Mrs. William Thom had as a guest the early part of the week, Miss Hazel Miner of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Spencer entertained for a week the former's father, J. D. Spencer, who has returned to his home in Eugene, Ore.

Chas. Powell has made two sales of registered Shorthorn bulls this week. One was to C. L. Falk of Halsey, Oregon and the other to A. E. Alspaugh of Alspaugh station.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley went to Goble on Wednesday for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kaser. They will return home on Sunday.

Mrs. A. G. Schantin, of Rockwood, is in the Good Samaritan hospital where she had a goitre removed from her neck. She is reported as recovering and will return home soon.

School Clerk C. J. Lundquist has completed the census in the school district, and reports a total of 291 between the ages of 4 and 20 in the district. Of this number, 166 are boys and 125 are girls.

R. J. Werner, county agent for Clackamas, has a plan in view to reclaim about 2500 acres of burned-over land by seeding it for live stock pasturage. He is trying to have the state and national government furnish the seed and do the work.

The Bruns Lumber company has now a fully equipped mill with planer located one-half mile south of Sandy just off the Bluff road. This is a splendid location in a tract of excellent timber. Phone connections with Gresham are being installed.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Free Methodist church recently packed a box to be sent to missionaries in various foreign fields. The contents of the box were valued at $75.73, not $59.18, as was erroneously reported to the Outlook.

Miss Mabel Metzger, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Metzger, has been seriously ill for the past few days from blood poisoning. The infection started from a cold sore on the lips and spread all over the face. She is reported to be much improved.

R. W. McNeal, official tester for the Gresham-Columbia Slough Dairy-ling association, will leave for Albany at once. He has been here but one month and has been elected professor of chemistry at the Albany college. His successor here has not been named yet.

Harmon C. Buoy, a pioneer resident of this vicinity, who moved several years ago to Washington, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilliard. He is a cousin of Mrs. Hilliard.

T. H. Gill and family have moved from their farm near Gresham to their winter home at 1414 Winona avenue, Portland.

Mrs. Clara Kane has been ill for the past few days and is being cared for by her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Goger.

Leslie St. Clair of the Oregon Coast Artillery returns this evening to the post, after a two-day visit with relatives and friends in Gresham and Fairview. This is his first visit since going to Ft. Stevens in July. A dinner party was given last night in Leslie's honor, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair. Those present beside the members of the immediate family were his wife and her mother, Mrs. H. M. Shaw of Fairview.

Notice of Communication.

At the next stated communication on November 13, Gresham lodge, No. 152, A. F. & A. M., will confer two M. M. degrees. The county clerk's office will confer one and Gresham lodge the other. After this work is done the stewards will confer the fourth degree in the banquet hall. A good time is anticipated. All master Masons in good standing are most cordially invited. A. J. W. Brown, W. M.; Wm. Metzger, secretary.

National Thanksgiving Proclamation

"Thanksgiving, 1917. By the President of the United States of America. A Proclamation.

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise of thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a Nation. That custom we can follow now, even in the midst of the tragedy of a world shaken by war and immeasurable disaster, in the midst of sorrow and great peril, because even amidst the darkness that has gathered about us, we can see the great blessings God has bestowed upon us, blessings that are better than mere peace of mind and prosperity of enterprise.

"We have been given the opportunity to serve mankind as we once served ourselves in the great day of our Declaration of Independence, by taking up arms against a tyranny that threatened to master and debase men everywhere and joining with other free peoples in demanding for all the nations of the world what we then demanded and obtained for ourselves. In this day of the revelation of our duty, not only to defend our own rights as a Nation, but to defend also the rights of free men throughout the world, there has been vouchsafed us in full and inspiring measure the resolution and spirit of united action. We have been brought to one mind and purpose. A new vigor of common counsel and common action has been revealed in us. We should especially thank God that in such circumstances, in the midst of the greatest enterprise the spirits of men have ever entered upon, we have, if we but observe a reasonable and practicable economy, abundance with which to supply the needs of those associated with us, as well as our own. A new light shines about us. The great duties of a day awaken a new and greater National spirit in us. We shall never again be divided or wonder what stuff we are made of.

"And while we render thanks for these things, let us pray Almighty God, that in all humbleness of spirit, we may look always to him for guidance; that we may be kept constant in the spirit and purpose of service; that by his grace our minds may be directed and our hands strengthened, and that in his good time liberty and security and peace and the comradeship of a common justice may be vouchsafed all the nations of the earth.

"Wherefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and invite the people throughout the land to cease upon that day from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship to render thanks to God the Great Ruler of Nations.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia this seventh of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-second.

"WOODROW WILSON.
"By the President,
"ROBERT LANSING, Secretary of State."

A Modern Shylock.

The customer picked up a knife from the counter and handed it to the butcher with a friendly smile. "I really don't want it," he said, "but if you will cut it off I will take it along with the rest."

"Cut what off?" demanded the butcher in blank surprise.

"Your hand," was the gentle reply. "You weighed it with the sausage, and I like to get what I pay for."

There Are Many Such. "I don't see why you call Perkins stupid. He says a clever thing quite often."

Exactly. He doesn't seem to realize that it should be said only once.

An Old Man's Stomach.

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

A Toast.

Here's looking at those that look at me
When I feel the need of cheer;
Here's a hand for those that give me a hand
When I'd stumble if none was near.

Here's a heart for those that show me a heart
When my own is too tired to beat;
Here's a boost for those that give me a boost
When I'm struggling on my feet.

Here's love for those that give me their love
When the world is charged with hate;
And here's to those that have done me wrong—
Let's wipe it off the slate.
