Jack Frost killed all the potatoes, beans and dahlias Tuesday night, but was welcomed by the farmers as it will aid them in harvesting the potato crop.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.—Adv.

COTTRELL

Mrs. Ella Schneider entertained at dinner Wednesday evening, Harvey Schneider, the Misses Eva, Clara and Alberta Schneider, Miss McLaughlin of Portland, and Ike Foster of Vancouver, Washington.
Mrs. A. Sutton, of Parkdale, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts.

MISZ MILLINERY OPEN ONE DAY WEEKLY

Miss Misz will be in Gresham on Monday of each week, until further notice, for milliner work. She will occupy the Sell building, next door to Beit's confectionery.—Adv.

FAIRVIEW

The Women's society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Eliza Stone last week, when a large attendance of members and visitors was present. It was decided to hold the annual banquet in the city hall on Friday evening, November 2. Full announcements will be made later.

Mrs. Axtell of Seaside, a former resident of Fairview, visited friends here last week.

Mrs. H. M. Shaw and daughter, Mrs. Leslie St. Clair, who moved to Portland a few weeks ago, have decided to return to their home here and are gladly welcomed back by the residents of Fairview. George Shaw has gone to eastern Oregon and his family is with Mrs. Shaw's parents in Gresham.

The Rev. I. B. Self was agreeably surprised on last Wednesday morning by the arrival of fifteen members of Gordon Granger Post G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps of Woodlawn, who brought a sumptuous dinner and spent the day. Mr. Self is an officer in the Post.

COTTRELL

The Parent-Teachers meeting will be held at the Cottrell schoolhouse on Friday night, October 26. It is planned to make this a very interesting meeting and all are invited. Light refreshments will be served.
Through the Outlook's mistake in the last issue the item under Cottrell heading regarding a Halloween party at the schoolhouse should have been announced for Kelso instead of Cottrell.

TROUTDALE

The Red Cross auxiliary will meet at the church next Friday afternoon. Members and all others interested are urged to attend.

Their many friends at Troutdale regret to lose the C. I. Raker family, even though they have gone only so far as Gresham. They have finally closed the deal with Latourell & Son for the garage and business and moved to Gresham Saturday.

Mrs. Lee Evans came home from the hospital last Wednesday with her little son, Jack Sylvester Evans.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon, October 24th, at the church for quilting. Come as early as possible.

We are having church services every Sunday evening now, and all are invited to attend. There is good music and Rev. F. Ford is giving excellent sermons. Service begins at 7:30. Sunday school is at 11 o'clock.

The Catholic ladies of Troutdale and vicinity will give a program and supper at the hall next Saturday evening. A good time is promised.

Mrs. Minnie Collins came recently from San Francisco for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Jay Bailey.

The Hatfield family have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Ryan. E. Du Puls and family have moved recently into Troutdale from the Thompson residence across the river.

Visitors at the Ran Bailey home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. B. Inman, of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sebelius, also of Portland.

Mrs. L. A. Harlow returned Sunday from Eugene, where she went as a delegate to the state Parent-Teacher association. Mrs. A. D. Kendall, also a delegate, returned Saturday. They report an interesting meeting. Mrs. Harlow was elected corresponding state secretary at the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Skirvin and nephew Lewis returned Monday morning from a week-end visit with Mr. Skirvin's brother at Woodburn, Oregon.

MRS. JONES REPLIES

Gresham, Ore., Oct. 23d, 1917.
Editor Outlook:—On returning Friday from a six days' trip, I found two issues of the Gresham Outlook containing articles from the president of the "Willing Worker's club" and from the president of the late Royal Embroidery club which deserve more than passing notice, but not much more. These writers argue that because a member failed to attend a few meetings of the club, she was opposed to Red Cross work, and therefore they were justified in not only disbanding but of seceding from the old neighborhood organization; and establishing a new one called the "Willing Worker's club." The title itself was self-serving and insinuating, calculated to cause hard feelings and misunderstanding in the community.

To conclude the controversy without bitterness or malice, I will ask wherein were they justified in what they did and what right did they have to judge or impeach the motives of others. My failure to attend any of the meetings was not due to opposition to Red Cross work on my part. Being occupied with my books, typewriter and home duties, I was not present at two of the meetings prior to the one when the new society was formed, and therefore was not aware of the contemplated change.

