COTTRELL

Miss Clara Schneider went to Portland Sunday, after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Ella Schneider. Miss Schneider is going to attend the Bhenke-Walker Business college this winter.

R. A. Hutchins and L. E. Craswell spent several days china pheasant hunting near Albany. They report very good luck.

Rev. S. F. Pitts entertained his father, also his brother and wife, of Portland, one day last week.

Mrs. A. R. Goger and Mrs. S. F. Pitts attended the Baptist Aid at Mrs. Wuner's in Pleasant Home Thursday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Maud Manary entertained at dinner Sunday General and Mrs. Finzer and son Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. Fleck, and Miss Hambrey of Portland.

Mr. Baggenstofs was a Portland visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Estel Holmes and daughters, of Springwater, spent Saturday at G. H. Blackburn's.

DEATH CALLS DAUGHTER MR. AND MRS. D. WRIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wright have received a telegram announcing the death of their daughter, Miss Jessie Olive Wright, in Cincinnati, Ohio, at the age of 43 years, 3 months and 13 days. Death was due to paralysis. She has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since childhood and was greatly admired for her kind and loving disposition. Besides her parents, she leaves four brothers and two sisters. Of these all are in the East except two, Charles W. Wright and Mrs. Arthur Callaghan of Portland.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.—Adv.

PLEASANT HOME

Miss Dorothy Caddy visited Miss Lena Cooley of Victory Thursday.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met with Mr. M. Lenartz Wednesday. A large crowd attended. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. M. Lenartz, president; Mrs. Grant Sloop, first vice president; Mrs. G. Blackburn, second vice president; Mrs. Laurence Craswell, treasurer; Mrs. C. M. Quick-sall, secretary; Mrs. H. L. Ball and Mrs. Clifford Sloop are on the entertaining committee and Mrs. I. N. L. Schriener is chairman of the committee to look after the sick.

Casey Bettis has rented Mr. Mathews' place.

Preaching services will be in the M. E. church Sunday morning and Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

Miss Mamie Denny visited Gertrude Ickler Tuesday.

Mr. Lauderback has rented the 18 acres from Mr. Croxford of Portland on the old Simmons place.

Miss Nellie McCreary is assisting Mrs. Altman during the rush of silo filling.

The library station at Pleasant Home has been moved to the post-office and will be in the care of Miss Shaw. Requests for books may be telephoned to the Gresham Library and the books will be sent to the Pleasant Home station at once.

FAIRVIEW

The Fairview library will be open every Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30. Miss Rachel Peterson will be in charge during those hours.

It is a patriotic duty at this time to see that legislation is passed permitting development of our waterpowers so necessary in manufacture of fertilizers and war munitions.

Sour Stomach.

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to cut them out.—Adv.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

All we can say in regard to the ship carpenter's strike is, "It is a great mistake that such an important industry has to be tied up under the present situation and condition of our nation on account of labor trouble. Why doesn't Uncle Sam take charge of the affairs, put other men to work who are willing to work and draft everyone of the strikers and send them over to France?"

The Red Cross auxiliary at Corbett and vicinity is doing splendid work, meets every two weeks and has a membership of fifty-four. Our auxiliary was the first organized east of Portland and we are all proud of the fact. The organization is very much alive and has two sewing machines humming every meeting and every member is as busy as a bee and never do any drones make an appearance. About sixty pairs of sheets and several dozen of pillow cases, many bed-sheets and socks have been made since we started. A good many have started to knitting woolen socks and a good many dish towels have been hemmed. Next Wednesday the Red Cross will meet in the old school-house as we had to vacate the library room at the high school for the students. Mrs. Sue Knight deserves much praise for her interest taken in our Red Cross work, who has presided over every meeting, but one, since we started. All of the officers have attended faithfully and much credit is due each one. Come to our next meeting and bring some one else with you. Those who attended last meeting were: Mrs. L. Knight, Mrs. T. Evans, Mrs. Shearer, mother of Mrs. T. Evans; Mrs. John Bates, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Dick Wilson, Mrs. C. J. Willson, Mrs. Lasley Willson, Mrs. F. Lasley, Mrs. R. Emily, Mrs. Grant Bell, Mrs. J. Pounder, Mrs. Graig, Mrs. B. Knierim and Mrs. P. Andersen.

