THAT COMMON AILMENT OF ALL MANKIND

commonly called "hunger" should be a three-times-a-day treatment. You know that old saying—it's better to pay the butcher than the doctor—not that we begrudge the M. D. any business, because he's one of our best customers.

C. H. HONEY BURIED TODAY IN PORTLAND

C. H. Honey, father of W. F. and George F. Honey, passed away at his home in Portland on Monday, following a stroke of paralysis on Sunday morning. The funeral was held this afternoon from the late residence, with interment in Riverview cemetery.

Mr. Honey was born in Bideford, England in 1830. He came to Canada in 1852, where he became a successful manufacturer and where he lived until 1889, when he moved with his family to Park River, North Dakota. He became a citizen of the United States and was active in civic betterment. For sixteen years he held the office of chief magistrate or municipal judge, and had a large part in establishing and maintaining good moral conditions in his city. He came to Portland in 1910, where he has since made his home. Mr. Honey was a life-long member of the Methodist Episcopal church and at the time of his death held his membership in the Sunnyside church.

The deceased is survived by his widow, two sons, W. F. and George F. Honey, and three daughters, Mrs. M. E. Quigley of Spokane, Washington, Mrs. George E. Towle of Minneapolis and Miss Henrietta Honey of Portland, besides a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mr. Honey was a familiar figure in Gresham, where he frequently visited. He was admired for his sturdy qualities and for his kindly, sympathetic nature. He was a man of unusual physical strength and mental ability and was interested in all the questions of the day.

TWO SISTERS IN SAME ROOM AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Martin Multhaupt, living at Montavilla, and her sister Mrs. Michael Spahn living in Portland, are both inmates of the same room at the Good Samaritan hospital. Mrs. Multhaupt was taken there for an operation for gonorrhea about two weeks ago, while Mrs. Spahn is there with an injury to her leg caused by an accident.

Both women are well known in this vicinity, having lived near the Base Line road for many years. Their friends will be glad to know that both of them are recovering and that both of them will probably be restored to full health again soon.

Terry Pie Social

The Parent-Teacher association of District No. 8 will give a pie social at the schoolhouse Saturday evening, October 13. A good free program will be given. Pie and coffee will be sold at 25 cents for lunch for two.

Concrete piles have been driven nine feet into the coral rock of Honolulu with 3,100 blows of an ordinary drop hammer.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Miss Lenora Dunlap of Prescott, Washington, visited a day or two this week with Mrs. B. W. Emery.

Floyd Metzger has accepted a position with the State Highway commission and will leave Sunday for Westport.

Chas. Kadderly, father of Wallace Kadderly, is very sick at his home at Annabel station. He will be taken to the hospital soon for a operation.

Archie Cornutt, of Riddle, Oregon, has been spending a few days with relatives here. He is on his way to see his son, John, at Fort Stevens, who is in Co. 4, Coast Artillery.

A 20-h. p. boiler is being installed by the Home Packing Co. Other machinery is being installed for handling on a larger scale all kinds of fruits products, making fruit juices, etc.

The Baptist Missionary society, at a recent meeting, voted to collect fruit and vegetables for the Louise Home and already several automobiles have been offered to gather up the contributions.

B. W. Emery is on the run again with his big Packard truck, having had the same thoroughly overhauled. He says it is as good as new, and there is no limit to the hauling he can do so far as the truck is concerned.

Loads of cabbages are being brought to the Gresham cannery now operated by the A. Rupert company on government orders. Large quantities of kraut will be made. Practically all kinds of vegetables are being received and canned.

A. E. Kessler, deputy game warden, makes complaint that hunters are shooting pheasants inside the city limits. Others have noticed the same violation of the city laws and there is a prospect that someone will help to enrich the city treasury with a fine unless the practice is stopped.

All of the Co. B boys from this locality who have been on guard duty in eastern Washington have been called in and are now at Camp Withycombe. They are Wilson Eastman, Guy Jones, Dewey Gibbs, Clark Stillions, Alton Lovelace. They were met by their fathers and mothers yesterday and by members of the Red Cross and treated with lunches and a good time.

On Monday morning a 75-foot flag pole will be raised on the grounds of the grade school on west Powell street. D. C. Ross, janitor of the building, has been busy for the past few days getting the concrete in readiness for the short post that the pole will be bolted on to. It is thought that the new flag pole will be the tallest in this vicinity. Six or eight men will be needed Monday morning to help raise the long stick. The district has provided a large flag.

