GRESHAM PEOPLE AND HAPPENINGS

Miss Birdie Merrill left today for American Lake, where she will visit for a few days with her brother Lee.

Miss Olive Merrill has gone to Aurora, Oregon, where she will teach the third and fourth grades in the public school.

A slight error in the report of the opening of the high school gave the enrollment of seniors as five which should have been 25.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Calhoun went to Portland Wednesday evening to attend the wedding of Miss Elizabeth McKenzie to Herbert Miller.

Miss Edith Johnson, of Eugene, was the guest for a few days of Miss Eva Anderson. Miss Johnson has spent the summer in Minnesota.

Joseph Welch was among those drawn on the first draft in Oregon, who left yesterday for American Lake. Mr. Welch is a resident of Clackamas county, but gets his mail on a Gresham route.

Benjamin Cameron and family returned Tuesday from a visit to North Dakota and Minnesota. Mrs. Cameron and daughter Eckford have been away all summer. Mr. Cameron went east a few weeks ago and joined the family.

A civil service examination will be held at Portland on October 27 for the purpose of filling a vacancy at Gresham and other places in the rural delivery service in Multnomah county. Blanks may be obtained at the Portland postoffice and from the postmaster at Gresham.

During the state fair at Salem next week the Outlook may be found on file at Oregon booth, journalism room, among others from all over the state. An attendant will be in charge to classify all state papers which may be sent in for the benefit of those who may call to read their home news.

Mrs. Fred Jones, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. W. Tarr, during the fair, has returned to her home in Forest Grove. Mrs. Jones sang several solos in connection with the evening programs and ably assisted her husband in vaudeville selections on one evening. Both received many favorable comments.

Rev. J. H. Karpenstein and family left last week for Cornelius, where Mr. Karpenstein has accepted the pastorate of a church. The family will be greatly missed in this community, where they were well liked and active in good works. The removal of this family takes away three from the high school.

A fire alarm just before 12 o'clock last night brought out the fire department and many others. The barn of Louis Metzger was on fire and was totally destroyed with about four tons of hay and some tools. The barn was a small one and the total loss was only a few hundred dollars. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kimberly and daughter have arrived from Greenwood, Nebraska, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kern. The trip was made by automobile and was covered in five weeks. Many stopovers and side trips were enjoyed by the Kimberly family, who agree that on the whole it was a delightful trip.

Rev. M. B. Paroungian, Sunday school missionary of the M. E. church for the Oregon conference, was in Gresham Wednesday. He was formerly pastor here. He says that during the past year he has traveled nearly 18,000 miles in promotion work. He has organized or reorganized 24 Sunday schools, three church societies and 39 organized classes and three teacher training classes. He has delivered 287 sermons and addresses.

Captain and Mrs. C. O. Branson attended the reception given in Portland Wednesday in honor of J. G. Chambers, Department Commander of the G. A. R. for Oregon. Mr. Chambers has recently attended the national G. A. R. convention as a delegate from Oregon. He gave an interesting account of the great meeting. The reception was held at the G. A. R. hall in Sellwood, and was attended by many of the members of the Posts, Relief Corps and Circles of Portland.

Rev. A. Wehrli, who has for some months past been pastor of the Zion Evangelical church, has resigned his pastorate and will confine his efforts to the church of which he is pastor in Portland. Rev. Mr. Wehrli has been succeeded by Rev. H. Gebhardt, who is here from Illinois, and will take up his duties at once. An installation service will be held at the church next Sunday, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, conducted by the retiring pastor. Services are held every Sunday at the church. On the first Sunday of each month, the service will be in English.

The Gresham canning team, who are the champions for Multnomah county, will go to the state fair next Thursday, where they will compete with winning teams from other counties of the state for the state championship. The team consists of Mabel Metzger, Bonita Stillions and Elizabeth Schwedler. They will be accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Kern, who has trained them.

Wednesday's vote on the proposition to unite Orient school district with the union high school district was favorable in all the districts concerned. The vote here was light and there were no ballots cast against the proposition. In Orient district the vote stood 35 to 31 in its favor, hence that district is now in the union.

