

UNION HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TO ESTACADA

Union High School No. 2 was the loser in a hard fought game of football on the gridiron of the Estacada high school when the local boys held the Gresham high school down to a score of 13 to 2. The playing was clean and fair all the way through, and none of the players of either team were injured.

The players of Union High School No. 2 and rooters, 56 in number went up to Estacada on a special car. After the game the men of both of the football teams were treated to a splendid three-course banquet in the domestic science room of the high school by the Estacada high school domestic science girls.

Players for Union High, and their

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."—Adv.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. M. J. Murray of Ridgfield, Washington, left today for her home, after a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. B. W. Emery.

Union High School foot ball team will play with Estacada on the home grounds on Friday, November 2. The members of the team are selling tickets for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Radford, of Oregon City, have moved to Gresham and will occupy Frank Gibbs' cottage in Regner addition. Mr. Radford is employed at the factory of the Beaver State Motor company.

About thirty members of the Epworth League went to the Webb Cherr Farm last Tuesday evening to serenade and properly welcome the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Spindler. The affair was a surprise. It was greatly enjoyed by all.

F. E. Bates of Springdale was a business visitor in Gresham yesterday and a welcome visitor at the Outlook. Mr. Bates returned last week from Woodston, Kansas, where he has been for more than a year. He expressed great satisfaction in being back in good old Oregon.

E. E. Chipman, lately a rural letter carrier out of Gresham, assisted Lou Howard for two weeks in straightening out the tangle on route A out of Portland. He will carry the route alone tomorrow while Mr. Howard is taking the required examination as a motor route carrier.

Gresham Rebekah lodge entertained the Boring Rebekahs on Monday evening last, and at the same time the Boring Rebekahs put on the initiatory work for several candidates for membership in the local lodge. After the work, the company was treated to a fine supper by the Gresham Rebekahs.

At the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, Rev. J. Malcolm Brown, the pastor, will preach both morning and evening. At the morning service, Mrs. Emil Oswald will sing "Ye Eyes That Are Weary" by Brackett. The Sunday school, which meets at 10 o'clock, has classes for everyone and invites your attendance. Epworth League meets at 6:30.

The many friends of Frank Bell and Albert Hensley are pleased to see the pictures of these two young men in the October 20th issue of Leslie's Weekly. They are in Co. C, Ore. Engineers at Camp Greene. They are seen at their ordinary duties, along with many others, just as the camera man caught them. They appear as stalwart, healthy, happy young fellows in the service of the best country and the best cause on earth.

TELEPHONE MESSAGES WILL COST MORE

Beginning Nov. 1st, according to word received by the local telephone office, all long distance messages of whatever sort which amount to 15 cents or more will be charged an additional 5 cents as a government war tax. This will have a tendency to lessen the number of lengthy long distance messages or perhaps increase the number of those that will be within the limit of the minimum charge which is 10 cents. Talk will no longer be cheap but those who will say much must contribute to the government's war support.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beadle entertained a number of old friends at their home on Roberts avenue and Fifth street yesterday, by a sumptuous dinner at noon, in honor of the eleventh anniversary of their marriage. The house was effectively decorated with autumn leaves and mountain ash berries. The dinner was followed by music and conversation and all reported an enjoyable time. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Conley, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. George Kenney, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Clananhan, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clananhan, and Mrs. E. Boughner.

The vacant store room in the Regner building has been rented by the Gresham cannery managers as a storage place for potatoes. It will be filled by farmers who made contracts last spring for their crops.

FAREWELL VISIT TO CAMP WITHYCOMBE

Camp Withycombe was almost deserted today when two sections, each containing more than a dozen coaches and several extra baggage cars pulled out on their way to San Francisco, carrying the boys on their way to the war.

Large crowds were there to see the soldiers depart. So many persons had sons or other relatives among the troops that the visitors at Camp Withycombe during the past three or four days were in such large numbers as to convey the impression that but few were left who had not at least one member of the family among them.

A large delegation of visitors went from Gresham and vicinity on Wednesday and again today. Among those who visited Camp Withycombe on Wednesday were noticed the following:

Mrs. J. T. Stillions, Mrs. J. H. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbs, Leila Gibbs, Alice Roberts, Walter Metzger, Conrad Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Elton Eastman, Mrs. Camp, Mrs. John Hamlin, Georgana Hamlin, Mrs. J. N. Mewhirter, Carrol Heslin, Orin Stanley, Ted Brugger, Edith Hiatt, E. Davidson, Leta Mathews, Mrs. D. C. Ross.

The visitors to the camp today included Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ross, Mrs. J. T. Stillions, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. Edna Steadman, Mr. Steadman, Miss Eva Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones, Mrs. R. K. Akin, John Hamlin, Roy Wonnacott, Mrs. Alva Hevel, Miss Vivian Hevel, Mrs. Roy Gibbs, Miss Leila Gibbs, Mrs. J. H. Metzger, Miss Henrietta Wiles and Leslie Wiles.

TO CONSERVE FOOD

CORBETT, Ore., Oct. 24, 1917.—Editor Outlook:—Please let me have a little space in your esteemed paper. I wish to refer to a letter appearing a few days ago in a Portland paper, written by a driver, who takes garbage to the crematorium. But before I go into details, I must say it was with emotion and tender feelings that I listened to the speech of Mr. R. L. Sabin of Portland recently at a liberty bond meeting here at our high school, pleading with the audience to help the government now engaged in this terrible war, and my thoughts wandered back to that garbage driver's letter, which said they burn up hundreds of loaves of bread every week.

In the name of heaven, what are the wives and housekeepers of some of Portland's citizens thinking about! Do they not realize the price of wheat, the price of flour that we must save to send to the starving people across the ocean? What must the mothers and wives and daughters in France, England and Belgium think of the management of American women, when they hear of such waste and such garbage cans filled with food!

For goodness sake, stop and think of the mass of people now living on scant rations, whom we must now aid with food, money and clothing, if we are going to win this war. Stop and think of our brave soldiers, who are giving themselves, risking their very lives, for you and me and all of us. Out of their $30 a month they even buy liberty bonds, while others are wasting more than they use. Perhaps some of the women are the wives of the striking ship carpenters, who get good wages, but strike for more. Some of these people never know the value of a priceless loaf of bread, neither do they know the value of a dollar. It is all the same whether they get little or much, they will never be better off. To such housekeepers I ask, "How can you look into the face of your husband, who works perhaps hard and faithfully, when you go down to the market with a full purse?" Don't buy to waste. Buy less and don't put the precious bread in the garbage can. If any dry bread accumulates, dry it in the oven, make crumbs of it and store it in a jar. It is handiest for puddings or for various purposes.

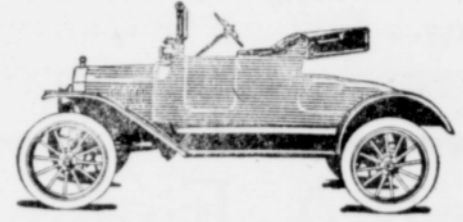

I must tell of an experience in Liverpool, England, which made a lasting impression on me, and it might impress wasteful women in this country. While staying a few

CHANGES IN RATES

Frank Brown, agent for the Portland Railway Light & Power company in Gresham, announces that beginning with Tuesday, October 30, all round trip fares will be discontinued, also all commutation books including those used by students. The popular Monday and Friday excursion rates will be withdrawn. However, the Sunday excursion rates to Estacada will be continued. These changes are made necessary because of the ever increasing expenses of operating the business of the company.