A number of local women volunteered to assist the representatives of the Louise Home, who conducted a tag day here yesterday. They were well received and collected nearly sixty dollars for that worthy institution. Those assisting in the work were Mrs. G. W. Stapleton, Mrs. Lyon Cheine, Mrs. C. O. Branson, Mrs. Chas. Powell, Mrs. R. K. Akin, Miss Henrietta Wiles, Mrs. W. R. Kern and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan. Mrs. Cheine had the honor of collecting the largest amount.

At the meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society, held at the home of Mrs. R. R. Carlson last Wednesday, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Mrs. James Sterling; vice president, Mrs. B. W. Emery; secretary, Mrs. Annie Hevel; treasurer, Mrs. O. A. Eastman. It was voted to meet in the lecture room of the Methodist Episcopal church next Wednesday afternoon, for the purpose of receiving and packing clothing, fruit and vegetables for the annual contributions to the Portland Industrial Home and the Salem Old People's Home.

Those from this locality attending the lecture by Mrs. St. Clair Stobart at Multnomah Hotel last night were, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stapleton, Mrs. O. A. Eastman and Mrs. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair. Mrs. Stobart gave a vivid account of the perilous retreat of the Serbian army in 1915. Mrs. Stobart was in charge of a hospital unit, was a commissioned officer with the rank of major, and led her column during a three-months' retreat to safety without the loss of a person. Her lecture was illustrated by many views taken from photographs.

Miss Arlie Gibbs, for six years an employee of the local telephone company, was married on October 6 to Ralph Davidson of Independence. The wedding occurred in Salem and the happy couple left at once for a honeymoon trip. They will make their home at Independence. A shower was given Miss Gibbs last Friday night by her sister, Miss Leila Gibbs, when many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-to-be by her friends.

Among the young people of this community who left for Corvallis early this week to enter Oregon Agricultural college were the Misses Eckford Cameron, Florence Towle, Viola Dinger, Pearl Ruegg and Anna Brugger and Kirk Thompson. Miss Marguerite Volbrecht, who attended O. A. C. last year, went down to witness the opening of the fall term. Miss Volbrecht will attend Behnke-Walker Business college this year.

The quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church will be held this week, beginning tonight and continuing over Sunday. District Elder F. L. Burns will preach this evening and Saturday evening and on Sunday both morning and evening. An old fashioned love feast will be held on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Services of interest will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, to which all are invited. Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock and at 11, Rev. J. Montcalm Brown, the pastor, will preach. Epworth League will be held in the evening at 6:30 and a special Sunday school program at 7:30.

W. F. Honey, who has been absent on a business trip for several weeks, returned yesterday, being summoned by the death of his father, C. H. Honey of Portland. Mr. Honey's sister, Mrs. M. E. Quigley of Spokane, accompanied him home.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schneider and their daughter Louise, victims of the terrible accident near Reedville last Sunday, were relatives of John Bachman of Gresham, he being a brother of Mrs. Schneider.

Among the callers at the home of Mrs. Coons this week were Mrs. H. A. Shields and Mrs. Eva Pointer, Mrs. Cora Anderson of Fairview, Mrs. W. T. Sherwood and Mrs. Hanning.

Mr. Whitehead of Portland, who recently returned from an extended trip east, visited with friends in Gresham Sunday and inspected his property here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mewhirter entertained yesterday the former's sisters, Mrs. J. F. Davis of Salem and Mrs. I. H. Chittenden of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher and family were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Oliphant last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Forsythe of the Hillview neighborhood are rejoicing over the birth of a son on October 9.

Clair Burch is recovering from an operation for adenoids and tonsils last Saturday.

RESENTS INTERFERENCE IN CLUB AFFAIRE

A charter member of the Royal Embroidery club desires to correct a statement appearing in a recent issue of the Gresham Outlook to the effect that the old society was suspended and a new one organized for the reason that some of its members did not care to take up Red Cross work. The fact is that none of the members were opposed to Red Cross work, for some of those who objected to the action taken by the club have brothers and relatives now doing military service for the United States; and they are as patriotic and willing to defend and protect our flag and to aid in the good cause as those who denounce us as unpatriotic. But some of us, and especially myself, were offended at the action and injustice of a minority of the members tolerating an outsider from Gresham in dictating and telling us what we should do with our funds.

There was sufficient business and intelligence about us to pay in and save up a slight accumulation in the treasury, and we surely had ability and judgment enough to know how, when and where to disburse the same to the best interests of all con-