While on a trip in the city on Monday, which was as warm a day as in July, we noticed many funny things. Looking up or down Washington street was about as good a moving picture show as one could wish; and I cannot help asking, "Is there anything under the sun that a woman won't put on her body, when it is the fashion, no matter how perfectly ridiculous she looks?" I don't think so! In the glorious warm sunshine the society ladies comes out bundled up in their fine and modern furs, almost roasted, but they stood pat, wore their furs and suffered. Then others again wore clothes that were almost transparent, and others trying to be good looking with old furs out of date. How will some of those folks keep warm in the winter when Jack Frost is about?

The stork paid a visit at the home of A. Butler last week, and left a baby girl.

The stork is a mysterious bird and uses funny judgment; some places he drops his precious bundle right along, some places he never shows up. It is many a day since he visited around here and it would be considered a great treat to have a baby in this vicinity.

Last week the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Evans of Troutdale was gladdened with a baby boy, and Lee Evans is a proud father. We congratulate.

Mrs. M. E. Henderson, of Crown Point chalet, has gone to Baker City for a short recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Crane, Mrs. L. Lang of Portland, were dinner guests at Columbia View farm on Sunday.

Lloyd Taylor has arrived home after spending the summer at Wind River.

The many friends of Mrs. W. Knight, our highway merchant, will be glad to know that she is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed, of Corbett, have purchased a fine new Buick six, which is a proof that they earned money during the fall fishing season.

Paving being done by Clackamas county increase 17.7 cents per square yard over last year due to increase labor and material charges.

Hood River is calling for 1000 men and women wanted to save fruit crop.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."—Adv.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. Lew Rodlun and sister, of Gales Creek, are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chitwood.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Berry took a trip to North Yamhill last Sunday. Mrs. G. H. Richey, of Portland, was a Valley visitor Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Kemp, of Hutton, Alberta, Canada, are visiting at the home of H. F. Sager this week.

John Thomas of Alberta, Canada, who bought sixty acres of the place known as the Thomas place, is getting lumber on the ground for new buildings preparatory to making a home for himself and family.

M. V. Bishop and family who live on the J. H. Nolta place, are moving to Portland.

Miss Judith Joy of White Salmon, Washington, was a visitor at the home of her father, Allan Joy, over Sunday.

Mrs. Mildred Ontario, of Tacoma, is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Butler and other relatives of this place.

A meeting was called at the grange hall last Monday evening in the interest of the Red Cross work. Mrs. Gillingham, of Portland, addressed the audience and twenty-five members were quickly enrolled. Officers were elected as follows: T. R. Berry, president; Mrs. Anna Lehman, secretary; E. S. Jenne, treasurer. After due consideration it was decided to have another meeting next Monday night to give others a chance to help in the good work, and at that time decide when the work shall begin.

KELSO

The Parent-Teacher association had its first meeting of the year Friday evening and elected the following officers: Mrs. Robert Jonsrud, president; Mrs. T. Bowen, vice-president; Miss E. Yerkes, secretary and Mrs. Minnie Platt treasurer. It was decided to give a basket and Halloween social Saturday evening, October 27.

Women's registration is still open. All women over 16 years of age, wishing to register for national service, call on Mrs. Robert Jonsrud as soon as possible. You may register to do work at home in any line, and as many hours a week as you choose.

Mistreating Pullets.

Recent study of pullets at the egg-laying contests and experiment stations, also observations made by thoughtful poultrymen, show that pullets just coming into their first laying are very delicate pieces of farm furniture, and should be handled as gently and carefully as valuable chinaware.

It has been found that chasing, scaring, and rough-handling pullets that are most ready or just beginning to lay may prevent them from laying for weeks and sometimes for months. The egg yolks that were developed and were developing may be reabsorbed and the egg machinery effectively blocked by fright.