State Mission day will be observed at the Baptist church next Sunday, September 23, when the Sunday school will give an interesting program concerning missionary work in the state. The service will be at 11 o'clock and all are invited to attend. Rev. A. J. Ware, the pastor, will preach in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Tomorrow will be registration day for women in Gresham. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Jas. Elkington, Mrs. J. N. Clananah, Mrs. Maxwell Schneider and Mrs. O. A. Eastman. All women sixteen years of age and over are urged to register. The city hall will be open for the purpose from 1 to 5 p. m.

The walls of Ed. Osburn's addition to his blacksmith shop are nearly up and will probably be ready for the roof by next week. Mr. Osburn has bought the lot adjoining of Mrs. Saddle Crawford and will utilize it in his business.

Dana Frame will leave Gresham today for a week at the state fair, after which he will go to Corvallis to continue his course of studies. He has previously had two years at college and 16 months in cattle testing work.

Oscar Anderson of Harrison, New Jersey, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. J. A. Anderson and his sister, Miss Eva. Mr. Anderson is general manager of the general electric company of his home city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmquist have received word of the arrival of their son Ray at Camp Greene, S. C. Ray is with an Oregon cavalry troop. They reached camp a week ago today and report it a fine place.

Captain C. O. Branson will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

LUSTED

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson returned from their trip to Michigan, where they have been visiting relatives and friends for the past five weeks. They report a good time but glad to get back to Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ernest of Brush Prairie, Washington, were callers on Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Quay last Thursday.

Mrs. Nick Rauw, of Montaville, returned to her home last Sunday. She has been assisting her daughter-in-law with the children who have been on the sick list.

Sigurd Westheim is visiting at the home of J. B. Lent. The former has but recently returned from Alaska, where he has been in the fishing business for the past three months. Another visitor is W. Spaulding of Portland, who is on the sick list and is staying with his sister, Mrs. Ella Lent, for a few days.

Miss Jean Lent started Friday for Pendleton, Ore., where she will teach an eight months' school.

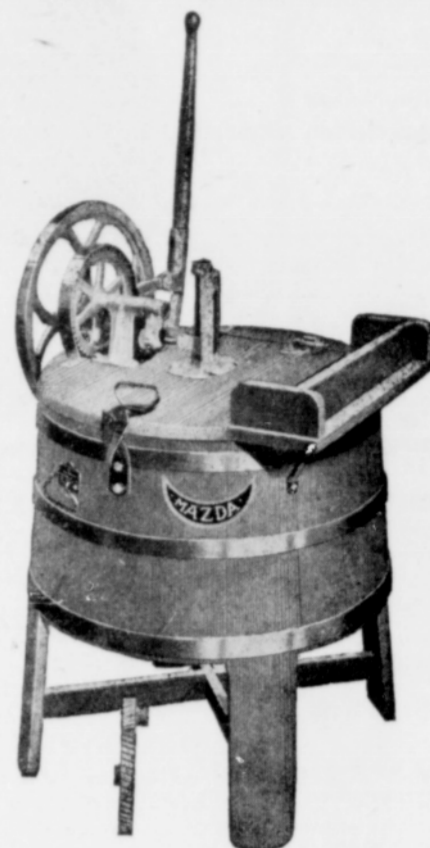

Ed. Hamilton is hauling lumber to build sheds to his barn.

Guy Robertson had the misfortune to lose two nice heifers with some poisonous weed they got in the creek. Ed. Hamilton lost two a couple of years ago the same way.

Bids Wanted.
Bids will be received up to Tuesday, Sept. 25, 1917, on the painting of the Fairview city hall, labor only. E. A. WHITNEY, Chairman, Fairview, Oregon.

The patience of our government in not suppressing German newspapers that are not friendly to the cause for which we are fighting, is remarkable. Why should they be permitted longer to spread disloyal propaganda in a language with which the majority of our people are not familiar?

It is quite possible for a country to be too free.—Minneapolis Journal.
