Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

CO-OPERATION URGED.

Co-operative organizations are getting to be one of the most popular features of the business world. Co-operative buying has long been known but co-operative selling is an invention of rather recent years.

Co-operation has often been displayed as nothing more or less than putting the other fellow out of business. This is indeed a very narrow conception of the principle.

CRITICISM OF JUDGES.

Fair time is rather disagreeable in a way and it is in that way that most competitors show their real sportsmanship.

"It is easy enough to be happy When everything goes like a song; But the man worth while Is the man with a smile."

There are judges who are hired to come out and judge the various exhibits and each one is supposed to be an expert in his or her line.

There has been more or less complaining as to the work of the judges so we will offer Prof. E. L. Potter's own words to these people who are dissatisfied.

During February of this year the weekly convictions for drunkenness in London fell considerably below the lowest level of 1916, and in many areas were reduced to proportions not previously attained.

One hundred pounds of beef shrink to sixty-seven pounds after ordinary roasting.

Food Conservation in 1777.

An interesting historical fact, brought to public attention by Senator Henry L. Myers of Montana, is that the congress of 1777 engaged in grain preservation just as the congress of today is doing.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the several legislatures of the United States, immediately to pass laws the most effectual for putting an immediate stop to the pernicious practice of distilling grain.

Senator Myers, after dwelling upon the wisdom and patriotism of the continental legislators, appealed to the senators to catch up with their ancestors.

Sixty-five thousand sacks of beans from Japan, the largest single importation ever made in the United States, are being transhipped from San Francisco to eastern markets.

People Speak Well of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have been selling Chamberlain's Tablets for about two years and heard such good reports from my customers that I concluded to give them a trial myself.

HONOR ROLL.

Young men who have enlisted from eastern Multnomah and vicinity.
