Subscribe for Evening Telegram Through the Outlook

To Publisher Gresham Outlook:

There are, no doubt, a great many readers of your paper who are also readers of Portland newspapers other than The Telegram. Of course, their subscriptions are paid in advance and they do not feel disposed to take another paper. You are authorized to inform all such subscribers that we will accept their remittance of $3.75 and withhold their order until such a date as they desire The Telegram started.

This should be the means of bringing in a large number of new readers. On the other hand, with the present readers, it makes no difference to what date their present subscriptions are now paid, we will accept their remittance and credit them for one full year in advance of their present date.

Please bear in mind the time is getting short and this offer will only continue until Nov. 30, 1917. After that date the subscription price of The Telegram will be $5.00 per year.

Appreciating your cooperation, we beg to remain

Yours very truly,

ROCKWOOD
Mrs. Seeley has moved to Portland for the winter. Her father, Mr. Belleu, is taking care of the store.
V. T. White and family have moved from Portland to the Jensen house. Mrs. White is at present in a Portland hospital for treatment, but is expected home soon.
The first quarterly conference of the Methodist church was held this morning.
The Ladies' Industrial club will meet at the church on Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. All are invited.

Mr. Carroll and his mother, Mrs. Stark, have moved to Portland from Rockwood. Mr. Carroll had the misfortune to lose a horse recently as the result of its falling on the pavement. This is the second horse which he has lost in the same way within the past few months.
Mr. and Mrs. Antone Schantine have received word of the death of Mrs. Schantine's brother-in-law, Mr. Gnose, of Hillsboro. He leaves a wife and eight children. Mrs. Schantine is in the hospital, but other members of her family attended the funeral today in Hillsboro.

George Everhart and family and Mr. Carrico and family of Oregon City visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Everhart. The afternoon was spent by a trip on the highway.
Arthur Rogers and his mother, Mrs. Rogers, have moved from Balldale to W. A. Rowen's cottage on Rockwood and Stevens street.
Rockwood grange entertained the Masters' and Lecturers' association last Saturday and a good meeting was enjoyed. The ladies of the grange voted to take up Red Cross Work. A committee appointed to look after the work consists of Mrs. Bell Stockton, Mrs. Mary Richmond and Mrs. Ida Burgess. A membership contest is on and some fine programs are anticipated.

Evening Telegram Bargain Offer.
The Outlook office is authorized to receive Telegram subscriptions during November at a reduction. The bargain price is $3.75; in combination with the Outlook, $4.50. You save 50 cents on the combination. Take advantage of this opportunity at once.

TROUTDALE
Some members of the Red Cross auxiliary went to the meeting last Friday afternoon bubbling over with indignation at Secretary Daniels' criticism, and were armed with newspapers and clippings telling the need of continuing the work, but the attendance was so large, and the demands for work and more work so clamorous, that there was not time or need to even discuss the subject. The knitting continues. The sewing also. On very short notice we were asked to send 25 Christmas packages for the soldiers to headquarters and they will be forthcoming, from members and friends, as we have not a cent in the treasury as yet. That condition is to be remedied, however, as arrangements were made to give a Red Cross dance on Wednesday, December 12th, and a committee on arrangements was named, consisting of Mrs. L. A. Harlow, Mrs. Ran Bailey and Mrs. Geo. Lumsden. Three new members were added. The next meeting will be Friday, Dec. 28.

Rehearsals are being held for a good, lively program for the Ladies' Aid bazaar to be held on Saturday, December 1st. Don't forget to look for some donation you can give to the rummage booth. Anything in your household that you can spare and somebody might buy will be acceptable. Articles may be brought to Fox's store, if it is convenient to bring them before the day of the bazaar. Mrs. L. A. Harlow is manager of the booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright are soon to open a brand new short order house and confectionery in Troutdale, in the room on the corner north of the postoffice. We wish them success in the new undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cummins returned home Thursday from a several month's sojourn at the coast.

In a recent issue of the Journal there was a picture of a former Troutdale boy, Felton Murray, and an interesting letter from him, from the army. In the letter he gave high praise to the Red Cross work.

Mrs. E. G. Bowen, a former resident of Troutdale, was here with her two children, from her home in Camas last week, visiting old neighbors.

Last week Jacob Hosner and family, residents on the Base Line road for many years, moved to another place of theirs at Pleasant Home, and his son-in-law, Ivor Davidson and family moved from the Pleasant Home place to the Hosner farm.

Lafayette Kronenburg was visiting his friend and former neighbor, Elery Cummins, last week.

Mrs. Nellie Bannerman spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Wright, at Troutdale.

Troutdale Ladies' Aid meets this week Wednesday, November 21st, with Mrs. Frank Boscoe.

Those who attended Methodist Episcopal quarterly conference at Bluff from Troutdale Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lumsden, Mrs. L. A. Harlow and Mrs. C. I. Thomas.

FAIRVIEW
The women of Fairview are taking much interest in the work of the Red Cross. The local auxiliary has completed and turned in during the past four weeks, two dozen shoulder wraps, two arm slings, six shirts, six pajamas, six pairs knitted socks, 100 substitute handkerchiefs, nineteen dish towels, some comfort pillows and pillow slips.
An all-day meeting of the Women's society of the Presbyterian church will be held in the city hall on Thursday afternoon. At the meeting all work will be finished and the full committees appointed for the bazaar, which will be held in the city hall on Friday, December 7.

Multnomah Grange to Meet Nov. 24.
Multnomah Grange No. 71 meets in regular session November 24. All are cordially invited to attend, there are only two more meeting days in this year. All patrons are urged to be present, and visitors are cordially invited. Come and help to make these two meetings a great success. Our last meeting was enjoyed by all present as the Lents degree team was with us and certainly did some nice floor work. Also the lecture hour was enjoyed by all. Come and take a part in the next lecture hour. Any reading, recitation, song or speech will be gladly welcomed by your lecturer. Meet me at the grange hall, November 24.
MRS. G. W. ALLDER, Lecturer.

POWELL VALLEY
Attention is called to the auction sale to be held next Friday night, November 23, by the Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church at Powell Valley. It will commence at 7:30. Coffee and cake will be served and a large attendance is desired.
The Powell Valley school, under direction of the principal, Mr. Bradley, and teacher, Miss Newman, gave a very fine patriotic entertainment at the schoolhouse last Saturday night. It was given to raise funds for the district for the Y. M. C. A. war fund campaign. Following a rousing patriotic introduction by the principal, the children sang several national songs and gave patriotic recitations. Judge Stapleton and H. L. St. Clair spoke on the Y. M. C. A. work among the soldiers. Baskets and pies were then sold netting over $30. Sale of other refreshments brought up the proceeds of the evening to about $40.

Miscellaneous Sale.
The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church of Powell Valley will give an auction sale of miscellaneous articles on Friday, November 23. Coffee and cake will also be served. Everybody is cordially invited.

Certain Cure for Croup.
Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."—Ady.

A DOLLAR SAVED IS A DOLLAR EARNED and enough of them earned in this way will form a very comfortable and much desired path to independence and a peaceful contented old age. If you doubt the truth of this remark ask any man or woman who has a substantial savings bank account. Can't you see what a feeling of satisfaction and security they have? They know that they have a snug sum of money to fall back on.
