COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Our little burg here at the highway is fast coming out, if you please, and can now boast of a moving picture show which was put on for the first time last night at Becker's hall to a full house. It will continue every Tuesday night for some time.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church at Corbett will give a bazaar with an entertainment and refreshments on December 1st at Union High School No. 1. Everybody is invited. Here is a chance to buy some useful articles that might make fine Christmas presents for some of your friends.

The ladies of the Red Cross auxiliary at Corbett will give another dance on Thanksgiving evening, November 28, at Becker's hall. A good time is expected, good music and supper. Come one and all, and help a good cause.

Mrs. S. R. Knight has returned home after spending some time in the city with her daughter.

Mrs. D. Butler has just returned from a trip to California where she spent some time with relatives. She reports a most enjoyable trip and a good time during her stay.

Mrs. J. Crowston is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Hicks.

A special school meeting will be held at District No. 39 on the afternoon of November 24, for the purpose of voting a special tax for teachers' salaries and other necessary expenses that are in sight to the closing of the present term.

Frank Reed, of Corbett, was appointed by the board at their last meeting, as a visiting committee and will visit school every month. P. Anderson made a visit at school last month and found the school in excellent shape.

Mrs. A. Morgan, the hostess at Chanticleer, was in the city on a shopping tour Tuesday.

One day I passed a large poultry yard. I heard a great commotion, and listen! I heard this: the turkeys, geese and ducks were all so happy they said because they were going to have a better Thanksgiving than ever before, and when I wanted to know how it was they said, "We are all so glad because C. Latourle and his esteemed wife had left the country and are now in California."

H. Sumpter, of Corbett, was removed to the hospital last week quite ill, but is at the present time improving.

Mrs. John Bates, of Corbett, is at the present with friends in the city.

H. C. Restorf and family have moved to Camas, Washington.

SANDY

The first of a series of card socials for the benefit of St. Michael's Catholic church was given by Miss Bertha Albel, at the home of her brother, J. A. Albel, of Boring. There were about forty people present. Nine tables were arranged for cards. At the close of the evening refreshments were served. Miss Nora Milan and Raymond Gray made the highest score and Carolyn Varetli and John Milan the lowest. The guests of the evening are lavish in their praises of Miss Albel as a hostess and are looking forward with pleasant anticipation to the next social.

A Red Cross auxiliary has been organized with Mrs. J. C. Miller as chairman and Miss TenEyck as secretary. The next meeting will be on Thursday, November 22.

The Twice-a-Week Outlook one year for $1.50. Renew promptly as the paper will be discontinued at expiration.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. S. Dixon entertained on Nov. 9 in honor of Mrs. Ingals of Donald, Wash. The afternoon was spent in a very social time and refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls, Mesdames Robinette of Brownsville, Bird of Hood River, Atkinson of Corbett, D. S. Dunbar, Edwin Burlingame, R. Anderson, J. H. Peterson, A. L. Stone, Whitmore, Swank, Yeon, Jonas, Townsend, Snover.

Mrs. Robinette of Brownsville, Oregon, has returned home, after spending a few days with relatives of this place.

Mrs. Bird, of Hood River, spent a few days visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edwin Burlingame.

Mrs. J. W. Moller and daughter, Marjorie, have returned home, after spending a few days in Portland with her mother, Mrs. M. Douthit.

Word has been received here that Mr. Cree, formerly of this place, has sold his farm and moved his family to Eugene, Oregon.

The empty houses in Fairview are all filling up again. The Ashcraft house has been rented. Mr. Rice has moved his family into the Schram house and Mr. Copeland of Hood River is moving his family in the old Cree house.

Mrs. Dan Robertson of Washougal, Wash., spent a few days visiting relatives here.

The quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held here November 29. There will be no services in the church next Sunday evening.

The Red Cross auxiliary met in the city hall, Tuesday afternoon. The ladies are all very much interested in sewing for the Red Cross work.

KELSO

On Tuesday evening, November 20 at 8 o'clock, Mr. Geo. V. McClure of Rex, Oregon, will give a lecture on the subject, "Today and Yesterday." The meeting will be held at the schoolhouse under the auspices of the Kelso Parent-Teacher association. After the lecture a war-time lunch will be served, the proceeds of which will go to the Red Cross. Admission is free. Everybody cordially invited.

A meeting was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bowen, for the purpose of organizing a Red Cross auxiliary. The organization was perfected with a membership of fourteen and with a prospect of increasing the membership. The officers elected were: chairman, Mrs. Max Kligel; secretary, Mrs. A. Baumbach; treasurer, Mrs. Joel Jarl. Meetings will be held every two weeks. The next one will be on November 27, at the home of Mrs. Robert Jonsrud.

LUSTED

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton and family attended the funeral of E. D. Hurlbert at St. Johns last Sunday. He has been a sufferer from a cancer in the right temple for the past 12 years and has suffered untold agony. Mr. Hurlbert has been elder of the Seventh Day Adventist church for the past twenty years, and his seat in the church was only vacated three weeks before his death.

We wish to announce through the columns of this paper that a great many neighbors and friends was unable to attend the surprise party given to Mrs. Ella Schneider last Wednesday. Our best wishes go with her and family and they surely will be missed in our social affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Koch, of Mabery, has gone East on a visit.

Mr. Wiley and daughter, Leona, are visiting his daughter, Mrs. Iva Rauw.

J. Hosner and Ivor Davidson loaded two carloads of cordwood for Ione, Oregon, recently.

VENTURA PARK

Mrs. Grace Girt and little son, of Portland, who have been the guests of Mrs. W. H. Sanford for the past week, returned home Wednesday.

A. F. Friese, who has been quite ill for some time, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Ed. Decker spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her parents at Powell Valley.

The Base Line Improvement club will meet November 21, a week earlier than usual, on account of Thanksgiving.

Edith Reams, who has been with friends in Portland, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Decker and baby Helen, of Portland, visited relatives at this place Sunday and Monday.

A number of young folks of this place attended the dance at Sorensen's hall Saturday evening.

Mrs. Robt. Gray visited Mrs. Gladys Beslin of Portland Friday.

CHERRYVILLE

Mrs. Wm. Allen spent the week-end with friends in Portland.

John Wesley Baty died at the home of his son, C. E. Baty, at East Vancouver, November 6th. Mr. Baty was formerly an old resident of Cherryville, having spent several years on his beautiful homestead. After the death of his wife, he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. E. Shank, who moved to Portland a few weeks ago. Mr. Baty was buried at Oregon City.

Mrs. O. F. Botkins entertained the Ladies' Sewing club Wednesday, November 14.