A case of this retarded laying came under the writer's observation last year. A pen of pullets that were sent to an egg-laying competition had just laid their first eggs and were in the pink of condition when shipped to the contest. As a result of rough handling en route or otherwise, these pullets stopped laying entirely for over a month. Sometimes incipient molt results from such change of location. But this was not the case with the pullets referred to. Thus it will be seen that a bad fright may cause the loss of a lot of three or four cent eggs.

According to the U. S. department of agriculture, the temptation to sell eggs from incubators is costing the farmers many thousands of dollars. This practice has tended to lower the average prices offered for spring eggs by cold storage packers. So long as poultry keepers persist in being so short sighted they have no cause to complain about low prices for their eggs. The cull in the package is the curse of the farming industry, and the man who packs the culs is an enemy of every honest farmer.

The Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway system lines in Oregon and Washington made a splendid record in improvement of traffic conditions in unison with the help-win-the-war spirit of service which the railroads have manifested. These lines during the month of July handled an increase of 84 per cent in commercial tonnage as compared with the same month in 1916, with an increase of 28 per cent in the number of freight cars in service.

The Non-Partisan League is using large paid advertisements in the big dailies to defend itself for unpatriotic utterances at St. Paul convention. A new political party mobilizing elements of discontent is not looked upon with favor at present and the league is on the defensive.

DEAN OF RURAL CARRIERS WATCHMAN AT PARK ROSE

J. H. Schram, for fifteen years and one month a rural letter carrier out of Fairview, is now a watchman at the Park Rose box factory. He has sent his check for a year's subscription to the Outlook saying, "I cannot do my duty as I should without the Outlook, so send it along."

He further says: "It seems strange that I should not be mixing letters after 15 years and one month. We venture to say that within six months' time Uncle Samuel will regret the change made, as it will be impossible to run the 61-mile route as now laid out."

Mr. Schram was one of the prominent letter carriers of the rural service, and at the time he quit—the first of the present month—was the oldest in point of service on the Pacific coast. His present address is, Portland, Route A, box 54.

"The Organization You Know Of—"

Bernstoff's impudent and treacherous proposal to use $50,000 for the purpose of influencing congress "through the organization you know of" and "as on former occasions" is proper cause for anger.

But why should we be surprised? And where is the mystery?

Any one who knows congressmen and Washington knows two things:

First—The money was to be used to brow-beat and bully congress, not to bribe it.

Second—The chances are a million to one that the money was to be expended under the direction of the man who headed the German-American Alliance, and who supervised the beer lobby in Washington.

The United States Brewers' Association and the German-American Alliance have been practically interlocking organizations. They have been pro-German together and pro-beer together. The brewers and disloyal Germans in this country have corrupted elections together, bought editorial support together, fought side by side in prohibition campaigns, and made joint attempts to corrupt labor officials and influence legislatures. Together they have conspired against commercial clubs, striven to corrupt the Mexican and negro vote in southern states, maintained paid lobbies in Washington and state capitals, spent enormous sums to "educate" the people, and preached treason to the German-American population of the country.

So close has been the connection between the United States Brewers' association and the German-American Alliance that it is hard to tell where the one begins and the other leaves off. For instance, Mr. Percy Andrea, who superintends the political activities of the United States Brewers' association, himself effected the creation of the "Organization Bureau" of the German-Alliance. It was through this "Organization Bureau" that the joint political purposes of the disloyal German element and brewers were accomplished. One of the field men who was doing work of this dual character for the "Organization Bureau," in his report to that Bureau, said:

"Any attempt to bring about a German state organization must have financial support. I believe that such should come from the State Brewers' association and as I have already indicated, should not be given direct, but might pass through the hands of a middle man."

If congress wants to know the whole diabolical tale of pro-German activity in this country, let it name an investigating committee and empower that committee to call for all the records and correspondence of the United States Brewers' association now in the hands of the Department of Justice officials. Let it also, seize additional records and correspondence of that association and of the brewers' associations in Pennsylvania, Texas and various other states, if these documents can be secured before they are destroyed. Let it call for the records and correspondence of the German-American Alliance and summon Mr. Hexamer. Let it also resume the Mulhall investigation where it left off.

There is a black story to be told, and the people are waiting for it.—Methodist Temperance Bulletin.
