

WE'VE THIS TO TELL—
THE MEATS WE SELL
WILL MAKE A HUNGRY
MAN FEEL WELL!

A. J. W. BROWN, Prop.
GRESHAM, OREGON

THAT COMMON AILMENT OF ALL MANKIND commonly called "hunger" should be a three-times-a-day treatment. You know that old saying—it's better to pay the butcher than the doctor—not that we begrudge the M. D. any business, because he's one of our best customers.

GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stapleton are entertaining this week Mr. and Mrs. McDonald of Lewiston, Idaho.

John Honey left today for the east with other members of the ambulance corps, and expects to sail soon for France.

Mrs. Caroline Kessler returned to her home at Aurora last Sunday after a week here with her son, A. E. Kessler, and wife.

Arthur Regner and wife were Gresham visitors last evening. Mr. Regner returned yesterday from a deer hunting trip to Cow creek.

The Misses Esther Peterson, Letitia Pulfer and Hannah Lane are enjoying an outing at Manzanita beach. They are accompanied by Mrs. Bonnett of Sandy.

Wendell Cleveland, whose serious illness has been mentioned in former issues of the Outlook, is well on the way to recovery. He is still in the care of a trained nurse.

Frederic Honey returned last night from Chris Henry sands, one of the best known fishing grounds in the lower Columbia, where he has been working for the past two months.

Mrs. Edward Radcliff and children, Gretchen and Edward and Mrs. E. Harrington of Portland were in Gresham after blackberries today and called at the home of Mrs. C. B. Spencer.

Captain C. O. Branson and wife have rented one of Mrs. P. A. Gould's houses where they will move in a few days from their farm in the Melrose neighborhood, which they recently sold to W. N. Hager of New Mexico.

Those who find their cabbage, kale, cauliflower or ruta baggas being destroyed by an aphid can find ready relief by using a preparation of whale-oil and nicotine. Fifteen cents worth to ten gallons of water sprayed on the plants will do the work.

The Ladies' Aid will meet for regular business meeting and tea, Wednesday 29, at the parsonage lawn at 2:30. The ladies serving are Mrs. C. M. Harrison, Mrs. P. A. Gould, Mrs. Chas. Coe, Mrs. C. M. Oliphant and Mrs. W. B. Parsons. Everyone welcome.

B. Sunstrum, the driver of a Standard Oil company truck was badly scalded yesterday by steam from the radiator of the machine. He was taken to Portland where his burns were dressed, and he will probably be able to return to his work in a few days.

At the Baptist church next Sunday morning, Bible school will meet at the usual hour. Rev. E. A. Leonard will preach at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. A. J. Ware, will preach on the subject, "Religion of Social Life" at 8 in the evening. All are invited to these services.

Miss Alberta Cavender, head of the domestic science department of the Pendleton high school, has been visiting with Mrs. T. R. Howitt for several days past. She went to Portland today. Miss Cavender was in charge of the O. A. C. tea room at the San Francisco exposition.

The Gresham picture show theater was reopened last night under the proprietorship of L. J. Brant of Portland. The interior of the theater has been thoroughly renovated and those attending last night were treated to an excellent program. Mr. Brant promises a high class service.

Benjamin Cameron is planning to start tomorrow for Grand Forks, North Dakota, where he will meet Mrs. Cameron and Miss Eckford, who have been visiting in the east for several months, and who are now on their way home. Mr. Cameron expects to remain away for three months.

Dr. A. E. Kidd and Charles Samman, both of Portland, were Gresham visitors yesterday. They were here in the interests of Multnomah camp. Woodmen of the World, and while here Dr. Kidd examined six applicants for membership. The camp will put on a big initiation September 7, and dedicate its new hall. It will then be the largest lodge in the United States, with more than 3500 members.

Two auto loads of Gresham people made the trip to Mist, Oregon, on Sunday. Those going were Mr. and Mrs. Teevin, daughters Kathryn and Nora and son Will, Ole Hogan, Mrs. Grace Quick and little daughter Margaret. All returned Monday except Mrs. Quick and Margaret, who stopped at Warren with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson. Mrs. Quick made a trip here on Tuesday, but returned the same day to Warren.

Principal Elmer F. Goodwin is receiving many letters from young people, who are planning to enter high school here this fall, from the country surrounding the union high school district, and also from a distance. Many of them are hoping to find suitable homes in which to work for their board during the school year. Mr. Goodwin would be pleased to hear from any who have homes to offer these worthy students on these conditions.

FAIRVIEW

The U. S. class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will give a social this evening, at the home of the class president, Mrs. Leslie St. Clair. Ice cream and cake will be sold.

Those going from here recently to Long Beach, Washington are the Misses Olive and Isabell Zimmerman and Clyde Stone.

The city council has ordered the building of a new bridge on Alvin avenue and the work has already been commenced.

Interesting services were conducted last Sunday at the Presbyterian church, by Rev. H. C. Hanson of Portland, which were largely attended.

W. E. Stone and wife, of Portland, visited over Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw and daughter, Mrs. Leslie St. Clair, have returned from Portland, where they went for a few days' visit with relatives.

Word has been received from Mrs. Eliza Stone, from Merced, California, telling of a pleasant trip in the south. Mrs. Stone, together with her son Roy and Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Newberg, left nearly a month ago for an extended automobile trip. They have visited the Yosemite valley and are enroute to Los Angeles and San Diego. They report a great variety of scenery and "all kinds of roads."

Mrs. E. C. Morrison and son William have returned from Seaside, where they have been for two weeks.

School is scheduled to commence on September 10, with Mrs. J. T. Gill of McMinnville as principal and Miss Maude Bennett of Portland as primary teacher.

COTTRELL

The Willing Workers society of the Cottrell community church met at the church this afternoon for the purpose of tying a comforter and giving out new work. Cake and punch was served at the close of the working hour.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn returned from Netarts Tuesday, where they have been spending a week's vacation. They also visited Pacific City and Neskowin but found the camping much the best at Netarts.

Mrs. Jones and daughter and Mrs. Jackson expect to move to Burton, Washington, the first of the week. They have rented their place here to Mr. Earl, who will teach the Lusted school the coming term.

Miss Crissy McPherson, of Portland, is spending the week at the home of Mrs. Ella Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Craswell and Miss Esther Wishart are spending a few weeks at Pacific City.

The Best Laxative.

To keep the bowels regular the best laxative is outdoor exercise. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and eat an abundance of fruit and vegetables, also establish a regular habit and be sure that your bowels move once each day. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are pleasant to take and mild and gentle in effect. Obtainable everywhere.
