BORING

Improvements on the Boring schoolhouse and also on the church are appreciated by the people of the community. The schoolhouse has received a coat of paint.

Louis, the young son of E. V. Nauding, has returned from the Portland hospital, where he has been for treatment.

Mrs. Ed. Rich, of Portland, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Siefert.

O. H. McClung and wife of Wauna, Oregon are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McClung and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Palmer.

A social for the benefit of the church will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McClung on Saturday evening, September 15. This will be a basket social, to which the ladies are requested to bring lunch for two. Each lady will wear an apron and will bring, enclosed in an envelope, a tie to match it. The gentlemen will buy the ties "unsight and unseen," and must find the wearer of the apron in order to get his lunch. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher and children, of Gresham, were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen. Mr. Rusher sang two solos at the Sunday school, much to the pleasure of all present.

SANDY BLUFF

Mr. and Mrs. J. Byron, who have been visiting with their daughter, Mrs. A. J. Ault and family, have returned to their home in Seattle. Mrs. Ault accompanied them as far as Portland and spent a couple of days with her sister, Mrs. Crose.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldo entertained company from Portland on Sunday.

Mrs. Ruby Cunningham and children are visiting their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Andrews. Mrs. Cunningham cut her hand quite badly but is doing nicely.

Mrs. Laura Barnes has made some changes on her place by building a new porch on the house and a new wood shed.

Jesse Radford visited home folks last week.

Cottrell school opened last Monday with a good enrollment. Mrs. Robert Lansdowne has charge of the higher grades, while Mrs. E. E. Van Fleet has the smaller grades.

TROUTDALE

Some of the boy friends of Harold Lumsden gave him a surprise party Tuesday afternoon of last week at his home at the Sun Dial ranch. A merry afternoon was enjoyed, an important feature of the party being the refreshments prepared by Mrs. Lumsden. The boys present were Harold and Homer Lumsden, Jack, Sam and Robert Harlow, Leo Bailey, Harold Hudson, Clyde Monahan, Horace McGinnis, Harold Galvin, Gussie Helming, Eldon Du Puis. Additional guests were Mrs. L. A. Harlow, Mrs. Morris McGinnis and baby June, and Miss Miriam Inglis.

At the meeting of the Troutdale Ladies' Aid last Wednesday all the old officers were re-elected. They are Mrs. C. I. Thomas, president; Mrs. Wm. Crawford, vice president; Mrs. C. I. Raker, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Brink, treasurer. The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the society in a flourishing condition. Thirty-five dish towels, hemmed for the soldiers, were brought in, with a promise of more, making 55 already donated by the women of Troutdale. Steps were taken to form a Red Cross unit in the society, and a committee was appointed to investigate as to the means of going about it. A work meeting is to be held at the church Wednesday afternoon, September 19, when the report of this committee will be given. All interested in taking up the Red Cross work with the Aid society are urged to be present. Mrs. Ruth Brink surprised the society with a dainty spread.

The wood merchants in this vicinity are swamped with orders for wood, but find it hard to get men to cut the wood in the forests.

Mr. and Mrs. Skirvin came Saturday and have taken the Helming house on the hill. Mr. Skirvin is the new school principal.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker and son Ellsworth, and Jake Larson returned Friday evening from a delightful motor trip to the beaches.

The McGirrs, who have bought the Baker garage, are occupying the house recently vacated by Mrs. Janet Van De Walker.

Mrs. Frank Test and two children from Phoenix, Arizona, with her mother from Portland were guests at the Sun Dial ranch Sunday.

The banks of the Sandy were lined with anglers Sunday, fishing for salmon trout.

Clella Crawford gave a party to some of her little friends Friday afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Powell. Those who enjoyed the afternoon and the dainty lunch with her were Kathleen and Doris Bailey, Amy and Dorothy Kendall, Elizabeth Thomas, Fay Parsons and Helen Laudan.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parsons went to Oregon City last week to visit their daughter, Mrs. Z. G. Schanck. The Schanck children are quite ill with whooping cough.

Mrs. Edwin DuPuis and children left Sunday for a visit in Pendleton, and to attend the Roundup. Mr. DuPuis is already up there.

Fred Laudan and his brother-in-law are visiting his brother, John Laudan, in Troutdale. They are here from Colorado looking for a location in the west.

School started in a businesslike way Monday morning with Mr. Skirvin as principal and Mrs. Janet Grant, assistant.

The Parent-Teachers' association will meet at the schoolhouse next Friday afternoon.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview library will not be open tomorrow on account of the county fair being held in Gresham.

COTTRELL

The Ladies' Aid society of the Cottrell community church will meet at the church Friday afternoon, September 21.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Creath and children, of Portland, were the guests of Mrs. Ella Schneider Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Carling and baby of Butte, Montana, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Van Fleet.

Mrs. Evelyn Bates left Sunday to attend school in Portland.

Mrs. Drew of Centralla, Washington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manary.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dentler and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clauson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Andre.

Experience the Best Teacher.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effectual and pleasant to take.—Adv.

PLEASANT HOME

D. T. Williams, who was injured a few weeks ago by being thrown from his wagon, is still at the hospital in Portland, where he is slowly improving.

Mr. Wire, a well known poultryman of Newberg, came down last week and spent two days with Mrs. D. T. Williams, caponizing her chickens. He pronounced them a fine flock.

The Boy Scouts of Pleasant Home and Orient are a fine lot of boys.

Last Thursday they worked all day cleaning and refitting a large chicken house for Mrs. Williams, besides going in every day to help her in any way possible, since Mr. Williams has been confined to the hospital.

Has a High Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have a high opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets for biliousness and as a laxative," writes Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Charleston, Ill. "I have never found anything so mild and pleasant to use. My brother has also used these tablets with satisfactory results."—Adv.