As I have already intimated, there was no one objecting to Red Cross work to my knowledge, but there were and still are those objecting to the action of a few of the members suspending the club, so that the new-born club next nearest of kin called "Willing Workers" would fall heir to the funds to be disbursed by those self-made patriots and presidents who like to say:

"I am monarch of all I survey,
My power there is none to dispute;
From the mountain around to the sea
I am lord of the fowl and the brute."

For the rest, I will say, for myself and neighbors among whom there is a maximum of loyal American citizens, though they do not—like some others—proclaim it from the rooftops:
"I speak the truth, not so much as I would, but as much as I dare; and I dare a little more as I grow older."
MRS. DIMPLE JONES.

The smallest known bird is a Central American humming bird that is about the size of a bluebottle fly.

CHERRYVILLE

Mrs. Viola Kirby, of Portland, returned home last week, after having spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Friel, Sr.

Archie Averill is repairing the schoolhouse, also getting ready for the new heating system.

Miss Lizzie Roach spent the week-end with her parents at Damascus.

John Fensher, of Portland, spent last Monday with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Webber.

Master Leo Johnson, while riding a pony last week, was thrown and sprained his ankle quite badly. Dr. Botkins informs us the lad will not be able to use his foot for several weeks.

Mrs. Jennie Averill will entertain the Ladies' sewing club Wednesday.

Miss Lizzie Roach spent last Thursday evening at Cherry acres.

Mrs. C. H. Johnson spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clark.

Mrs. Wm. Rugh, of Portland, is visiting with Mrs. Cyrus Runyan and other friends in our neighborhood. Mrs. Rugh has lived in this part of the country for many years having moved to Portland last spring.

ANDERSON

Chas Lekberg is commencing the erection of a new house on his place. D. W. Hartley and H. L. Ball have rented the E. E. Miller place, lately vacated by Mrs. Arnold and her brother.

Wm. E. Wheeler is digging a well near his house.

David Wolfe has resigned as carrier on Route 1, from Boring, Floyd Lake has taken his place.

M. H. Wheeler has been hauling gravel on the road leading by his place, gratis.

J. M. Hillyard has made some much needed improvements on the road to Anderson station.

Paul Stone is afflicted with some of Job's comforters and is not able to work.

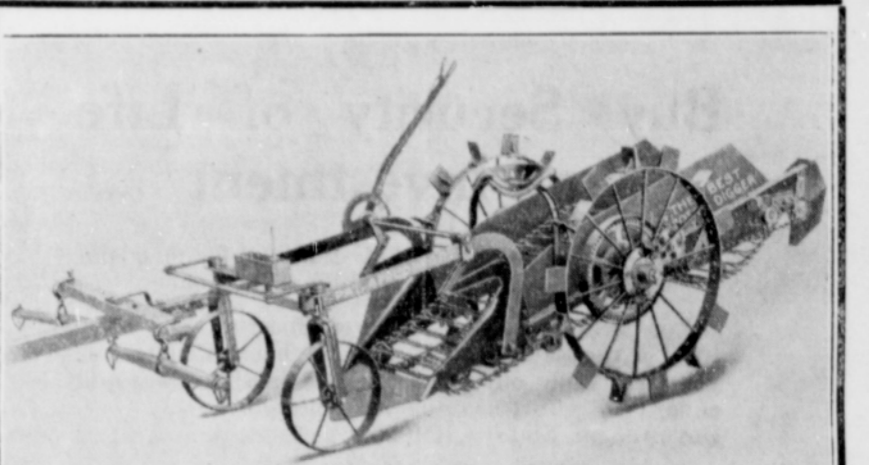

Miss Franklin and Miss Hawley, teachers in the Portland schools, called on Mrs. C. M. Lake Sunday afternoon. Miss Hawley taught her first school at Orient several years ago.

The church school at Gillis is progressing favorably under Miss Coy Steck's management.

Mrs. Wm. J. Hillyard is improving from the attack of rheumatism. She is under the care of Dr. Hughes.

There is a large acreage of wheat being sown this fall.
Registration at O. A. C. at the end of the eighth day this year was precisely what it was one year ago at a like time—1726. The largest enrollment and the biggest gains are in the Home Economics school.
