and will soon go back home.

Mrs. S. R. Knight, mother of the merchant, W. Knight, has returned home after spending a couple of weeks in the city with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of Springdale, have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of their baby. Mrs. Campbell was Miss Carrie Nelson before marriage.

Mrs. Spencer, of Minnesota, arrived last week to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. James Benefield at the Heights.

MRS. P. ANDERSEN.
